PREPARING FOR PRINCETON

The Vanities, fresh from their easy victory over Virginia on Tuesday, went through a hard, starchy workout yesterday afternoon, in preparation for the Princeton game. Tomney was out again and will play in the Princeton game. King, who played third base against Virginia, is a good man, but not as strong at the hot as Tomney. He was tried in left field yesterday, but will not get into the game if Smith is able to play.

The regular left man, Yeust, is able to play with his sprained ankle, but will likely report today or tomorrow to be in shape for Saturday.

Warner, who dropped off the squad after a bad week at the plate, showed no signs of improvement, but will be added to the lineup on Saturday, if he can get up to speed.

Mr. Blalr announced a ball game, a 13 run game, for the club house.

At noon today the Vanities and Freshman crews and three substitutes, coach and assistant will leave for Annapolis, in order to have two or three days of practice over the 880 yard course used in the races next Saturday afternoon. The two shells will be loaded on the harbor, and express can requisition any boat and are expected to arrive at their destination this morning at 9 o'clock.

The Vanities will be the first to load and, as usual, the Freshman will load just before the Vanities. The Freshman and other Varsity crews will not be ready.

Bunod and Valentine have been decided upon, as Freshman substitutes, while Madeua, stroke of the Junior eight, will do the rest. The southwest point of the peninsula.

At least we are, we have only too few customs of this sort, and we should do all in our power to foster the growth of those few that we claim ancient tradition is one of our boast, and it is the duty of every fourth year man to give up the few hours of time which will be necessary for its continuance.

To sit on the fence sacred to Seniors alone, to mingle with members of the class in the close bond of fellowship, to sing the songs of Pennsylvania, songs which make the good red blood course faster, and which make our Alma Mater ever dearer and closer to us, is the thing in which we ask. It is not in the nature of a sacrifice, but a pleasure.

Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, has been set for the time, and we trust that every senior will be present to help perpetuate a good custom.

WORTH KNOWING.

About a week ago, an article announcing a proposed Interfraternity track meet was published in the columns of this paper. Since then there have been no further developments. Evidently the genius who suggested this form of intramural competition has not pushed his idea far towards the goal of fulfillment, although it would seem that interest in such an affair should be spontaneous.

Interfraternity track and an occasional interscholastic meet have been the only intramural sports open at the University this year, and the revival of a competition in which undergraduates, not of Varsity caliber, could participate, is most desirable.

A great amount of good might result from such a meet in more ways than one. "Nicks" would unquestionably discover some fellow student in a healthy interest in track athletics could be aroused, and perhaps some of the canonic physical ailments that afflict many overworked students would disappear with the opportunity to again become a "real" athlete. Again, it would go a long way towards promoting University spirit and good feeling among the undergraduates, the elements essentially necessary to the welfare of the institution.

It is to be hoped that the proposition does not fall through. Some one has a chance to join the ranks of the immortals and institute a custom that will prove decidedly beneficial to all concerned.

JUNIOR VETS PRESENT CLOCK.

Handsome Timepiece Will be Placed in Courtyard of the Department.

A gift was made to the University yesterday afternoon, when the Class of 1913, of the Veterinary Department, made the presentation of a very handsomely wrought timepiece, which is to be placed in the recently-built courtyard of the Veterinary Buildings. This is the first gift, and probably the only one, made to the University by the classes of the Veterinary School. It is a small two yard table clock, with two faces, both of which are in Pewter Hall. They were presented by the classes of 1909 and 1910.

The ceremonies yesterday were preceded by the unveiling of "Hall" Pennsylvania, immediately after which Dr. W. D. Irwin, introduced Mr. H. K. Wenzel, president of the class, who made the presentation and directed the unveiling, which was done by Mr. Harry Mitchell, owing to an unexpected engagement in Harrisburg. President Edward F. Smith was unable to be present to accept the gift for the University, but this ceremony was performed by Dr. L. A. Klein, Dean of the Veterinary Department.

In the address made by Mr. John Marshall, one of the former deans, Dr. Carl W. Gay and Dr. Karl P. Meier, all distinguished professors, the importance of the most recently founded school of the University was emphasized, as was also the loyalty of the Class of 1912. In closing, Dr. Edward Lothrite, the last speaker, said: "Gentlemen, I admire your gift, but I admire more the spirit with which you have given it."

Mirkil Gets Assistant Managership.

That William Irwin Mirkil, of Wisconsin, Phi, has been elected second assistant manager of the basketball team was announced yesterday by Manager Howson. The election took place over a month ago, but was not officially announced until yesterday, after its selection by the A.A. D. Directors. Mirkil is a member of the Custom Club and the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

WIND BOTHERED PLAYERS

In Tennis Tournament, but Closely Contested Matches Farshed.

Yesterday's Competitions.

Play in the University tennis tournament yesterday resulted in several closely contested matches. Jamison, a member of last year's team, was pushed to the limit to beat Hunter. Both sets were won at 6 and six all, but finally Jamison, the more experienced player, won 64, 64.

In the Erna-Harlow match, Evans won the two and chose the wind. With this advantage and profiting by Harlow's wildness, he took the first set easily by the score of 6-2. After the change of court, Harlow ran away with the set, winning 6-1. After that he had changed courts again, Evans, playing a hard fast game that seemed to worry his opponent, easily took the decisive set, 6-1. This high wind bothered each contestant, and neither seemed able to exercise this advantage. Davis and Landrath fought it out for three sets, the latter winning finally, 62, 56, 11-9.

Summary of yesterday's matches:

Singles—First Round.

O. D. Johnston defeated R. K. Kaufman, 64, 64.
Ricky defeated Hargus, 62, 64.
Jammers defeated Hunter, 64, 64.

Singles—Second Round.

M. E. Evans defeated R. E. Harlow, 64, 16, 64.
Kaeircher defeated Lantz, 62, 63.

Doubles—First Round.

Landrock and Bell defeated Bolos and Reeves, 46, 64, 75.
Ricky and Rose defeated Seymour and Davis, 68, 64, 75.
Kaeircher and Baehler defeated Hunter and partner, 64, 63.
Harlow and Irish defeated Koon and Penn, 61, 63.

Doubles—Second Round.

Landrath and Bell defeated Silverton and Chandler, 61, 64.

ZELO SPEAKERS CONTEST

For Silver Cups in Extemporaneous Speaking Event Tomorrow Night.

Zelo will hold her third annual extemporaneous speaking contest to-morrow night in Zelo Hall. This will be the most important literary event of the year, held under the auspices of the society.

The subjects are to be chosen by the contestants from a list prepared by a committee headed by Karl Schulte. The other members are W. H. Abjebn, J. P. Strong and A. M. Parker.

The prizes are two solid silver cups, with the society's emblem upon them. They will be awarded to the two best speakers.

Moore, M. S. White and J. M. Hoss, Jr., two prominent Zelo alumni, have consented to act as judges.

The entries are confined to Zelo men, and will close tomorrow evening.

GLEE CLUB IN BIGARDENS.

Old Custom Will Be Revised Friday Night by University Singers.

Another institution will be revived when, on Friday night, the members of the Combined Musical Clubs assemble in the Bigardens and sing all the choicest harmonic hits of the past season.

Two years ago the last vocal strains wailed over the frequented. At that time the garden was barely able to hold the crowds that were attracted by the excellence of the strains. For some unaccountable reason the custom dropped off during last year.

Friday, however, will again see the worthies in the garden, and we doubt the terraces back of Loity will accommodate the old familiar quota of enthusiastic students.

Three More Hospital Appointments.

Three more hospital appointments have been made from the members of the fourth year class of the Medical School. Penner will go to the Christ Hospital, M. A. Bradford to the Ervin Hospital, and F. S. Flager to the Kernochan Hospital.

Errol White Again President—Dr. La Rochele Speaks on "Chanticleer." —

According to a motion passed by the Cercle Principes, at their meeting last night, the membership will not be open to the student in French classes, but new men will have to be regularly elected. A resolution was also adopt- ed which provided for a committee to take charge of appointments to mem- bership. At the elections, which con- cluded, Errol White, 31 C., was re- elected President; A. C. Baugh, 31 C., was elected Vice-President; R. S. Lock, 31 C., was made Secretary, and F. B. Milford, 31 C., was elected Treasurer. Philipas De la Ro- chelle was unanimously reappointed director for next year.

At the conclusion of the meeting, President Baugh entertained the mem- bers with an interesting lecture on Roosevelt's "Chanticleer." He opened by explaining the subject matter of the play and went on to say that it was undoubtedly Roosevelt's greatest production. He proved his assertion by citing parallel references from some of Roosevelt's other works, and concluded by writing a short treatise of Roosevelt's complete works.

After the Re. Woven B. V. D. President Errol White gave a short talk, on Poetry and Art. The affair was brought to a close by an informal sup- per in the Trophy Room.

The date set for the annual banquet is Pledia, May 15, at the French Hotel, 1419 Locust street.

INTERFRATERNITY TRACK MEET.

Representatives Meet To-morrow to Conclude Plans for Next Event.

Representatives from the college fraternities will meet tomorrow night to ar- range an inter-fraternity track meet, which will take place in the near fu- ture, and upon which all track events ex- cept the pole vault and horden are being neglected. Altogether, ten even winners of the "Varsity" letter or nu- merous of our fraternities, are expected to compete. The date has not yet been decided on, but will probably be the afternoon of next week. Such a meet is new in the history of Penn's track and field, and is expected to be great public and general, and there is a high hope of its becoming a permanent in- stitution. These meet will be arranged in such a manner that those who come from the school are promoted in the promotion of the program and those of those who come from the school will discover the discovery that in addition to the meet will be the best book ever published by that department. This plan will be $2,000, and copies may be ob- tained from any of the above-men- tioned men.

A Chance for the Talented.

If there is any student who has ability in writing good lively literature and tires of musical comedy, let him communicate with Wm. S. Smith, 31 B. D., for details. The program will be pro- posed. The Red Woven B. V. D. Label assures the guarantee of your purchase.
