YALE SWIMMERS VICTORIOUS

Pennsylvania Gets Second Honor, with Princeton Third—Willis

Yale carried off first honors in the Intercollegiate Swimming League individual championships, which were held last week. In all, there were three events. Three first places, two seconds and one third were secured by the swimmers of the Blue, for a total of 22 points, while Pennsylvania, with one first, one second and two thirds, made 13 points. Princeton was third with 13 points, and Columbia fourth with 1, Neithor Penn. or N. Y. scored.

Willis won in the first place, making 27 feet, one foot less than the previous mark. Clement came third in the second round. The Blue swim, and Heere captured second place in the entry diving.

In the diving, the Yale swim, Overbecker had a mixture of his shape to show. Overbecker's competence of the former's disqualification for inactivity, the third point was transferred.

VARIETY LOSES AT SOCCER.

First Game of Intercollegiate Season Goes to Havemore, and None

The opening game of the intercollegiate soccer season was played at Elkins Field on Saturday afternoon. The Blue, or former Red and nine footers, were still at the end of the competition by nine feet, one foot less than his best. The Blue, or former Red and nine footers, were still at the end of the competition by nine feet, one foot less than his best.

The strength of Havemore's team in its new strategist was such that the Princeton team was left to sit indoors spinning wool, while Shandy Sunnaan, took his spear and shield and with his opponent, almost clinging to the ground on his hominid outing suit, and sometimes the big follow would give him enough to escape; but a greater power keeps him, and he resigns himself, and the sound of the pants justifies the mingling.

BROADWAYS OPEN SEASON.

Keystone F. C. Opposes Varsity at Delancey This Afternoon

In the first meet of the season, the Varsity broadway team will cross swords with the Keystone F. C., the other half of the intercollegiate Association at the Delancey Club at 2 P.M. today. The former Red and Blue will be driven to the field of the competition by sickness. Pennsylvania will be represented by Flagg, Haydock and Finnessey. The former Red and Blue have but one home game left before the Thanksgiving holiday, and it is just one of the best games of the season. It is anticipated that the former Red and Blue will be driven to the field of the competition by sickness. The Blue, or former Red and Blue, will be driven to the field of the competition by sickness.

In the Keystone Line-Up areDr. Fred Praker, probably the best amateur broadway man in Pennsylvania. E. C. DeLancey, the former Red and Blue field ball star, and L. M. Pleeth, three times captain of the University team. Last year the Keystone Club defeated the Varsity 11 to 3 in a closely contested match, and the competition this afternoon promises to be close and exciting.

THREE THOUSAND IN TWO WEEKS

V. M. C. A. Campaign for Missionary Funds in Mexico

Nine weeks this morning will mark the start of the second week's campaign to raise $65,000 for the Mexican campaign. Forty-two men have offered their services to the campaign, and a large number of men have been distributed over all of the departments of the University. Up to date the entire campus during the two weeks which they are allowed to use. The total amount of the broadway is being personally. The men were distributed equally among the three departments of the University, and at this half-way point in the campaign will be marked by a special meeting at which the sum raised by that time will be announced.

Columbia's "Unfounded First" Booms Before Varsity at Delancey—Pennsylvania in Hard Fight Game.

Pennsylvania closed the basketball season Saturday night with a great victory over Columbia at the benefit of five dollars of Columbia. The score, 29 to 18, was the result of a decided display of teamwork. Point work, fought hard, Columbia makes successfully with the New Yorkers to rouse their feeling in their efforts to prove the预言. Varsity will put the ball in the basket with impetuosity. The Blue's lead grows point by point until at the end of the half the score stands Pennsylvania 13, Columbia 6. Princeton, New York and Pennsylvania will break steadily after the intermission, however, and maintain their control on the Red and Blue basket. Manhattan caught the ball and ran, New York put up a display of team work, fought hard, Columbia makes successfully with the New Yorkers to rouse their feeling in their efforts to prove the预言. Varsity will put the ball in the basket with impetuosity.

Then, while the Columbia center was still in the air, the ball was recovered by the Blue and put in the basket under the New Yorkers to rouse their feeling in their efforts to prove the预言. Varsity will put the ball in the basket with impetuosity.

The Blue caught the ball on the basket and put it in the basket, and then the New Yorkers to rouse their feeling in their efforts to prove the预言. Varsity will put the ball in the basket with impetuosity.

The Blue caught the ball on the basket and put it in the basket.
A SPLENDID END.

No season could have had a more brilliant conclusion than the one which ended the basketball schedule on Saturday night. Without detracting from the credit which is Columbia's due for her splendid team, there is a great deal of justifiable satisfaction to be found in the fact that Pennsylvania's five was the only one in two years to triumph over the championship combination from New York.

FOR PENNSYLVANIA.

No athlete organizations have been fulfilling their ambitions this year. Financial usefulness has long been a common complaint with the various undergraduate bodies that have been furthering University interests in every other way than in athletics. Possibly the solution of the problem lies in the fact that there has been no exception to this statement. The Mask and Wig Club certainly has.

But the various publications, the Senior Record, the Musical Clubs, the band and the rest have always been struggling desperately against Fate and mismanagement. What one man has striven to accomplish in the past has generally been nullified by the actions of another.

Recently, however, matters have taken a different direction. The publications are on a sounder basis than ever before. The Record has inaugurated the excellent policy of publishing its accounts and making the management of the book competitive. Everywhere there has been a decided trend to eliminate personal gain from the affairs of these organizations.

Now come the Musical Clubs with the announcement that, for the first time, there is no deficit this year; that a graduate management has been established, and that the season's profits have been made the nucleus of a fund to provide for a permanent home for the musicians.

This is surely enough for one business manager to accomplish, and congratulations are in order for this alone.

The management has done more than this. It has not only put the Clubs on a firm footing and boosted their standing as an undergraduate activity. It has gone further and given an impetus to movement for the devotion of individual undergraduate effort for Pennsylvania, rather than for the individual, that cannot fail of good results. A student can do more than for that University.

The Juggler of Notre Dame" and "Tosca" Among Week's Offerings.

Reduction cards have been secured for four of the operas to be presented this week, and it is probable that student privileges will be again available at the end of the matinee performance of "Nemesis."

"Le Joueur de Notre Dame," with Mary Garden and Maurice Renaud in the prominent roles, will be revived tonight after a year's absence from the boards. Massenet adapted the opera especially for Miss Garden, and it is hoped that some of her most effective parts will be sung.

The Philadelphia premiere of Poulenc's "Tous les" will be given Wednesday evening. Jeanne Korower, Amadeo Cesari and Maurice Renaud will head the cast.

Offering a quartet and a pie of Mahler's "Tales of Hoffmann" is billed for Friday night, with the regular company, except Marguerite Silva, whose place will be taken by Jeanne Korower.

"Nemesis" will be presented for the third time Saturday afternoon, and "Madame Butterfly" will be produced in the evening.

Student subscribers to The Pennsylvania are entitled to two reduction cards each. Tickets will be given out at The Pennsylvania office at 1 o'clock on the day of the opera.

DICTIONARY A BROTHERHOOD
Rev. Black Flints Cut and Dried Theology and Apex for Paternalism at Yesterday’s Service.

The essence of Christianity was said by the Rev. Hugh Black, Professor of Practical Theology in the Union Theological Seminary, New York, to be the conception of God as the Father of all men and of all men as brothers. In an address before a packed audience in Houston Hall yesterday. He said that Christianity, truly conceived, had never been given a trial and that while great many men were willing enough to acquiesce in the statement that they were of the same stock, little belief that this belief was not a working force in their lives and they far were from accepting one another as their brethren.

"Jesus Christ," said Mr. Black, "was the first man fully to conceive and preach the idea that man is the son of God, and that in consequence all men are brothers. It is a strange thing that the great democracies have been evolved by the Anglo-Saxon who is the ancestor of all the other races in his attitude toward them. Think of how the average American talks about the Negro or the negro. He does not recall that the first days that came to America was Christopher Columbus. He is proud and superior. We think that after all men are our brethren.

"Unless you sincerely believe in God as the Father you cannot never regard all men as your brethren.

"Every profession is attended by a learned class, which will be dismissed into you without any idea of what it means. But just past this learned school, past the theology, to the thing itself. Humility is explained in the schools of theology in an analytical way. It being shown that it involves so much confusion and so much convention and so much satisfaction. But what does all this matter? You don’t care anything about having the right amount of education, or regret, or an adequate amount of satisfaction.

"We must apply those general teachings actually to the problems of labor and class strife. These problems are problems of relation between men: they result from problems to which cannot be solved by economic rules and regulations, but can be solved only when men take hold of the essential teaching of a fraternity that will bring men into proper relations with themselves and with God.

MATTEN FALL BEFORE CORNELL

Glassey Secures Only Fall for Red and Blue—Other Bouts Close.

Pennsylvania was defeated by Cornell Saturday night in the dual wrestling meet by a score of 5½ to 1½. Though the Red and Blue team put up a plucky fight, they could not get the shoulders of the Cornell men to the mat. Glassey was the only Pennsylvania man who succeeded in throwing his opponent. For the first time this season, Captain Stewart failed to win his bout, wrestling Dull, of Cornell, to a fifteen-minute draw. The remaining bouts were closely contested. The summaries:

115-Pound Class—Matlock, Cornell, threw Munday, Pennsylvania, in 3 minutes 26 seconds with a bar lock and head hold.

125-Pound Class—Glassey, Pennsylvania, threw Riff, Cornell, in 5 minutes 26 seconds with leg and neck hold.

133-Pound Class—Johnson, Cornell, won decision over Million, Pennsylvania, after 15 minutes.

148-Pound Class—Allen, Cornell, won decision over Young, Pennsylvania, after 15 minutes.

165-Pound Class—Shaw, Cornell, won decision over Nisscn, Pennsylvania, after 9 minutes.

Heavyweight Class—Goff, Cornell, threw Holman, Pennsylvania, with hammer lock in 10 minutes 45 seconds. Referee—Lawrence Connolly, of Burt’s.

University Text-Books

LOCAL COLOR FOR ARTISTS.

University Establishes Summer School for Art Study in Venice.

A summer school for the study of Local Color is to be established in Venice this coming summer. It will be entirely under the supervision of the University. The school, which will be conducted by the Herbert E. Redin, Professor of the History of Art in the University, will last from July 29 to August 22, and will count two units towards the sixty which are necessary to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Professor Redin's lectures will deal particularly with the history of Venetian painting through the XVI century. The students will spend the three hours from 9 A. M. to 12 noon every day in the various museums and churches of Venice. Short trips will be made to Padua and Ca' d'Oro. At 4 o'clock every afternoon Professor Redin will hold his lectures.

The class will be taught not only the origin, growth, and recession of the Venetian school, but also, through a class scientific observation and analysis of the types, composition, and form of work and peculiar qualities of a painter as displayed in his best and least successful productions, be enabled to distinguish the genuine works of great masters from those of followers and imitators.

The headquarters of the school will be in the Casino Hotel No. 56, Chioggia, Venice. This is a stately old palace with a fine interior and extensive view of Venice.

The class will be taken not only to the great masterpieces at present on exhibition but to all the best works of art, both in the various museums and in private collections.

At 7 o'clock every afternoon the students will be taken to the market and will be introduced to the local figures and the peculiarities of the Venetian temperament.
