WE ALLOW 10 PER CENT. TO STUDENTS.

The making of Full-Dress Suits is an important part of our business because it seems as if every customer, we have places an order with us.

This condition is due to our success in the fit, in the finish of the garments and the moderation in price. We make a fine enlisted suit at $45 and one at $60 also a leader.

Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made suit, yet the latter will be outgrown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large collars. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat? Or a white waistcoat? Or both? In that case, we have a handsome selection here at 15 to 25 cents.

THE PENCNNSYLVIANIAN.
"AIDA" BEAUTIFULLY RENDEZVOUS.
Krozewits and Zerolee Heard to Advantage in Popular Verdi Opera.

The second rendition of Verdi's "Aida" by the Chicago company was the last evening and received an equally enthusiastic reception as on the opening night of the company in this city.

Krozewits regarded for the first time in the leading role of Aida, and she gave a capable representation of the captured Egyptian beauty. The Russian prima donna was heard to great advantage, especially in the passionate duets with her lover, and the audience gave repeated acknowledgment of the prize of their hearts and her direct personal attractiveness.

In the part of Radames, the ill-fated general of the Egyptians, Zerolee claimed immediate approval, and the first aria the familiar "Celeste ala" accompanied a repetition. The tri-nural march in the second act, always lyrically popular, was marked with the wonderful detail that has characterized every performance of the present company. De Clessens once more gave a natural interpretation of the valiant Amneris, while Delfine rose to fine dramatic height as the enslaved king of Ethiopia, perfectedly in the touching duets with Aida. The minor parts were equally well taken. Nolinka, in particular, assuming the role of the Egyptian king equality.

Episcopal Students' Meeting.

For the purpose of bringing more closely together all members of the Episcopal Church among the student body, a general gathering is being arranged for February 27, at 7:30 o'clock.

Richardson and S. F. Houston will preside.
