Chairman of Legislative Committee

The University was visited by the late Governor of Pennsylvania, Richard B. Nix, who had made a tour of the principal buildings on the campus and found that the University had been in a state of perfect repair. In the Committee room, a meeting was held to discuss the question of Appropriations, made for the construction of buildings, and the debate was carried on with great earnestness.

Dr. Roller lost his match, and the University will receive an indemnity of $100 for the loss of the match. This may prove a blow to the University, but it is likely to have little effect on the general public opinion.

The question of the establishment of a University at Philadelphia was also discussed. The advantages of a University in such a city as Philadelphia were stated, and it was thought that the University would be a great benefactor to the city and the state.

The meeting was adjourned without a vote, and the chairman of the Committee expressed the hope that the University would be established in Philadelphia as soon as possible.

Full Dress Suits

The making of Full-Dress Suits is an important part of our business because it means as if every customer we have plans to be married this year.

This condition is due to our success in the sale in the finish of the garments and the moderate price. We make a fine all-dressed suit at $14.00 and one at $10.00 is also a success.

Do not forget that this is no higher than a ready-made Suit, yet the latter will be outgrown in a year perhaps, while ours will last five, owing to the fact that we provide large outside. Which will you choose?

Perhaps you only need a coat? Or a white waist? Of the latter, we show a hundred patterns at $7.00.

Full-Dress Suits, $13 to $65.

CORNELL FOISINMEN WIN MEET.

Peterson Defeats Esplanada—Parker

Suffers from Inexperience.

In a close and exciting meet, the Red and Blue fencers went down to defeat last night at the hands of Cornell's veteran team. The members of each team were very erratic, fencing excellently at times in rather mediocre fashion at others.

In his opening bout, of Cornell, while Esplanda was defeated by Peterson in a fast match.

Captain Allison of Cornell, spearfishing a service cut, was defeated by Captain Peterson. But the latter was somewhat hampered by an injured hand and won but one of his three bouts. This greatly handicapped Pennsylvania's chances, for when in condition, Peterson is the mainstay of the team. The summary follows:

First Bout—Peterson, of Pennsylvania, defeated Allison, of Cornell, in an extra period.

Second Bout—Esplanada, Cornell, defeated Parker, Pennsylvania.

Third Bout—Brown, Cornell, defeated Dalahelmer, University of Pennsylvania.

Fourth Bout—Brown, Cornell, defeated Parker, Pennsylvania.

Fifth Bout—Brown, Cornell, defeated Dalahelmer, Pennsylvania.

Sixth Bout—Brown, Cornell, defeated Peterson, Pennsylvania.

Seventh Bout—Allison, Cornell, defeated Dalahelmer, Pennsylvania.

Eighth Bout—Peters, Pennsylvania, defeated Esplanada, Cornell.

Ninth Bout—Parker, Pennsylvania, defeated Brown, Cornell.

WHITAKER WINS CHESS TITLE.

His Victory Over Johnson Lands

Championship at Pennsylvania.

Norman T. Whittaker won the Intercollegiate Chess Championship for Pennsylvania yesterday through the identification of his mind with that of A. G. Johnson, of Harvard. This also makes Whittaker the Individual champion.

This decision was received yesterday from Mr. Herman Blessen, editor of the "American Chess Bulletin," who was called upon to referee the match. Both Whittaker and Johnson were unable to finish their game, which was left in the hands of Mr. Holms. He also decided the game between Whittaker, of Pennsylvania, and A. L.

Cori of Brown, in favor of the University.

The University played only four games with Brown, winning two. In the meet with Harvard, Pennsylvania was seven and lost three.

The men who made the trip were Whittaker, Welmer, Baldwin and Shady. One of the others, for Barkey was defeated by Welmer, of Pennsylvania, and A. L.

SCORCE TEAM ENTERS FINALS.

Intercollegiate Schedule Opens with Haverford This Afternoon.

The first game of the Intercollegiate Association Football League will be played today on the Mentor Cricket Club grounds at Haverford, when Pennsylvania faces Haverford College.

The outcome of the game will be watched with much interest by all interested in British sport, for it has been generally conceded that the two teams entering today rank first in the league, and the opinion is widespread that the eleven winning the match today will run a good chance for championship honors.

By comparative scores, the Main Line seem to have the better chance for victory. They have met several teams which the Red and Blue eleven has faced, and have made a better showing in all of them. Moreover, they have been practicing daily, while the Vanities has indulged in no practice since Christmas, nearly has content with keeping in condition.

In fact, there is little doubt between the two teams. Haverford's fullback is better than Pennsylvania's, their halfbacks are on a par with the Red and Blue's, while the latter's forwards outbid those of the Main Line team. The teams met six weeks ago and 1 to 1 was the result.

D. E. SALL'S SOUNDINGS.

Denies "Patent Medicines" as Guilty Until Proven Innocent.

Dr. Ideal, in his talk on "Patent Medicines" in Logan Hall last night, said there were three questions that arise whenever the word "Patent Medicine" was mentioned. First, does the public get its money's worth out of them; second, do they accomplish any good; third, do they do any real harm. The fact that Dr. Ideal said were proven government facts, and with them he showed, in answer to these questions, that the public was grossly swindled and the proprietors of the medicines immensely enriched, that no appreciable good was accomplished, and, lastly, that a very definite harm was done by their use. He mentioned the alkaloid specialists and the headache powders as being the most injurious preparation of the whole, referred to testimonials and showed that many were forced or bought, while some of them, telling of recovery, were used for more than two years after the patient had died.

Engineers Discuss Dams and Piers.

"The Substructure of the Vine Street Pier" and "The Concrete Dam of the Springfield Water Company" will be the topics of short talks to be given by P. L. Rhodin and W. C. O'Neill, undergraduate engineers, before the Civil Engineering Society at its meeting tonight. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock, in the society's rooms in the Knitting Building.

Notices.
