DINNER IN HONOR OF PROVOST

Chemistry Faculty to Tender Dinner to President in Honor of His 75th Birthday on Wednesday Evening.

Presentation of the Grundy Gold Medal
to Dr. H. W. G. Zollinger.

Announcement was made yesterday that a banquet will be given to Provost James A. Garfield by members of the Chemistry Faculty of Pennsylvania State University to honor his 75th birthday on Wednesday, January 13.

In his talk on "The Physiology of the Kidney," Dr. C. L. C. Fraden, who is chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, explained yesterday that the dinner had been arranged by the members of the Faculty as a means of encouraging the younger scholars and scientific associate, who had been so industriously engaged. Arrangements, he said, had been completed and all invitations had been sent. The banquet will be held in the University Club, and it is expected that several hundred guests will partake of the dinner.

JOINT CONCERT AT ITHACA

Cornell is making great preparations for entertaining the Pennsylvania Museum Club tonight, on the last stage of its trip. The men will be put up in the fraternity domestic and will be treated to the best that can be afforded. There will be shown open for the amusement and inspection of the wondering troubadours during the day.

A joint concert will be given with the Cornell Club this evening, for which the favors of the club will be carefully entertained.

Cornell is rated as having one of the best college clubs in the country, with Pennsylvania in the same class. Bassie and Mandoline Clubs are features of both organizations, in which only capable players may take part. The Blue Clubs will call men who have just received from an extended tour of the country, whereas the Red and Blue Clubs are a trip through Pennsylvania and New York. Altogether the joint concert will include over one hundred men, which will make it one of the largest of its kind ever given.

Pennsylvania's 'Dance' Quartette mainlined some songs which have been heard, and is composed of the best for singers in the University. The fifty men comprise the Sherwood Dormitory which is now on tour.

Following the concert the members of both clubs will be given a Dutch birthday dinner by the members of the Savage Club of Cornell. It is the wish of the students of Pennsylvania to have the men for their kindness during several visits to Philadelphia, and for the first time in four years they will have a chance to repay.

From all reports, they will provide as evening's fun of the highest order.

Following is the selected program which will be rendered this evening:

First Part.

Pennsylvania Glee Gop. Sec. a.

2. George Doane.

Pennsylvania Banjo Club.

3. The Woggle Woggle and the Baldy Hill.

Cornell Glee Club.

4. The Empire.

Cornell Mandolin Club.

Cornell Mandolin Club.

Second Part.

1. Selection: "Girl in the Train." Ball Room music.

2. Transcendental Speech.

Cornell Club.

3. Madame Sherry....Hoschner

4. That Flizzy Rag....Hamlet

Pennsylvania Shamino Quartette.

5. Evening Song,...Cornell Glee Club.

The Pennsylvania Club gave their concert at Davisville last night, where the splendid program called forth a great applause from an enthusiastic audience. Reception dance comprised the entertainment offered the visitors by the elite of the city.

Returning to Philadelphia honor-society, the Combined Men's and Women's High School debaters is composed of E. C. F. Pierce, M. A. Titus and J. B. Pascale.

The debate is to be held at 8 o'clock, and the debate will take place early in March. The question for debate has not yet been determined.

Football Committee Meets.

At a meeting of the Football Committee yesterday, the recently-elected graduate member of the A. A. football committee, E. A. H. Fyfe, chairman, Mr. kid. Mercer was ratified as captain, and Mr. Lesch.

Col. B. W. Schel-

field, who was assistant manager last season, was ratified as manager. The football committee was in session in discussing next year's schedule.

SOUTHERNS NOT MATCH FOR RED AND BLUE.

Pennsylvania's big game against Southern will be "an easy victory." Kersting.

Score Without Trouble.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 6 (Special).—Pennasylvania easily defeated Virginia last night, by a score of 32 to 11. The Red and Blue men were able to get the better of the game, and the result was never in doubt.

Fierce, at center, was easily the star of the contest, scoring six field goals.

Playing a magnificent four game, Maria and Turner played well at the back, so closely in their play that it was hard to tell which was their own men. The audience will have a hard time identifying the Red and Blue players at the football.

For the home team, Neff played the best game and scored twice from the field. Hixson second stringer, also scored two field goals. The Virginia five was in poor physical condition.

Pennsylvania's performance was excellent, and no doubt, will continue the next game against Duke.

The game will be played in the University Field, next Saturday, January 15.

CLOSE BALL IRACE

Columbia, Yale and Pennsylvania Seem To Be Strong Contenders for League Championship.

The Cornell and Columbia basketball teams meet at Illinois tonight in the second game of the Intercollegiate Basketball League, and the game will have an important bearing on the championship. On the form shown in the preliminary matches, Columbia, Yale and Pennsylvania appear to be the most seriously considered of the four, with Cornell as a dark horse. Princeton showed in its opening game a goal five in the opening season game with the Red and Blue, but the Tigers have yet to prove that they are in the same class with the other members of the association.

Columbia started the season with practically all the players that brought the championship to the light Blue and to 16. But season, Coach Fisher had his men out for the first practice on Saturday. Two weeks earlier than the other colleges. With Captain Kiendl and Benson, forwards, Jacobs at center and Lee and Hendelstein, guards, Columbia presented nearly the same lineup in their first game as last year. Alexander, the regular center, again being lost by graduation. Trinity and Georgetown were easily defeated by the New Yorkers in the first two games by the score of 31 to 12 and 45 to 19, respectively.

State College was their next opponent, and the Columbia five showed that it had struck its stride by ending a victory over the Bald Eagle team by the score of 28 to 16. Kiendl and Benson proved to have the same accuracy in goal shooting that they possessed last season.

At Yale, the material was the best since the championship team of 1906, with six members of the 1910-11 Vanity returning to college. Goodwin and Rolfe, forwards, Captain Finney, center, and Murphy and Tommors, guards, formed the nucleus of the Yale squad.

As Cornell was not in the league last year, the Tigers have yet to prove that they are in the same class with the other members of the association.

During the opening Princeton-Telephone school in the opening game by 26 to 13, Yale suffered defeat in their next game at the hands of the College of the City of New York by a score of 20 to 15. However, the New Haven five came back against the strong New York University team and proved the victor by a margin of two points, 11 to 12 being the final score.

The St. John's five, which defeated Pennsylvania, in the opening game, was Yale's latest opponent, and the New Yorkers repeated their strength against the Cornellers by securing the long, kernel of a 21 to 29 score. Yale's first championship game came with Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, on the 12th of January, as Cornell started the season a week later, their probable strength is more or less a unknown quantity, and in Steinberg, Cornell has one of the best basketball coaches in the country, and if the results of the early games count for anything, it would appear that Cornell's five will be a factor in the championship.

In the two games played thus far, Cornell rolled up a total of 114 points against Princeton and Harvard, the scores being 48 to 16 and 68 to 8, respectively.

Unfortunately, Cornell will probably face Columbia tonight without the services of two of their host players, Elton, formerly a substitute, who had crowded Captain Bennett out of a forward position by his playing, and Kiendl, a splendid forward, who was again absent. In the finish of the garments and the moderation of price, Adderly is the only rival of the Transient Rates, $2 full with Rath, and 10 minutes' walk to Twenty Theatre. Full Dress Suits

The making of Full-dress Suits is an important part of our business because it means as if every customer we have places an order with us.

This condition is due to our success in the $6, in the finish of the garments and the moderation in price. We make a fine silk-lined suit at $6 and one at $8 is also a leader.

Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made suit, yet the latter will be outgrown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large outlets. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat! Or a white tie? Of the latter, we show a hundred patterns at $7 to $12.
