Red and Blue Will Contend with Orange in BASKETBALL GAME at Princeton Tonight.

Pennsylvania's basketball team will meet Princeton this evening to decide the issue of their annual four-game series. The games will be of greater importance to both teams this year for the reason that Princeton has been in a slump. The Tigers were on the verge of defeat by Yale, but pulled ahead by a score of 63 to 58, thanks to a couple of three-pointers. Princeton, however, has come to terms with the issue and has entered a new era under the leadership of Coach William S. Wray. The Princeton-Philadelphia.

RED AND BLUE RUNNERS WILL PARTICIPATE IN TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEET AT BOSTON.

While the relay team is training in Boston, the men's basketball team will be practicing in Philadelphia. They will race in the twenty-second annual meet given by the Harvard Athletic Association. The meet is notable for the participation of prominent colleges and universities of the East to be represented at this meet, which is one of the most important in the country.

Pennsylvania's relay team is to be made up of Hughes, Brown, Portland, and Heywood. The makeup of the Cornell team has not yet been announced. The team will race Pennsylvania.

The competition will be keen, and the Blue and Red will be represented by teams chosen from the Princeton-pennsylvania and the Cornell-aero clubs.

Fifth Annual Dance of the Civil Engineering Society to be Given Thursday Evening.

The fifth annual dance of the Civil Engineering Society will be given Thursday evening. The dance will be held in the large lecture hall of the University. The dance is open to the public and tickets will be sold at the door. President Harper will preside.

The following members of the gym. will sing the national anthems:

The cast had no

The gigantic Huberleia, with his tragic role of Faust, is an actor that is well known. The audience was captivated by his performance of Gounod's brilliantly dramatic Faust. The cost had no particularly bright stars, but it was balanced, and not only the three leading roles, but all the minor roles, were filled by singers of varied ability.

THRESHOLD.

S A V E S T H E P E N N I E S .

We realise that it's a far cry from the present date of June 7, but we are taking this early opportunity to comment editorially upon the project which is now being discussed of making up a party to accompany the base ball team to Boston on the above-mentioned date, when bats will be crossed with Harvard.

We do not for a minute doubt but that no difficulty will be insurmountable in finding a hundred men in the University who will be willing to pay any amount of money to see a Pennsylvania major sport team clash with the Crimson.

But, nevertheless, the fact has become firmly impressed in our mind that a paternity number like a hundred would make a poor showing, indeed. In Cambridge, and it would indirectly refect a certain amount of discredit upon our University.

At least three hundred loyal supporters should take the trip to New England on that trip. We remember distinctly that over five hundred took advantage of the last trip that the football team made to Cambridge.

Now we would like to suggest a plan whereby each and every man can make the trip if he is actuated by the motives which we hope accute every true Pennsylvanian man. The plan is this:

First of all, make up your mind immediately and conclusively that you will see the game with Harvard on the 7th of June. Secondly, lay aside immediately the necessary amount of money to defray all of the expenses and make a solemn vow that that money shall not be touched until the time comes to buy the ticket for Boston.

Consider that money sacred, let no one beg, borrow or steal it. Following this scheme, there is no one who can give the excuse at the last moment that finances are shy and that the necessary funds have gone dry.

At first thought, it seems to be a rather childish procedure, but further thought will convince anyone that it is the principle which all business enterprises are carried out.

Try it, and we'll meet you in the Harvard Stadium on the 7th of June!

Lecture by Professor Royce.

Professor Royce, in his last lecture on Truth, published on a principal advanced some years ago by his colleague, Professor James.

Using a Senatorial illustration of the latter's earlier essays, Professor Royce yesterday proved that one cannot be neutral. Life forces decisions, or the exercise of the judgment, and one must follow some course, be it true or false.

"For instance," said Professor Royce, a man considering his knowledge insufficient may refuse to act; but in so doing he makes decision.

Snapshots Desired by Record.

The Senior Class Record is particularly desirous of securing snapshots of any character, contributions of such will be much appreciated by the management. Views of buildings, characteristic poses of professors or students, scenes of any athletics or teams in action, whether major or minor, in fact pictures of any University activity will be thankfully received by the business manager any day at 1 o'clock in The Pennsylvania office.
