EMINNATION OF COMPETITION

The elimination of competition and its attendant evils was the subject of a lecture yesterday afternoon by Senator Burton, who delivered the fourth lecture of his series of six. He said he had been doing so much to the increased efficiency and economy which belongs to large-scale operations in the railroads that he had had to suffer from opposition. When the small individual operator was doing something his big competitors might just as well be doing, the small operator had a chance to make his mark. But when the big operators were doing something that the small operators could not do, the small operators were being squeezed out. It was a question of getting the maximum from the minimum of resources. It was important that all business men today demand the highest expression of modern architecture - the question is, do we furnish it? The building that is not built is not in the market that is not purchased is not in the future. If one of you were given the problem of building a church, would you use the style of a middle-age church that you didn't want? It's not common sense to base your architecture on American history.

The play to be given this year by the Buckeye State Club's Gridiron and Track Star in Houston Hall.

The basketball season began in real earnest last evening. The Varsity Stars will have two important meetings next season, one against the Penn Quakers, and another against the St. Louis University on December 17. It is a physical impossibility for those whose special privilege it is to raise funds for the Settlement's support to perceive individually each student. I truly believe that there is no quicker to respond to a genuine need than a college man. Many of our most prominent undergraduates and members of the Faculty have been and are taking upon their time and energy to it. There is another way to help, by which many who cannot give personal attention may yet share in promoting the activities, and this is by giving of their means.
We can all give something, and use it for the pennies the dollars would not exist. "Every little helps." Some of us can give a good deal. Will you be good enough to give this letter space in your columns, in the hope that your readers will help out in this time of need. We will be glad to have contributions handed to the correspondence of the Christian Association to or in the rooms at Houston

Gracefully yours,
EDWARD C. WOOD, Treasurer.

Fig Leaves from Adam's Diary

I have arranged with the Jossey Young Men's Department that a reduction of 15 per cent. will be made to Pennsylvania students who mention this advertising during the first 15 days of December. Read the details. They are interesting.

I AM ADAM

To all students of the University of Pennsylvania who mention this advertising in the Pennsylvania, a special

Ten per cent. Reduction will be made during the first fifteen days of December, on any suit or overcoat purchased here.

Look over our stock of Fall and Winter suits.

You will find the regular price per suit plainly indicated on a tag attached to each bolt of cloth.

After you have made your selection, if it is not suiting you best, simply tell us that you are a student of the University of Pennsylvania and mention this reduction offer. The 15% will be deducted from the regular amount which you see before you.

Style, fit and finish are guaranteed.

MORE HONORS FOR DR. JOHNSON.

Is Chosen a Delegate from Philadelphia to the Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Dr. Ramsey R. Johnson, Professor of Transportation and Commerce in the Wharton School of the University, has been selected as a delegate from the Maritime Exchange of Philadelphia to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress which will meet in Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

The congress is composed of delegates from waterways associations and commercial organizations in different parts of the United States. Last year Dr. Johnson accompanied the National Waterways Association to Europe as its expert and as the representative of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, to which he made a report upon the waterways policies of European countries.

WITH OTHER COLLEGES.

Chicago bases only two of her football team by graduation.

Fifty-one candidates have reported for the Virginia basketball team.

Eleven men were awarded the insignia of the Cornell Cross-Country Club.

Michaiah will honor fourteen football men with the Varsity letter this year.

Two hundred men attended the dinner given to students of all courses at Massachusetts Tech.

Illinois Agricultural students will be honored from classes to attend the various stock shows in Chicago.

Handel's Messiah will be presented by the Choral Society of Illinois State University during the holiday season.

Columbia has established a Mathematics Club, for the purpose of raising the standard in all branches of that study.

Statistics taken in the Freshman Class at Yale show English to be the most popular study, with Latin second and French third.

As a workshop to a very successful football season, Washington will startrette by an immense "exercising" camp, each of which every contester possible will be tolerated.
