ANNUAL ALUMNI BANQUET

Farewell Banquet to Dr. Harrison and Provost Smith, held at the University last Saturday night in honor of retiring Provost Smith, dinner partook of the New York Athletic Club. The dinner was presided over by the Dean, who acted as toastmaster, delivered a short speech, and presented the Dean's picture, painted by Julian Stary, to be presented to the new University President on the part of the students. The portraits were presented by Louis C. Madida, of the Board of Trustees, and accepted most heartily by the University by Provost Smith. The Dean's picture was presented by the Li. WHoret Dextor solid, in recognition of his services making architectural explorations and publishing their results.

This administration, which is just about to give way to the new, was presented with a number of gifts, one of which was a large portrait of Dr. Harrison, painted by Mr. Roberta, Nockaon and John Cadwalader Beech.

Professor Charles Catlin Harrison, the presentation of portraits, the masterly address by the German Ambassador on "German Social Ideals," and then finally the great alumni banquet, attended by almost a thousand of Pennsylvania's undergraduates, all to prove the fact.

We are here at this University for a two-fold purpose. Primarily, of course, we come here to broaden our minds, but we do not lose sight of the fact that our second purpose is to add to the prestige of the fair name of our Alma Mater. This second purpose is carried out in a beautiful degree by yesterday's activities. Such functions carry far and wide the name of Pennsylvania and add to our reputation wherever the sun rises and sets.

We are fortunate in having as our University Day speakers men of the type that have favored us during the past few years, and it is our condition that the same standard will be upheld in years to come, for we are ever growing in strength, prestige and favor not only in this country, but in all the other lands of the globe.

Pennsylvania's fencers and broadsword men tried their mettle against the city's swallers of Pennsylvania yesterday afternoon, at the Horace Physical Training Institute, in the De Lancey Individual Cup match for broadswords, and in the competition for the Secretary's Cup for Junior Full Teams. Both these events were held under the auspices of the A. F. L. A.

On account of the lateness in starting the meet, the De Lancey Cup Individual Competition was unfinished, but it will probably be decided some day next week at the De Lancey School, Pennsylvania entered P. M. Flah, T1, Captain E. J. Bullock, T3, to Parks, McConnell and C. R. Fevery, T1, to Parks and Dr. Frazer. All the boats were hastily competed and the showing made by the men will go to towards deciding from the Athletic Association the destination for the broadsword team.

In the Junior Full Team competition for the Secretary's Cup, the Philadelphia Fencers Club drew the bye, leaving the Pennsylvania team and the Alumni team to fight the preliminary round.

With finishing, Woodel and Strand in their lineup, the Alumni had a comparatively easy time overcoming the student fencers. The score, 5 to 3, shows, however, that the undergraduates put up a stiff fight against the former champions.

Captain Parker starred for Pennsylvania, while Dallabister and McConnell put up a gallant show in the finish. The latter substituting for Peterson, who has an arm of cramp.

The Alumni and the P. A. C fought an exciting final round, the former winning. Their boat, Kohler and Dutton represented the losers.

Excellent practice was afforded the Pennsylvania team, and Coach Tomes was greatly pleased with the showing made by his pupils. The fencing team meets the Navy at Annapolis on Saturday.

Full Dress Suits

The making of Full dress suits is an important part of our business because it seems as if every customer we have places an order with us.

This condition is due to our success in the flt, in the finish of the garments and the moderation in price. We make a fine uniform suit at $10 and one at $15 is also a leader.

Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made suit, yet the latter will be out-grown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large outlets. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat? or a white vest? Of the latter, we show a hundred patterns at $3 to $4.

CRIMSON RUNNERS DEFEATED.

Two-mile Relay Team Noses Out Harvard Quartet at Harvard.

One more victory was added to the credit of the Columbia relay team, when the Red and Blue runners defeated Harvard's representatives, at Hartford, Tuesday night, in the meet held under the auspices of the Second Division of the Connecticut Naval Militia. This race was easily the most exciting event of the evening. The rival runners passed each other time and again, and at the last lap, Boyle and Jacques started shoulder to shoulder, running a head and consistent race. Boyle pressed the interest of an intermediate record holder to the limit, and after a nerve-wracking sprint, crossed the tape a bare six inches ahead of the Crimson runner.

The race throughout was hotly contested, the men starting almost together at the beginning of each lap. As no spikes could be worn on the floor, which is used for dancing, the time was rather slow, 22.15 seconds being the official record. In the special mile relay, Columbia defeated Amherst, the time being 4:42.55. Princeton will be the next opponent, which the Columbia team will face. The Orange and Black runners will compete with the Red and Blue quarter in the Frothman meet on Saturday night.
