Distinguished Surgeon Will Succeed

Since it has become known that a base ball game with Harvard is now practically a certainty, much discussion has arisen among the undergraduates as to the probable results in terms of honor and possible results of such a contest.

The contest was unofficially arranged and scheduled for June 7 by the Pennsylvania Base Ball Commit-tee, acting in conjunction with the Harvard Athletics Club.

The members of this body have unanimously expressed themselves as willing to go governed wholly by the attitude of the students of the University.

In discussing the matter, Ernest M. Comstock, vice president of the Class, called the captain of the football team and catcher of the bat, said: "From what I have heard, I feel that as undergraduates we are in favor of the game, and it is safe to say that it will only be decided by the football and the under-graduate and not with me in this sentiment. Harvard will prove a worthy opponent.

William H. Scholtz, captain of the base ball team, said: "I am much gratified that the forward men have approved of the plan; I am satisfied with the schedule, and feel that the result of the game and the under-graduate game with me in this sentiment. Harvard will prove a worthy opponent."

When questioned as to the future of the Harvard base ball activities, J. Hartman Moseley, 21, baseball manager, said: "I want to congratulate the students of both institutions for showing their sentiments in this matter and sincerely hope that the appearance will be quite favorable to both athletic relations in the near future."

Raymond L. Smith, manager of the crew and Varsity oarsman, expressed himself as very much gratified with the sentiment as far as I have been able to ascertain. It is hard to say at the present time what the future will be."

In speaking of other relations with Harvard, David E. Williams, team manager, said: "Our relations with Harvard are always the best and a contest with the Crimson on the diamond is felt certain, will be welcomed by both under-graduates and alumni."

EXTRA SPEAKER AT RECEPTION.

Dentist and Veterinary Department Will Each Elect a Representative.

The announcement that only one man was to be elected to speak at the farewell reception to Present Hives and also to attend the reception for scholars of the Dental and Veterinary Departments, has caused much discussion among undergraduates, especially among the Dental, whose sentiments have been most expressed as that of the Medical Department.

At first the committee in charge decided that only one student from each department could be an under-graduate speaker as far as possible; but there has been a change in the Dental and Allied Schools and it is not expected that the Dental and Allied Schools were not entirely rational. However, neither is this change satisfactory, as a result of which the official ballot again printed is this house.

NOTICES.

There will be no soccer practice today.

The Christmas Tree Committee will meet today at Dr. Young's office at 1 o'clock.

All Freshmen interested in debating please report to Room 213, College Hall, tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

The following men are requested to attend a meeting of the Zolo Play Committee today at 1:30 P. M., in Zolo Hall: Ross, Wright, Cowles, Scholz and Gill.
More big men are needed to take care of the heavyweights in wrestling. If Pennsylvania is to make a bid for championship honors this winter, the novice meet has brought out plenty of lightweight material, from which, together with the veterans of last year, a strong team can be formed, provided that more men report for the heavier classes.

As minor injuries received by the men in the first elimination round of the novice tournament will necessitate the postponement of several of the bouts in the second round, the meet will not be brought to an end until after the holidays. Medals will be awarded to winners in each class.

Elimination from this contest will not bar a man from any further competition for a "varsity" spot next year.

The winners in the various classes at present are: 115-pound, Noyes and G. Smith; 135-pound, Cunningham, Finkensasser and Tule; 145-pounds, W. A. Hill, 150-pound, R. Hill and L. A. Young.

As the management has been unable to secure the services of a coach, the men have been working under a de dicted grind-and-man. Manager Hagan has arranged the following schedule:

Feb. 10 — Columbia at Weightman Hall.
Feb. 18 — Annapolis at Annapolis.
March 4 — Cornell at Elders.
March 18 — Princeton at Princeton.
March 25 — Intercollegiates at Princeton.

Negotiations are pending for a return meet with Columbia at New York.

LIVELY PRACTICE.

Basketball Candidates Engage in Three Hard Scrimmages.

Three separate games constituted last evening's snappy basketball practice for "Varsity and Freshman candidates. The first game was between the "Varsity and Freshman, the next between the second Freshman and second "Varsity, and finally a free-scramble between the "Varsity and Scrubs. No score was kept.

The coaches especially warned the men to observe the new rules, which they seemed to do without any great difficulty.

In the final scramble the "Varsity five had little trouble in demonstrating their superiority over the Scrubs. The line-up:

"Varsity. — Scrubs.
Scrubs Mark — forward — Hough.
Blakeman — forward — Krouth.
Peerce — center — Troy.
Toby — guard — Heilman.
Ceres (Hurd) — guard — Mulford.
Walnut — guard — Skyrer.

Sloshing Around.

Everybody has not yet felt this morning and is swearing at the weatherman for what he did to the campus yesterday. The broad acres in front of College Hall have been hidden under a white sea, and a committee of prominent Seniors (who are familiar with the geography of the place) has been appointed to look for the cinder-path between Logan Hall and the Library. Flying snowdrifts have made the bowels look like the outworks of an Exquisite fortification. To get from the Dormitories down to Thirty-sixth Street requires the endurance of a Dr. Cook, and the Walnuts Club has voted to spend its treasury for freewinds.

Speaker for Maine State Club.

Dr. Stowell, a delegate to the Hague Peace Congress, will give a talk on his impressions of Maine before a meeting of the State of Maine Club tonight at 8 o'clock in Houston Hall.

WITH OTHER COLLEGES.

The honor system is being advocated by the student body at Chicago. California voted to re-establish rowing as an intercollegiate sport by a majority of 10 to 1.新鲜生在黎明州是要求从跑步到呼喊大，手持他们的旗帜在他们的手中。
MUSICIANS AT BRIDGETON.

Combined Clubs Determined to Repeat Remarkable Success.

Over in New Jersey, Bridgeton is eagerly awaiting the out-of-town debut of the Combined Musical Clubs. The thousand strong and the Criterion Theatre of that city have been sold, and it only remains for the musicians to sequester themselves in their usual finished style right in order to take the town by storm.

Last year, upon a similar occasion, the Bridgetonians were delighted beyond expression, and the echo of that success has set the whole town clamoring for more. The effect of this success was so great that the managers could not well fail to include Bridgeton in their itinerary. Elaborate preparations have been made for entertaining the men, a change for the concert being the feature festivity of the trip. In order to meet these outriders, the Clubs will render the same program which recently scored such a hit at the Bellevue Stratford, and every effort will be made to eclipse even that flattering success.

The most elaborate were under in three sections, at 151, 8t and 6th street. The management desires that each of the fifty members be on hand in time to take one of those trains.

Central Manual Executive Committee.

At the request of the Central Manual Club, held yesterday, the following men were elected to the Executive Committee: W. K. Smith, H. Wagnon, G. Deming, W. A. Schmidhuber and L. A. White.
