As a football climax to a gals week, the final game of the year will be played tomorrow between the Red and Blue at Philadelphia Central High. It is a final match between two old adversaries of the gridiron. The Red and Blue will be the only teams placed in the fall season that will be able to equal the record of 6-1-1 set by the 1910 Pennsylvania football team.

The Red and Blue team is composed of the best players from the central high schools of the city and is considered by many the strongest team in the city. The Blue team is composed of the best players from the high schools outside of Philadelphia and is considered by many the strongest team in the city.

The game will be played at 11:30 A.M. at the Central High School and will be broadcasted by the Philadelphia Central High School radio station.

The teams are evenly matched as to ratings, with the Red team rated as the better team by the experts. The game is expected to be a close one, and both teams are expected to give their all in the last game of the season.

The game will be followed by a dance at the Central High School, and a testimonial banquet will be held at the Central Hotel in honor of the winning team.

The game is expected to be a great spectacle, and both teams are expected to give their best efforts in the last game of the season.

WELCOME, CORNELL.

We are so in the habit of opening our arms to the college on the banks of Lake Cayuga that it has become almost second nature to us.

This year, we feel that we are meeting, as exceptionally worthy foe, one which will make our team wax itself to the utmost to defeat, and, because of this feeling, you, Cornell, are doubly welcome. As a worthy foe, we greet you, as a dear friend, we welcome you.

The relations between ourselves and you have always been of the most cordial nature, and our sincerest wish is that these relations may be fostered and our love for many years to come.

(Now the better team win!)

UNFORTUNATELY.

The other undergraduate body of Pennsylvania is deeply grieved to hear that the Cornell team has been deprived of the services of Captains Sinon, the team fullback.

It has been our aim for years to meet the strongest teams in the country, and we were more than sorry to learn that one of our greatest rivals and, at the same time, our best friend, should clash with a Pennsylvania team in a weakened condition.

We must bow, however, to the superior power, and not question its actions. Our only hope is that Captain Simon's father may recover.

May Cornell have a substitute for their captain who will play the same strong game of which Simon is known to be capable, and may they not feel his loss too keenly.

A GOOD JOKE, BUT — —

It seems that this year's Sophs are too little enthuastic about the matter of class spirit.

The cause for complaint is the spir-iting away of Dougherty. President of the Freshman Class. To conceal him for eight days, to keep him from chasses and the festivities of the Thanksgiving holidays all that time is carrying the joke a trifle too far. Next Sunday or Monday would be an early good date to dispose of this class leader.

The only remedy for this difficulty is the immediate return of Dougherty. and we urge that this course be adopted at once. The Sophomores are to be congratulated upon their splendid spirit of caution and foresight. But this time, this spirit has gone beyond reasonable bounds. We hope that the second year men will return him immediately, and thereby keep in the good graces of the faculty and upperclassmen.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

Hon. George D. MacCreedy and Provost dent Smith Speak This Morning.

The Hon. George D. MacCreedy, one of Philadelphia's prominent citizens, and a M. A. in Liberal Arts, a Graduate in Philosophy from the University of Harrisburg in this country.

The topic of his talk will be the tremendous growth and popu-lariy of the country in the last decade and the many other things for which we as a people should be grateful. Dr. Smith will preside and will himself give a short address before delivering Representative Mac-Creedy.

This service will be the first one held on Thanksgiving Day in the history of the College, and will set an example for future years.

If MacCreedy is a graduate of the University and has always been conscious of its affairs. Before being elected Congressman he was president of the Market Street National Bank, and for a good while been known as a prominent layman of the Episcocollege.

Posters and information have been sent out to all the fraternity houses and clubs to get out the largest crowd of the year and extensive preparations have been made to accommodate them.

SOCCER TEAM OPENS SEASON.

The Varsity Eleven Plays Germantown at Manheim This Morning.

Soccer makes its official debut this morning, when the Varsity team clashes with the Germantown Cricket Club at Manheim. Germantown has played a very successful season this fall, and second in the Soccer League.

Brady, consistent team work which characterized the club men, while the Red and Blue eleven is as yet untried.

The outlook for the latter is very bright, however, since several recevies are on hand, and the entire squad of candidates has shown exceptional promise. This contest will inaug-rate a series of eighteen to be played during the winter.

Lest They Forget.

Seniors' individual pictures for the Yearbook must be taken during the next ten days. Sittings may be aranged for by telephone at any time with Parker Studio, 1712 Chestnut street. Failure to do so at ones will prevent insertion.
