CONCERT WITHOUT PARALLEL
Westley and Pennsylvania Musicians Give Entertainment, Followed by Speaker at Mask and Wig.

For the first time in the history of American colleges, the combined uni-gations representing two separate universities opened Westley Hall last night in a friendly atmosphere and cooperation and not one of rivalry when the Committee of the Wesleyan Club of Pennsylvania presented a joint concert in the ball room of the Ben-Efron Building.

The concert was arranged through the efforts of the Wesleyan Alumni in this city and the Class of '04, under the direction of Mr. George J. Boden, who is the president of the Wesleyan Alumni. The program had been coordinated and put together in a fitting way by the Wesleyan Alumni.

The Wesleyan Jifers, a quartette of vocalists, and the Choral Quartette, as well as in New England, were brought over from New England to participate in the entertainment in the above-men tioned organization. Several of the numbers rendered in unison by these two groups were thoroughly delighting. Two other groups, the Wesleyan Jifers and the Sunshine Quartette also

After the concert members of both Wescal and Pennsylvania held a party at the Mask and Wig Club House. Refreshments were served and some of the old Westley alumni and friends and a host of Pennsylvania undergraduates,

Every number on the program was sung by the various quartettes

This appeal is directed especially to men in the professional schools, who formerly have taken surprisingly little interest in rowing here at Pennsylvania. Their lack of interest is hard to account for. The football and track teams have always counted among their recruits a many professional school men, and we believe that such should be the case with rowing. There can be no excuse given on the grounds that practice interferes with their hours, for satisfactory times for rowing will be set for them, so no matter what class or department you are in, there are variances in the various hours to fill; we have one of the best coaches in the country. There is no reason why a record should not be made to narrow in the matter of quantity and quality of candidates. If the proper number of the right sort of candidates report, there need be no fear that Coach Ward will develop an invisible crew, one which under the leadership of Captain Huntington will do itself and the University proud when the crucial moment arrives.

Students to Visit Washington

Dr. Rowe and Dr. Strewe, of the Wharton School Faculty, will take twenty-five of their students in Citizenship to Washington. Thursday morning, on an extensive sight-seeing and investigation tour. The entire day will be spent in visiting the most important places of interest in the Capital City, including the Congressional Library, the Senate, the House of Representatives and the Bureau of Pan-American Republics. Arrangements have also been made to have the men meet President Taft and Senator Root. A banquet will probably be served at the Custom Club, and the party will return on a late train.

Full Dress Suits

The making of Full-dress Suit is an important part of our business because it seems as if every customer we have places an order with us.

This condition is due to our success in the fit, in the finish of the garments and the moderation in price. We make a fine silk-lined Suit at $40 and one at $10 is also a leader. Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made Suit, yet the latter will be outgrown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large outlines. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat? Or a white vest? Of the latter, we show a hundred patterns—those of which secure a handsome full college garment (11-12) at $10.

FRENCH PLAY TO-MORROW NIGHT

Cercle Français to Give Bernard's Comedy at New Century Club.

The annual Frenchistic effort of the Cercle Français will be made tomorrow night in the form of a collection in the New Century Drawing Room. The play to be presented is Tristan Barnard's "Ange tordu," in Quentin. The selection of the play marks a departure in the policy of the Cercle, as it has been customary for the past few years to produce one of Molière's classic comedies. Due to the fact that Bernard's clever comedy requires only an hour for presentation, a short, snappy, fifteen-minute sketch will precede it. A dance will follow the play. The performance will be given by Mrs. William Woodward Arnett, Mrs. Dinnar Beecher, Mrs. Edwin N. Benson, Jr., Mrs. Andrew A. Blair, Mrs. H. T. Biddle, Mrs. Beatrice Bourie, Jr., Mrs. George A. Brooke, Mrs. John Cadwalader, Mrs. James Carseilles, Mrs. John W. Colson, Mrs. J. P. W. Crawford, Mrs. Paul Philippe Cret, Mrs. C. Dalnourt, Mrs. Arthur de Mareve, Mrs. William Faris, George E.
