HARRISON RECEPTION TO-NIGHT

Long-Heralded Event at Hand for Honoring the Retiring Provost. Work on Cup Completed.

Students of all departments will have their last chance to show appreciation of Provost Harrison's untiring efforts and remarkable work for the University. They are to take part in the last reception as Provost in the Gymnasium tommorow night, through a committee, with H. B. Chase as chairman, has completed arrangements for an affair that will be a lasting token of the good will the retiring Provost by the student-body.

The work on the beautiful cup which will be presented to Provost Harrison was completed yesterday afternoon and it was placed on exhibit in the show windows of the Bailey, Banks & Benedict Co., where it attracts much attention. There it will remain until late this afternoon, when it will be brought to the Gymnasium and placed in a special show case until the time of presentation this evening. It is truly a work of art, of graceful lines and magnificent and most fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting and fittingly expresses the regard of the student-body, and every sentiment and every fitting

WEATHER HINT FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

A cool and comfortable change in the weather is expected on Saturday night, and the public is invited to attend the annual Deutscher Verein.. The weather is expected to be quite pleasant, but with a slight breeze. The public is invited to attend the annual Deutscher Verein, which will be held in the Gymnasium at 8 o'clock tonight. Every man in the University is expected to be present. If you have not a ticket, get one at the door.

CHEMISTS FROLIC AND PLAY

Chemists, Christmas, metaphysics and Doc Smith combined to make an enjoyable and instructive evening for the students of the Chemical Department. The recent success with the Hilden and Waring combination was due to their ability to express their opinions on various subjects with great and without preconceived impertinence. "A Chemical Hypatia," was presented by the students of the Chemical Department. Doc Smith, who also presented the event, expressed his confidence in the success of the evening.

Music was furnished by a chorus of violinists and violoncellists from the old Greek comedy about the '20s. The violinists and violoncellists played instruments cleverly fashioned out of Class B. The evening's festivities were 'Herbie' Harrison, J. M. Hin- tner, J. M. Hinton, and J. M. Hin- tner.

CHURCH AGAIN CAPTAIN.

Long-Distance Runner Re-elected to Lead Cross-Country Squad.

Herbert Church, of Philadelphia, captain of this year's cross-country team, has been re-elected and will lead the 1911 hill-climbers.

Thehill-climbers entered the Arts Department with the 1912 class, but will not graduate until 1918, having changed their course to that of the Mechanical Engineering.

Mr. Church is a member of both his Freshman cross- country and track teams and ran on the University cross-country team during the last two seasons. This year's championship two-mile relay team.

The prospects for next year are good. Wohl and Nautin are the only hill-climbers who will be lost by graduation. McCurdy, the star distance man of this year, who has planned to take the Euhora course, will probably be announced as the team captain for next year.

Wolff and Nautin are the only hill-climbers who will be lost by graduation. McCurdy, the star distance man of this year, who has planned to take the Euhora course, will probably be announced as the team captain for next year.

FRI DAY, DECEMBER 16, 1910.

NOT TO-NIGHT.
At times college students, even those who have little place for anything not of the Present, take a matter of view of things than is warranted by their age.
I think for the future to our work as every is ever in us, but thought of view in the future we will think of what is a past in which is not always welcome and often not necessary. At the occasion tonight when we, the students of the University, since our appreciation of Provost Lemont’s life work, will be on all of us one that can leave nothing hereafter in our memories but a sense of duty.
To have participated in this reception will mean much to us when we are among the scholars. So seldom is it possible for benefactors to express adequately their feelings of thankfulness and the pecuniary support of the scholar and purposes of the giver, that as a student body we will so use of ours to fulfill tonight full short of our wills. The spirit will be there, and a realization in the future that such was the case cannot but give us satisfaction.

Here is once where duty and inclination are in complete harmony.

DEAN FISHER’S RECEPTION.
To say one who has ever been in touch with Dean Fisher, a knowledge of his wholehearted good fellowship and his desire for our welfare is common. In no way could these traits in the case of him be so perfectly expressed as to give the freshness of the Arts and Science Department next Saturday evening. Meetings between the members of the Faculty and their students are indeed rare outside of the classrooms. No student ever feels quite free to make a social call on any of his professors. Difference, a belief that the presence seen a great pleaser of one in the classroom, and the lack of an invitation, all conspire to the growth of this feeling. But in no better way could we really learn to know and appreciate one another than in just such informal relations as are found in social gatherings. A few professors have recognized this and doing their best to foster the spirit of companionship and bridge the proverbial gap separating the Faculty from its students.

That Dean Fisher should be of the the desire for our welfare is common.

HOCKEY SQUAD SELECTED

Team Chosen to Represent Pennsylvania Against Princeton, Intercollegiate Champions—Prospects Good.

The squad of men that will go to New York Saturday to meet the Princeton team in the opening game of the season has been picked. They are the following: Captains Hayden, Young, E. Z. Slocum, Aristides, King, Hallock, Armstrong, W. Ward, Le Troumieux and Manager Smith.

The selection was made yesterday on the showing the men have made in the practice in the gymnasium and at St. David's, where the squad has been on the ice for four days. At the first of the year forty men turned out for the team, and the squad was cut until sixteen were selected. This is the squad that will make the Christmas trip to Cleveland, but after the vacation there will be an opportunity for new men to make good and play in the Yale and West Point games and take the New England trip. Other games will be arranged.

Captain Hayden believes that the seven which will start the game against Princeton will make a good showing against the intercollegiate champions. Slocum and Aristides the two Canadian players, seem to be faster than ever. The defense will not be selected until just before the game, but Hayden, Young and Ward will probably start. This will give the University some heavy men in the backfield.

Provided there is ice, practice will be held today at Havenford or at St. David's. A notice will be placed in the offices of the students before 12 o'clock to "aw.

SOCCER GAME WITH PRINCETON.

Visa to Play New Jersey's Saturday on Franklin Field.

For the first time in a number of years, the Varsity soccer team will face the team representing Princeton. The game will be played on Franklin Field at 3:30 Saturday afternoon.

The game is sure to be fast and hard fought. Earlier this year the Varsity has not made a showing worth any exceptional commendation, and, in order to please the fans, it will put up the strongest game of the season.

Princeton's team has proven that it is no mean foe. They come to Philadelphia with great confidence born of their 1-0 victory over Columbia last Saturday.

Holder of Athletic Association books will be entitled to admission, and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE SLOW.

Varsity Tests Effects of State Game and Plays Scrubs Lately.

As an aftermath of the State game, the Varsity basketball team went through a fifteen scrimmage last evening. Time and again they would dribble the ball to within shooting distance of the Scrubs basket and then would miss easy shots for the bucket. Scissors, the football man, was out in uniform for the first time this season and played on the Scrub for part of the time.

After the scrimmage was over, Coach Keimith took Turner aside and instructed him in foul shooting. The Freshman squad also had a short scrimmage.

MUSICAL CLUBS’ DANCE.

Entertaining Affair Held Last Night at Belmont Cricket Club.

Fifty members of the Combined Musical Clubs and as many of the fair sex held a very pleasant dance last evening in the spacious hall-room of the Belmont Cricket Club.

That the affair was a success was vouched for by every participant. It was the intention of the promoters of the affair to bring the men together in a spirit of cordiality and good fellowship and also to make it a far different and more social which will make fine clothes men, for he wisely loved a lord.
