THE PENNSYLVANIAN

THE VARSITY base ball team met Yale today at New Haven in the important undergraduate contest of the year. Conditions are somewhat different from those surrounding the track team, and can hardly be called so important.

In the first place, the absence of an undergraduate cheering section is always a handicap in a big game. Add to that the injury to Sibbett and baseball stock drops at once.

Nevertheless, the nine has managed to win at New Haven in the past under similar circumstances, and Captain Albro is confident that history will repeat itself today.

Here's success to the third successive base ball championship!

Hogg and John Hart.

The band will be on hand to play Monday night, and will make a tour of the Dormitory Triangle before going to the Field, in order to notify all the residents that the proper thing to do will be to lay aside all books and join the crowd on their merry way down Swede street.

LIVELY TIMES ON THE WATER

One of the Stella Pierces a Canoe and Loses Its Name—New Coaching Launch Arrives at Boat House.

There has been a great deal of excitement at the boat house lately. In the first place, the new coaching launch arrived, and in the second, one of the forward crew rammed into a canoe, bodily damaging both boats. Then the first and second Twenty-eight engaged in a two-mile brush after three or four days of rather easy practice, the first combination easily outdistancing the second.

The necessary speed to keep pace with the crews while in shallow water can be attained only by a boat whose draws very little water. The present coaching launch, the "Franklin," draws twenty inches, and the new one, without the engine, draws only four inches. The shape of the new boat is very odd, being built in the form of a catamaran, which style of craft is usually used for sailing.

Just as one of the forward crew was finishing his afternoon row and when it was less than a hundred yards above the boat house, a canoe which was drifting lazily along, suddenly swung about, directly in the path of the approaching shell. Before the oarsmen could stop the prow of the shell had rammed the side of the canoe, passing through both sides and making a hole there in the center. The shock was so severe that the top of the shell was broken off and the thin wood of the hull split for several feet. Both shell and canoe were able to reach their respective landings before they swamped.

Mr. Ward and the crew men were greatly amused when the owners of the canoe came to the boat house a few minutes after the accident and demanded to have the damage done to their canoe.

TENNIS ENTRIES CLOSE TODAY.

Tournament Matches Start Monday on "Ping" His Subject.

All entries for the annual tennis tournament at the University Tennis Club must be handed in with the fee of 62 cents to the A. S. office before noon tomorrow. At the present time there have been seventeen entries in the singles and four entries in the doubles, with prospects of several more entries in the singles. Drawings for the matches, which will be played off from Monday to Friday afternoon, inclusive, in the Law School Courts, will be made before Monday and announced in The Pennsylvanian of that date. The number of sets in each match has not yet been decided upon, but will be settled by the committee today. Prizes will be given to the Athletic Association, and the winners in both the doubles and singles will represent Pennsylvania against Princeton on Saturday, May 6.

DR. PATTEN TO LEAD SERVICES.

Noted Economist Chooses "Social Religion" for His Subject.

Dr. Simon Nelson Patten, head of the Department of Political Economy in the Wharton School, will be the speaker at the Sunday service in the Houston Hall auditorium tomorrow morning. His subject will be "Social Religion."

Dr. Patten has made a life-long study of social and economic conditions in this country and abroad, and is considered to be one of the foremost authorities in these fields at the present time. In 1888 he became a member of the University Faculty, and has continued in this capacity since that time. He is the author of a number of books, among the best known of which are "The New Basis of Civilization" and "The Development of English Thought."

Plan to Feature Pocumt.

The Pocumt Promotion Committee has decided to add an extra interest in the New Jersey Conference around by holding a series of meetings. The talks of the day will be on May 11, when launders first will be held at the college depicting various scenes at the expected to give an idea of the camp there.

With each package of Fatima you get a program on "Man," which shows a handout for each of the 11 lectures (1/12) — average price of $1.00.
