As ranged support from his teammates.

The crew rows Yale on the Connecticut, and the outlook is much brighter than against the Middle. Yale is not thought to be as fast as the Navy, while the Varsity eight has improved considerably during the week. Unless Reed's injury is more serious than reported, the eight ought to triumph.

Ordinarily, Annapolis would not be greatly feared in a dual track meet, but with Hough, Scriber, Haydock and Burke on the stick list, the prospects of a closely-contested meet are good.

"Mike" makes no predictions as to the outcome, but it is safe to say that the cadet crew will have to go the full limit to win.

Altogether, it looks as though the University will not be so deeply embarassed in gloom tonight as a week ago.

TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTES
MINING

A good prospect is soon discovered to be a rich find if you start looking for Fatima's. When they are causing only rare tobacco blended to produce a distinctly "different" taste, come fellows, get rich quickly, dig up some silver and bury gold, for Fatima are nuggets of intrinsic value. And their goodness is surprising.

They cost only 15 cents for 20, which gives you 10 additional.

SPRINGFIELD ADORNED
FOR GALA CROWE RACE
make a victory in the final tests for these two boats much greater.
This is the 10th time Yale and Pennsylvania have met in dual boat races.
At New London, May 11, 1884, the two universities met and rowed over a favorable course. From 1885, 1886 and 1889, the race was an annual affair, but after that the crews ceased to compete. The last of these races was a flabby affair. The Pennsylvania boat had been beaten every time they met the Elks. This year they lost again, but they fought for every inch of the four miles Yale's time was 25 minutes and 50 seconds. Pennsylvania's time was 25 minutes and 30 seconds. In 1890, Yale came to Philadelphia and rowed Pennsylvania over the Schuylkill course. Pennsylvania won this race with ease.
The race is scheduled to start at 6:30. The crews will probably begin its run at seven a.m. as the connections is the place where the race is to be held, which is at the four miles point. This will allow the crowds to see the struggle.
1 The day is decreed with college coats. Blue prevails, although a few local Pennsylvania supporters are showing sympathy for "Old Yale." The Elks will have the most encouragement from the Lower back. This is bad luck as it was in 1890, when Yale lost to Pennsylvania. The event will be with the wearers of the Red and Blue. Very few Philadelphia students are here for the race.
Following are the statistics of both crews:

appointed a Trustee of the University, recently returned from the current experiences of the University Medical School of Tsingtao, China, where he recently entered his mission in Forwarding a student movement. Pennsylvania is now supporting four pharmacies, all graduates of the University Medical School, trained in a course and a necessity in their work. Practicaions are now being made for a large hosital.
