WRESTLERS LOSE TO COLUMBIA

Suffrutices

In its initial meet of the season, the Pennsylvania Wrestling Team, visiting Columbia last night by a score of 4 to 2, encountered a worthy foe in the form of a team and men whose best has ever been shown in Western Pennsylvania.

The feature of the evening was the bout between W. J. Stewart of Pennsylvania and Brody, of Columbia, in the 125-pound class. Both men are veterans of the mat, and for the first nine minutes neither gained any advantage over the other. Only a single clinch, Glaspie threw his opponent with a leg takedown and brought the match to a close.

In the 145-pound class, Tafel, of Pennsylvania, put up a fight which may bring no further pleasure for audiences.

Stewart, the captain, gave a beautiful exhibition of wrestling, and, although unable to throw his man, was given the decision.

BASKETBALL: FIVE AT CHESTER

Intercollegiate Gymnastics

Representatives of the Four Classes Will Compete for a Trophy Offered by Dr. McKenney.

Dr. R. T. McKenney and the president of the university, Dr. W. J. Stewart, have devised a plan which will practically assure Pennsylvania of the Intercollegiate Gymnastics championship.

Yale beat Pennsylvania in a close race for the championship last year makes the Red and Blue lower than ever down the line tonight.

Men have met Cornell this year, but as the Ithacans were encircled both times a comparison between the two is impossible. unemployment on the latter center in the plumes, for distance, as Willis, of Penn, must be taken as representing a mark of 72 feet, made by Lone, of Yale. Yale will also compete tonight.

In the sprints, Yale has Howe, the leaped record holder, and Studdard, the 220-yard record holder. Both men exceptionally fast and should have little difficulty in knocking off the short-distance swimmers. Shrecr, be expected champion, will not represent the Red and Blue. However, Anthony, of Pennsylvania, and Chestnut, of Chestnut, will be among others.

ENGINEERS' DANCE A SUCCESS.

Assembly Room of the Engineering Building Artistically Decorated.

Over eighty couples attended the annual dance of the Mechanical, Electrical and Chemical Engineers, which was held last night in the Assembly Room of the Engineering Building. The feature of the dance was the decorations, which far surpassed those of former years. Pink and white was the color scheme. Supper was served at midnight. Riley, of the Roosevelt, being the caller.

University Band to Be Reorganized.

At an executive meeting of the members of the University Band last night, several plans were discussed for increasing interest among the students in this line of work. Arrangements are being made to avoid an all-singing to the members of the band, and it is probable that "gym" work will not be required of the men who play in the band. Meetings will be held every Thursday at 7:30, in the Law School, and there will be a number of vacancies, every man who can play a band instrument is urged to report.

Zelosophic Society Holds Debate.

Two orators and a debate made up Zel's program for last evening. J. D. Gilb. E. B., gave an interesting talk on Current Events, and Carlyle Green, J. 1. Archer, delivered an instructive address on "The Relation of Science to Art." E. G. Bow, and A. O. Osborn argued against W. H. Adolph and J. G. Drivers, on the timely topic: Resolved, That Philadelphia's pay-as-you-enter cars are more advantageous to the public than the open type. Samuel Rosenbaum was the critic.

Senior Banquet on March 23.

The Senior Band, which promises to be a more brilliant success than ever, will be held at the Hurth Transportation, Twenty-second and Chestnut streets, on March 23. Rev. J. C. Shull will act as toastmaster, and the speakers will be Rev. H. G. Lohse, Rev. W. H. Rinaldi, W. H. B. Smith, W. R. Hart, and H. L. Smith. Tickets will be $5.00.

Red and Blue Picture To-day.

The Red and Blue picture will be taken on the football grounds tonight, and the better will be outgrown in a year perhaps, whilst ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large outlets. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat? Or a white vest? Of the latter, we have a number of vacations, every man who can play a band instrument is urged to report.

MEETING PLACE FOR UNIVERSITY MEN

THE PENNSYLVANIAN.
SMOKER FOR MUSICIANS CLUBS
Class of 1905 and Wesleyan Alumni
Will Give Smoker to Musical Clubs
Tonight in Houston Hall.

A special train will carry the Combined Musical Clubs of Wesleyan University into the Reading Terminal at quarter of two this afternoon. The men will be met by a delegation of Pennsylvania musicians and escorted to the Bellevue-Stratford, which is to be their headquarters during in Philadelphia.

The Class of 1916 and the Alumni of Wesleyan have arranged to entertain the Musical Clubs of both institutions at a smoker in Houston Hall tonight. This is to be a strictly informal affair, fashioned after similar entertainments at Wesleyan.

A light lunch will be provided and during the course of the evening "stras" will be made available to the following men: H. Schnitt, Arch '11; J. Lyons, Wh. '12; B. Van derwimmen, Arch '12; P. Wall, Wh. '13; J. L. Illar, Law '11; D. Murphy, Law '11, and Director D. Dus.

Many prominent alumni of Wesleyan will attend the smoker, notable among them being C. Linn Tyler, the secretary of the Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee; C. R. Smith, the composer of "Secret," a well-known Wesleyan song; and H. A. Thompson, the Art Editor of the "Saturday Evening Post.

The Wesleyans will visit the various fraternity houses on Sunday, after which a general tour of both city and campus will be made.

The climax will be reached on Monday when the two clubs line up for their joint concert at the Bellevue-Stratford, which is to be followed by a smoker at the Mask and Wig Club House.
