Coach Thomas trotted his squad out for runs. Each contributed a pair of one-colored trousers. Held for two "Varsity, 10-5." The Varsity made two more in both innings, and there is every reason to believe that there is no more innovation until the nine was awarded 8 points. There-

GREEKS UNCHIVALOUS

According to Dr. Shorey in His Fifth Lecture on "Greek and English Poetry."

Professor Paul Shorey, in his fifth lecture on "Greek and English Poetry," yesterday, took up three themes. His first theme was "A Comparison of Poetical Treatment of Death between the Greeks and English." He said:

"The poetical sentiment upon this gloomy subject can best be judged by the manner in which the two races have regarded it. We think more of the horror and ghastliness of death, while the ancient Greeks regarded it in a vivid and fanciful light as a thing which is in the power of the fate. A blessing for the unusually good, an unusual curse for the excessively bad, and a gloomy, bloodless existence for the average human being."

His second theme was "Love Poetry." Many of the mistaken influences of love were lost to the Greeks. They possessed no ridiculous sentiments towards women such as we possess, but regarded love as the fatherland the highest degree.

The poem of courtship and of marriage that is lost to us is a strong sympathy between a man and a woman, so necessary to a happy marriage, are entirely lost to them. The Greeks also had no care for little children, but merely regarded them as hopeful possibilities.

In regard to his third topic, "Poetical Interpretation of Nature," Dr. Shorey said: "The finest barrier of the natural and the supernatural is the elements of the scene, to which they must submit, and they described them. They never mastered the grand accent, especially the Greeks, and have left many powerful descriptions to posterity. But they lacked that indefinable quality, natural magic, so prominent in so many of the modern literatures. The Greek poet's mind was a furtive mirror for an emotional and conventional view of nature, while the modern English poet, in the light of scientific investigation, takes a more natural and far more beautiful mode of expression."

TWO CAPTAINS ELECTED.
Swimming and Polo Teams Choose F. B. Willis and E. F. Wright.

At the seventh bi-monthly swimming meet last night, F. B. Willis, Interfraternity polo champion, was elected captain of the swimming team, and E. F. Wright was elected captain of the polo squad.

The swimming meet was slow and uninteresting. One of the notorious features of this meet was the shaving of the two feet made by Wright. This is an improvement of one foot over Wright's计划 of two weeks ago, and only falls a few feet short of the Interfraternity record recently established by Willis.

Overbarker, who inborn held the leads in points, was forced to withdraw because of illness. This gives Walton the first place with a total number of 56 points. Heraty is a close second with 53 points. The next meet, which is the last of the season, will be held at Broad and Fifth between these two men for first place honors.

50-Yard Handicap—Heraty (2 sec.), first; F. B. Willis (2.5 sec.), second; Good (3 sec.), third; Overbarker (farthest), fourth. Time: 1 minute 15.1 sec.

100-Yard Handicap—Heraty (3 sec.), first; Walton (6 sec.), second; Shoe-maker (farthest), third; Goodman (farthest), fourth. Time: 1 minute 59.2 seconds.

Swimming and Polo Teams Choose  F. B. Willis and E. F. Wright.

Plan for the reorganization of the Interfraternity Base Ball League are on foot. A meeting of the various managers will be held in Houston Hall to review at 1 o'clock to decide upon minor details and to perfect a schedule more complete and regular than that of last year.

The league will be organized along the lines followed last season. The men of each fraternity will play one game, at least, against each of the others, with the opportunity of placing a few additional games. These games are being held every base ball season, but will not interfere in any way with the Varsity schedule. A special field back of the Museum has been secured for this season, and the grading of the ground will soon be in.

There are no restrictions as to the membership of the teams except that each man must be a member of the fraternity, and must not be a Varsity baseballer. These two conditions made the contest for the trophy last year close and interesting. The title was finally won by the Kappa Sigma Fraternity, after a long struggle, in which they overcame each of the other ten competing teams.

Every fraternity on the campus has been invited to join the league this year.

DEBATES DINE AT WALTON.
Delta Sigma Rho Fraternity Hears Speeches by Two Women Officers.

The banquet of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Delta Sigma Rho Fraternity was held last night at the Mat-ned Walton. The procedures were made by Daniel C. Moore, of the Physics Department. Henry C. Diller and Horace Stern, Varsity debaters of ten years when the debate was held at the University of Michigan held the place now occupied by the Interfraternity League Debates. G. H. Ruiter, a member of last year's team against Cornell, was also one of the speakers. Henry C. Diller, ex-president of the local chapter, acted as toastmaster.

Four new members were elected to the fraternity. They are J. D. Miranda, C. Brewer, H. R. Innes and F. E. Wright. After the election of officers for the coming year, resulted in the selection of Samuel Brandeis as President, C. Brewer, Secretary, and F. E. Wright, Treasurer.

MUSSEw AND Kelly's Treatment

Musser and Kelly's Treatment is the most complete, the most practical, the most authoritative work on Treatment ever published. Its authors see the world's leaders in the medical field. This work of authority gives assurance of thoroughness, accuracy, and up-to-datesse; it makes Musser-Kelly the last word. That the work is down to the minute is shown by the frequent references to 1912 literature, the inclusion of Bechak's "ad" and the latest advance in serum therapy, enzyme therapy, etc., and the recent advances of bronchoscopy and polypus.

A chapter not found in any other work is that on the Treatment of Slight Asthma—conditions you are daily called upon to refer to.
