FRESHMAN TAKE FINAL GAME

Conflict Long String of Victories by Running Up 25-4 Score Against Cornell Youngsters.

By a spectacular display of new tactics Freshman halfback Bator proved the Cornell freshmen Bators proved deadly in "The Princetonian." Their only score came when McLarne, several occasions thej penetrated to a standstill, on which pass he had direct control of the execution of the game.

"Karanog Castle," said Mr. White. "The tomb of the king who reigned about that time was found and is now at the new science, for you all know that it is to be in the future there can be no existence in the present. The immortal life is not in dura-

Dr. John Douglas Adam, a pupil of C. Graham-White, the famous English sociologist, will deliver a lecture at Princeton University tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Princeton University gymnasium. Dr. Adam is known for his work in the field of social science, particularly in the areas of sociology and political economy. His lecture is expected to attract a large audience, and will cover a range of topics including the nature of society and the role of the individual in shaping its development. The event is free and open to the public.

Harvard returns to the Bostton Garden Saturday and proved that the Harvard machine was not invariable. What the Back building lacked in science, however, the Big Red team and the Crimson herd had to be satisfied with a 9-0 score. As a result, Harvard has not a clear claim to the Penn-Jersey title. Yale claims to be as high as Harvard, for what Harvard had in science the Crimson had in spirit.

Third Lecture to Follow.

Mr. Donahue is best known for his work in the field of social science, particularly in the areas of sociology and political economy. His lecture is expected to attract a large audience, and will cover a range of topics including the nature of society and the role of the individual in shaping its development. The event is free and open to the public.

OTHER LECTURES TO FOLLOW.

The third lecture of the series will be given by Dr. John Douglas Adam, a pupil of C. Soccer Practice.

A second practice in the short session at Princeton will be conducted by Associate Professor of Sociology and Athletics C. F. Murphy, which will be held on the athletic fields at Princeton University. The practice is open to the public and will feature the men's soccer team.

FOOTBALL TITLE IN DOUBT

Harvard, Michigan and Pennsylvania
Have Equal Claim to Honors. Yale Has Plucky Team.

Yale came back in the most approved fashion from its 13-13 tie with Princeton last Saturday and proved that the Harvard machine was not invariable. What the Back building lacked in science, however, the Big Red team and the Crimson herd had to be satisfied with a 9-0 score. As a result, Harvard has not a clear claim to the Penn-Jersey title. Yale claims to be as high as Harvard, for what Harvard had in science the Crimson had in spirit.
Junior Week, and on Thanksgiving Eve, when the eyes of all Philadelphians are turned toward Pennsylvaniana, and all the decorations of the city are done in red and blue, it is really a function of significance.

This is the first time in some years that the General Annual Club will not assist in the evening's entertainment. From a musical point of view, this will not prove a handicap, for excellent as are the Cornell Clubs, they are not in any way superior to Pennsylvania, and the latter's repertory is considerably larger than a single evening's performance.

In addition to being a social event, the Belleveue concert should be decidedly a student occasion. With this in view, the management has offered great reduced rates to students. When the Glee Club sings "End Pennsylvania" next Wednesday, it is to be hoped there will be loyal ones of Red and Blue standing everywhere around the room. And those who have heard the Glee men sing the good old song know that it is not a thing to be heard without a thrill. If there are Pennsylvania men present to listen they cannot help but be loyal indeed.

THEATRE PARTY TO-MORROW.

Arrangements Completed for Annual Affair of Januaries at Garrick.

Junior Week will receive its official inauguration at the hands of the Club of 1912-tomorrow night, when the first affair of importance, the annual theatre party, is given at the Garrick Theatre under the name "Login," being the production selected.

In addition to a powerful detective-thriller drama, translated from the French, there should be added to it the fact that the performance will be largely a Pennsylvania affair.

As in the past, the affair will be extremely popular with the undergraduate body. The bulk of the seats directly in the center of the house have been reserved by the committee, and the entire theatre, it is planned, will be decorated with red and blue streamers and bunting, besides palms and swans. The menu, which contemplates having no time in arranging its seats.

Swimming Meet Tonight.

The annual swimming meet will be held in full force tonight, when the first of a series of monthly meets will be held in the gymnasium tank. More than one hundred men have entered the various events, and although Coach Kraft is well pleased with the show, he wishes to have every man with the slightest aquatic ability to be at the tank tonight. The novice race promises to arouse several "stars" who are to fill the vacancies in this year's team. There are still only a few men entered in the plunge and diving events, and it looks as if Pennsylvania will be weak in these places if more men do not come out. The meet will start at 9 o'clock and is open to all.

Orchestra Committee Appointed.

The following men have been appointed to the Orchestra Committee for the charge of the Philadelphia Orchestra in Weiglman Concerts in Weiglman Hall:

Edward D. Williams, Roberta, Alexander, Murphy, B. D. Breder, Hoffman, Gifford and McCall.

RESUME OF FRESHMAN SEASON

Comparative and Actual Scores Give
Pennsylvania Freshmen an Edge

With the game against the Cornell Freshmen successfully disposed of, the Pennsylvania Freshmen can now make a strong claim for the intercollegiate football championship. By both comparative and actual scores the Freshmen opened the other first year elevens. They went through the season undefeated and scored 170 points to their opponents 22. Fifty men reported to Coach Miller at the beginning of the season, among whom were numbered many former preparatory and high school stars. However, in learning the first rudiments of the "Pennsylvania System" the team at first showed but flashes of its later strength and had to be content with a 6 to 6 victory over Harvard in the first contest. After this game the men developed rapidly and left on the northern trip, a week later, to face Phillips Exeter at Andover. It was in this game that the Freshmen made their first and strongest bid for the championship, for they defeated Exeter 6 to 0, while the Yale, Harvard and Princeton young men were held to 6 and 0 scores.

Conway Hall was the next opponent of the Freshmen, and they succumbed very easily by the score of 14 to 0. In this game the Freshmen appeared for the first time with Barry as captain. In the following week the Freshmen took another journey northwards, this time defeating the strong Hotchkiss School, it is true, but by a score of 10 to 6 to the Yale Freshmen's 6 to 0 victory.

Lehigh, the team which won every other game on its difficult schedule, was the next opponent, losing by a score of 12 to 11 in a game in which Crawford's drop-kicking formed an important factor in the victory.

In the two succeeding weeks Colgate and Toronto were the first year men's opponents, and were crushed by the scores of 49 to 0 and 32 to 0. The decisive victory over the Cornell Freshmen Saturday completed the season and left a record that will be hard for future first year teams to equal. On the form displayed in these games and against the Varsity several of the Freshmen players stand out prominently as Varsity material for next year, namely, Barry, Barry, Marshall, Crawford and Minds. The line men, too, have played consistently throughout the season and should make strong bids for positions on the first team in the next three years.

Freshmen Meeting To-day.

There will be an important meeting of the Freshmen Class to-day in the Houston Chemical Laboratory. Important business will be transacted.

OFF FOR WAYNE TO-MORROW

"Varisty Winds Up Practice on Franklin Field—Big Red" Team at Atlantic.

After practically two days of idleness, the Varisty will be put through for the final scrimmage of the season on Franklin Field this afternoon. Tuesday day will find the men at Wayne, where the lastouches will be administered in final preparation for the Thanksgiving struggle with Cornell. Practice this morning consisted of a fifteen minute signal drill and a long hour of grueling scrimmage between the Varisty and Scrubs, in which the latter outplayed their opponents, and, aided by harmless work on the part of the first team, crossed the goal line twice. This indication of a slump at this stage of the season worried the coaches considerably, and it also banished any spirit of over-confidence that may have been present in the minds of the players. The line was principally at fault in the failure to hold the Scrubs, and will receive much attention from the coaches during the next three days.

The Cornell Varisty will leave Liberty tonight for Atlantic City, the coaches having chosen this resort in preference to Window Junction as the place to put the men on edge. Reports from the Big Red camp during the past week of discouraging work on the part of the Varisty, but the reverse for the most part, rather light after the hard battle with Chi- cago, and may not be taken as an indication of the form which the Eas- cans will display next Thursday.

Students at Yale rest the university $292.27 each, opposed to the average receipts of only $114.12 each.

The first balloon ascension ever made at Williams College, and the crowning event of the Aeronautical Society, was made Saturday morning.
