JUNIORS GROW RESTIVE

Waiting for Annual Ball—Weightman Hall is Already Undergoing a Transformation

All preparations for the Junior Ball have been completed and the society girls of 1942 are looking forward to Friday evening with an eagerness known only once a year. The committee who have been in charge feel that every feature that tends toward success has been thoroughly exploited.

The symphony will be dressed in its prettiest and that means a la Habemus, the well-known decorator of the Bellevue-Stratford. He is hard at work transforming Weightman Hall into a corner of Paradise by means of green and white flowers, bunting to match and an arbor of beautiful evergreens.

For the melody, Prof. Herzberg promises to have his orchestra at its best and sending forth strains of the latest music which will make it impossible for many "set-outs." It will be good news to the dancers to know that the floor will be in the finest condition known to the polisher's art. It will be waxed several coats by a competent firm and is guaranteed to make the Waltz the easiest and most graceful thing in the world.

The popularity of this event is assured by the fact that nearly 175 couples will fill Weightman Hall next Friday night.

The list of patronesses is as follows:

Organ Recital Tonight.

Mr. Earle E. Beatty, organist, as- sisted by Miss Marie Stone Longton, contrabass, will give a recital in the Houston Club auditorium tonight at 4:30. The concert is open to students and members of the faculty.

NOTICES

Tickets wanted for Army-Navy game. Report Saturday at 11 A.M.

A meeting of the Maine Club will be held this evening at 7:30 on the third floor of Houston Hall.

The regular meeting of the Deutscher Verein, announced for this evening, has been postponed until next Wednesday evening, November 26th.

No more coupon seats for the Cornell game can be obtained. Members who have not exchanged their books will be notified to send all or all in the Public park.

Several choice seats formerly re- served for the patronesses of tonight's concert by the Combined Musical Clubs, may be obtained after 1 P. M. today at Houston's.

Citizenship for Tuesday, November 25. The class will be prepared on "Recommendations of the Naturalization Commission," and "New Naturalization Law." Act of June 15, 1940, Sec- tions 1 to 11 inclusive. L. S. Rowe.
