DEATH CLAIMS LEIGH FOWNALL

Popular Athlete Succumbs Suddenly to Nephritis at University Hospital.

Cold Shower Blamed.

After an illness of a week, Samuel Leigh Fownall, a member of the Physics Department, a promising basketball and football player, and a popular man in College, died yesterday afternoon at 1:30 at University Hospital, as a result of an attack of nephritis. Fownall played halfback on the Scrubs football team and was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. University officials are offering a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for the death of Fownall.

The Realm Hind pregnancy, consisting of a girl born last November on Board, which in past years has been awarded as the best essay submitted by a student of the College, will be made the reward this year for a competition in playwrighting. It has been estimated that about 100 students will enter this competition, and the prize will be awarded in the fall.

Three of last year's Freshman team, who are the only Freshman team to draw from, are again eligible for the team. Among them are John M. K. Creamer, who has made a name for himself by his fine play, and who is expected to be a leading man in the future, and John A. B. Bloom, who has shown great promise in his first season, and who is expected to be a valuable member of the team.

The Freshman team will play against the Sophomore team on Friday, October 24, at 1:30, in the Trophy Room. The game will be played in two halves, with a fifteen-minute intermission. The team will be composed of the following players: E. T. Custer, quarterback; W. H. Prince, end; H. B. Bloom, halfback; W. J. M. Young, center; J. A. B. Bloom, end; J. A. B. Bloom, halfback; and H. B. Bloom, fullback.

Prospects for Basketball

There are two excellent men who will be in attendance at the next meeting of the varsity, and it is expected that a strong team will be formed.

FRESHMEN DOWN VARSITY

Score Twice in Twenty-Minute Fracas.

There was little joy in the hearts of the students who witnessed the game last Saturday night, when the Freshman team was given a thorough beating by the Sophomore team. The game was played in the gymnasium, and the conditions were very favorable for the Freshmen, who were able to make a clean sweep of the field.

But few men are—the balance must be satisfied with a half way fit, or go to a good tailor and have the suit built to fit the figure. Nature gave them.
