Members of Class 1911 Will Gather at Senior Banquet at Rittenhouse To-night

VOLUME XXVI—No. 158

PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1911

PRICE, THREE CENTS

SENIOR BANQUET THIS EVENING

The Varsity kept up their long string of victories over the Sculls by defeating them yesterday in a fast, exciting and evenly contested meet. It was an open meet, with four boats free tickets to first.

The Varsity was the first to score, in the second inning, when Caines ripped a McManus shot through Ricketts' croquet, and both came home on Clark's long single. In the fifth both teams got in the run column, the Varsity leading 4-2 on Libby's hit, Smith's hit for a base on balls, and Thayer reached first on a fielder's choice. Clark made another, and four runs counted.

For the Sculls, Coryell hit safely, stole second and came home on Clark's double.

The Varsity made another in the sixth, the scoring coming on a hit and a walk and a hit by sacrifice. pants were thrown out and scored them both with a hard double down the center."

W. J. MacLaren, in charge, will hold its annual banquet at the Hotel Astor on March 11. Manager Hunter considers this year's crew excellent, and Wire has every reason to believe that the game should prove close and exciting.

Dr. Clark elaborates on the "History and Esthetics of Music" for several weeks ago. Dr. Weygandt has, in the past, given much thought to the theory of music with the purpose of leading to an appreciation of the best music. It also deals with the history of music and the theory of composers. In my opinion, it covers the very ground your editorial demands.

The crew is now made up as follows:

Second Varsity—Mayale, Stubbs, Logan, Thomas, Bollins, Russell, and Davis, coxswain.

Third Varsity—Walton, Barrett, Moore, and Sinke, a substitute, Hamilton, Elliott, and Supplee coxswain.

FENCERS IN PRELIMINARIES

Many Changes in the make-up of the Varsity and Freshman crews and a reduction in the number of members makes it a new experience for the crew candidates by Coach E. F. Ward. Faced with the Freshman squad only four men were cut. The other four, who completed the third of eight, have been retained as substitutes, while the Varsity will no longer have a fifth crew.

The make-up of all the crews, with the exception of the third, which is a three-day crew, have been promoted to the Big Meet. While this is a little more up than from No. 4 to stroke of the second column, the only provision which has not been made for the Big Meet is the appearance of the crew candidates, in which Thomas and Bourne have been promoted from the third to the first and in Stainbrook is coxswain.

The new crew had taken the water has been too rough to allow good crew work to be done. As yet the practice has not been as good as it was last year.

The Varsity—Mayale, Stubbs, Logan, Thomas, Bollins, Russell, and Davis, coxswain.

First Freshman—Bis, Dalton, Griggs, Zelle, Hester, Watrous, and Glover, coxswain.

Second Freshman—Starr, Bloom, and Zelle, coxswain. Captain, Robert, coxswain; Sharp, Bemell, and Hannon, coxswain.

First Freshman—Bis, Dalton, Griggs, Zelle, Hester, Watrous, and Glover, coxswain.

Second Freshman—Starr, Bloom, and Zelle, coxswain. Captain, Robert, coxswain; Sharp, Bemell, and Hannon, coxswain.

THE SENIOR BANQUET.
Tonight the Class of 1911 will enjoy its last opportunity to gather round the banquet table, and it is certainly true that this final feast should oblige all other attempts, both in numbers present and in spirit.
As a class, the men of 1911 have struck together beautifully; they have accomplished many feats; they have done much good, and now they are on the point of enjoying their last banquet as a class.
We sincerely hope that a record crowd will seat itself around the tables for an unspoken meal and toast list which have been prepared by the committee. It should not be missed, for absence from it is sure to bring to every Senior a keen sense of regret from which reccovery is slow.

CAPS AND GOWNS.
Only a few days remain now in which members of the Senior Class may be measured for their caps and gowns.
Chairman Poulton and his committee may be found every day between 1 and 2 o'clock at The Pennsylvania office to take the measurement for the regulls to be worn on Class and Commemoration Days.
It is evident at first thought how vitality important it is that every man in the Class of 1911 should attend to this matter promptly, so that the commitee may be enabled to go about its plans immediately. If even one man were to appear at either of the occasions on which the robes and cap boxes are to be worn, without the dignified costume, it would spoil the total effect of beauty and dignity which the occasions demand.
Accordingly, we urge all who expect to receive their accessories in June to appear at the office of this publication between the stated hours and within the next two days, so that the matter may be cleared up immediately.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
American Academy of Political and Social Science Will Hold Notable Gathering in April 7 and 8.
One of the largest and most interesting happenings of people of note in the world of political and social science will be held in Philadelphia on April 7 and 8, when the Fifteenth annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science takes place.
Professor L. S. Rowe, of the War-ton School Faculty, has been in com-communication with the prominent personages who have agreed to speak at the sessions for several months, and his efforts have resulted in success of the highest type.
This program will be "Bids to Modern Industry," and three of the five presiding officers for the sessions have already been chosen. They are, in order, Hon. Francis MacVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury; Hon. Chase Nagel, Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and John Hay Hammond.
"Industrial Insurance and Retiring Allowances" is the subject for the first session, and F. Spencer Baldwin, Ph. D., Professor of Economics in Boston University, is one of the authorities scheduled to speak on that topic.
The second session, Mrs. Florence Kelley, General Secretary of the National Congress of Women, will speak on "The Unfortunate Absence of Adequate Employers' Liability Statistics," in reference to industrial accidents in the United States and their prevention.
"Deficits in Our Present Liability Laws" will be the topic discussed at the third session, P. T. Sherman, of New York, and Editor Williams, of the "Press," being two of the speakers.
Ten addresses will be made at the fourth session, the general subject for which is "Employers' Liability and Workers' Compensation," while at the final session the Hon. Austin L. Crouch, Governor of Maryland; the Hon.
Charles F. Neil, Commissioner of Labor of the United States, and John Mitchell, Vice-President of the American Federion of Labor, will speak. The general rule for this session is "Recent Progress in Legislation with Reference to Employers' Liability
and Workers' Compensation."

SOPHOMORE BANQUET SPEAKERS.
Seven Prominent Second Year Men
Will Respond to Toasts.
Seven prominent Sophomores have been chosen by the Banquet Committee to speak at the annual banquet of the second year men, which is to be held at the Majestic on Thursday, April 6.
President H. R. Morye, Arts, will respond to "The Class" and Grace W.
Kennedy, M. E., has been chosen to make the benediction "Publications." Theodore F. Dillon, Arch., of last year's Third year, will speak on the process of the class in the fall, while H. Simpson, M. E., will tell of "Track," R. H. Hamilton, Wh., is scheduled to respond to "Crew," G.
E. Gordon, C. E., to "Base Hall," and L. W. Jonides, a member of the Van. ity football and basketball teams, will speak on the latter sport. A toastmaster has not yet been chosen.

NEW BOOK BY DR. HUEBNER

Wharton School Professor's Latest Work on Marine Insurance Comes from the Press.

"Property Insurance," Professor S. R. Huebner's latest work, appeared yesterday from the press of the Appleton Company, New York. Fire and Marine Insurance, Corporate Surety, Bonding, Title Insurance and Credit Insurance are thoroughly treated in the new textbook, and they are included under three main heads: "Fire Insurance" takes up the first part, and twenty-one chapters are devoted to this phase of the subject. One of the chapters which will not be found in any other work on the subject is the one on "Special Arrangements In- dorsed on Marine Policies." "Marine Insurance" takes up the second part, and seven chapters are included in the treatment of the insurance of naval property and its protection. One of these chapters, also, "Special Agree- ments Indorsed on Marine Policies," is to be found in this book. Part three takes up "Bonding, Title and Credit Insurance, and Corporate Suretyship," in three chapters.

There is an exhaustive and all-com- prehensive bibliography of fifteen pages included in the work, which con- tains completely the four principal topics and the whole is illustrated by over forty figures and tables which are given to the value of the work. The entire volume contains 621 pages.

As Dr. Huebner has stated in the preface, his object in writing the book was not to discuss the half-technical aspects of the subject, but to pro- duce a book to be used "chiefly as a textbook for students of insurance in colleges and universities who either intend to enter into this profession or who wish to understand its nature as a business and its usefulness to the property owner. It is hoped, moreover, that it will prove equally valu- able to the many who are now en- gaged in the insurance business as agents or brokers."

Dr. Huebner assisted in his prep- aration and arrangement of the ma- terial from Mr. R. M. Pick, Mr. M. D. W. Metzger, and Mr. J. H. B. Robley, of the Wharton School Faculty.

•RIGOLETTO" AGAIN.
Galetti, Upikowa and Bassi Score in Verdi Opera.

Carlo Galetti proved an accepted Rigoletto last night and scored heavily in the role of the unhappy jester.
While not possessed of the hieratic ability of other Delta, Galetti nevertheless has a magnificent voice and carried his part to perfection.

Amadeo Bassi made the Duke
over a day in "La Donna Mobile" and the quarrel in the fourth act he was especially well served. Lelio Upikowaka was an acceptable of not expensive Gilda.
Her voice is not quite strong enough for the infinities of the second act, but in the other scenes she fitted in splendidly with Galetti and Bassi.

Armoldo and Tina di Angelo were admirable in supporting roles.
