ALUMNUS WRITES OF INDIA
Frank V. Black, Prominent Y. M. C. A. Worker, Describes Experiences and Life in Calcutta.

Frank V. Black, '05 College, now of Calcutta, India, has written very interestingly about his experiences in that land of poverty. While in the Punjab he was leader of the Glee Club and prominent in Y. M. C. A. work. After graduation he served three years as the secretary of the Christian Alliance in Calcutta. After this he wrote a new student secretary of Y. M. C. A. work in Calcutta, as his experiences in the Scotch Missionary Society, from his pen he wrote the latter follow:

"In contrast to the East and the West always most clearly where two elements come most closely into contact, namely, in the great centers of population, commerce and government. And, of course, Calcutta, as the chief city of the land in all these respects, offers the opportunity for observing it. I pick up my very windowed morning paper and read of yesterday's happenings in the political affairs of New York or in the Portuguese revolution; I jump on a taxicab and ride downtown to his big department store, where I can buy practically anything I want to buy. I go into a book shop and see Winston Churchill's latest book in a special edition for India; and the colonel from another shop window I am informed that Gillette blades can be purchased there; I walk across the street and just man enough to clear a bird yellow and bluish-tanned. I go to the Eden Gardens and listen to the latest comic opera played by the band of some maharajas. I go down to the service at the Cathedral and hear a very good boy choir sing; I see the Hudson river filled with ocean-going steamers, badly handled and unloading their freight—and that is one-half of the picture."

"The cars that pass the Cathedral bring one to Calcutta, the favorite Hindu alone can charm the eye. On one corner of the courtyard, which runs with birds, more are regularly interfaced to the goddess Kali, to whose black bristle image, with huge protruding tongue, worshippers offer their gifts, and on whose body an ancient tree tied, poor women tie worshipper! offer the gifts, and on the sacred tree's body, on the hands of the committee. The pin 'his is 12.80, and orders should he placed."

"Winter Reduction SACK SUITS $50.00 and $55.00 repriced to $25.00 Made and trimmed to your satisfaction, with satisfactory fitting garments."

"Full Dress Suits" The making of Full-dress Suit is an important part of our course; it means as if every customer we have places an order with us. This condition is due to our success in the fit, in the finish of the garments and the moderation in price. We make a Fine Full-dress Suit at $40 and one at $50 is also a leader. Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made Suit, yet the latter will be out-grown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to its method of washing the pines, yet the greatest pin is always our own.

"THE PENNSYLVANIAN"
FAREWELL TO DR. HARRISON

are inscribed the names of every preceding Provost, in thankful recognition.

"We are now to look forward to next week, for 40 years of encouragement, for greater usefulness, under our Provost, Dr. Smith. As Dr. Smith bore his great part under the administration past, closed, with the loyalty and fidelity known to you all, so Dr. Smith knows that my purpose is to serve under him with equal loyalty and fidelity. And in bespeaking him, from you all, a same devotion—and in greater measure—which has been manifested towards him, no greater hope for the coming years can be ours."

"My own thoughts half linger over the past and half run before towards the future—with thankfulness as to the past and with assurance as to the future."

"Gentlemen, the deepest feelings of my heart go out to each and all of you for the goodness which you have manifested to me tonight."

Provost Smith who for the evening simply became Blanchard Professor of Chemistry, responded to the toast, "Our Boys," and told of the great influence which Dr. Harrison's work and personal character have had upon the upbuilding of Pennsylvania spirit. He spoke for only a few minutes because of the lateness of the hour.

Other speakers were Dean Edward C. Kirk, of the Dental School; Dr. John Bach McFarland, of the College, Library, Art, Dr. Edgar Marting, of the College, Technical Education; Dr. Charles K. Mills, of the Medical School; Dr. Edwin T. Dyer, Dental School; Dr. William Romane Newbold, Graduate School; Dr. John W. Adams, School of Veterinary Medicine; Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, Department of Physical Education; Dr. G. B. Gordon, University Museum; Dr. Henry H. Doherty, Henry Phipps Institute; Dr. William Draper Lewis, Law School.

Mathematical Staff increased.

Dr. Henry H. Smith, who has been assisting Prof. Sibiger in Logic during the first term, will become an instructor in Mathematics for the remainder of the year. Dr. Smith, 1901 C, received his doctor's degree from Pennsylvania in 1900. From 1901 to 1904 he held a Harrison Fellowship in Philosophy, and for the next three years he was an instructor in the Carnegie Institute. Part of this time, however, he spent at the University of Heidelberg.

The Yale Promenade, which took place last night, is the eleventh in the history of the university.

Full of Honor.

Want to wear a big smile all day? Dig into your pocket and grasp that stray nickel, then bind it to one of the boys and tell him to produce a "Post." "That Old College Chum" is the famous story in this week's "Saturday Evening Post." Read it and smile. M. A. Perry, No. 210 South 23rd Street, C. of P. agent.
