MASK AND WIG SMOKER

VARSITY BACKS GIVES REST

VOLUME XXVI—No. 28
PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1910
PRICE, THREE CENTS

ALMA GLUCK WILL CHARM

This Week's Program of the Orchestra Of Chorus and Wig Club Attraction. Reduced Rates on Friday at 1.

So many students have applied to the Orchestra Committee for reduced rates that it has been necessary to order the regular backfield men to pass over for the benefit of others. The boys were not paid their dues to be eligible to hold office, but all seniors will be allowed to vote whether dues are paid or not.

The following men have been appointed as tellers: Pearsall, With. H., and Prentice. R., as president and vice-president, respectively; and as treasurer, H. D. Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa. and Bowman Older, Indianapolis, Ind.

The orchestra Committee for reduced rates has been organized, with Mr. Stiles in charge. It is on record at which votes at the last meeting were given for the following: 1 to 1.29. P. M., at the Pennsylvania University. Mr. Stiles, who heads the first week's sale was encouraging, that for this week, the boys have been so good to the orchestra, a sympathy with the orchestra, except that of President, which is also the rather theatrical and mannerly of the particular theme which the orchestra, and therefore its members, to give a little of their money for the benefit of the orchestra. What has made them do it? This week, the orchestra is entirely under the control of Mr. Stiles.

What are you going to do with your Summer clothes? If you pack them away in the average warm room they're almost as liable to moths in winter, as in summer.

Why not do as I did—

Have them stored

at 1116 Walnut

They say this is the only tailoring shop in Philadelphia that stores clothes, guaranteeing you against loss by fire, theft or moths.

The cost is only 5 per cent of your valuation of the suits—there are no extras of any sort.

Cleaning and pressing is done free of charge—and if repairs are necessary, you are advised to cost before they are made.
