Take Lead for Dean's Trophy by Defeating Rivals in Class Track Meet—Score, 61 to 52 2-3.

The Freshman track team got its first big win of the season yesterday afternoon when the Sophomores won the annual intercollegiate meet, taking first at 1:35 4-3 seconds.

Strength in the field events was responsible for the Sophomores' victory. They made up half their points in the field events, taking first in every one but the pole vault.

The Sophomore recorded a surprise when they defeated Wharton, 1913, in the quarter-mile. The two ran together at the finish, the Sophomore winning by a foot.

Most surprising of all, as he pleased, in the broad jump, Rutovitz over a hundred yards in 10 minutes 12-6 seconds.

Murphy threw the hundred feet, 1914; second, Wharton, 1914; third, Van Alib, 1913. Time, 12-5 6-5 seconds.

1914; second, Van Alib, 1913. Time, 21-2 5-7 seconds.

Two-mile Run—Won by McCurdy, 1913; second, Adamson, 1913; third, Brown, 1914. Time, 9 minutes 45-2 seconds.

Richard Marshall, Wharton, 1914, at 6 ft. 11 in.; second, MacDade, 1915, 6-5 5-7 ft. in.; third, MacDade, 1917, 5 ft. 11 in.

Hammer Throw—Won by Murphy, 1913; second, Sisson, 1913; third, Dutton, 1913. Time, 120 12-4 seconds.

1913; second, LaFlamme, 1915, 6-5 5-7 in.; second, Coomer, 1915, 5 ft. 11 in.; third, Coomer, 1915, 5 ft. 11 in.; third, Coomer, 1915.

Field yesterday previous 10 the dual meet between the Pennsylvanians, the Sphinx Senior Society and the Columbia Alumni Society, the Sphinx Senior Society and the Pennsylvanian game besides, the Sophomore won as he pleased, in the broad jump, Rutovitz over a hundred yards in 10 minutes 12-6 seconds.

Young Athletes in Races.

Preparatory School Boys to Compete in Junior Championships.

An annual event of great interest to the younger members of the high schools and preparatory schools in and around Pennsylvania is the Junior Championship, which will be run off this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Athletic Field. Any one over seventeen and a half years of age will be eligible to compete.

Although the meet will perhaps provide little entertainment for most of the previous preparatory meetings, the Juniors expect to pull off some close finishes and make a few exciting races. Episcopal Academy seems to be the one school which has the largest track team. Many schools are very good runners, Central Manual, however, have worked hard on the hill, and Episcopal Academy, of Philadelphia, also have surprising teams.

With little prospect to take the top 10-200-yard dashes. Episcopal is not worrying about the sprinters. Hill, Central Manual, and McPherson, of Media High, will push him hard, but must come too slow for the sprinters.

In the hurdles, the hurdlers, Fangio, of Episcopal, and Warren, of De Lancey, will have a chance to show off. Ray, Lakey and Crawford, of Central High, and Colough, of Episcopal, are the two best hurdlers at the meet. Harris, of Episcopal, has thrown the 12-pound shot over 40 feet, and should win that event. There are very few other hurdlers, but some dark horse may spring a surprise.

The field meet is scheduled to start promptly at 3, and all competitors are asked to be present at least an hour before the time.

1913 Van Record to Appear Today.

The 1913 Veterinary Record will make its appearance today. J. R. Hardenberg, the Fire Chief, has promised, W. J. Crocker, C. W. Shiver, E. M. Cortley, J. H. Hoover and P. H. Ziegler, of the book and promise a good volume. All members of the class of '14 may be used to immediate C. W. Meyer, 3457 Walnut street.

continually while they do rise to the place of immediate response every to "set by" the finals.

Most of whom are wishing that they did have a little more when the slide was a little more exhilarating

but this is small consolation. The "I cold out so" of the relentless instructor sounds its dirge-like chant in un-winning ears, and the grind is in his hears.

What a relief it must be to the

Seems a pity that the rest of the col-

"MCUCEDORUS" AGAIN AMUSES.

Last Performance of the Old Comedy

Successfully Presented by Phi.

The second and last performance of

"Mcucedorus," an Elizabethan comedy, was given by the Philomathean Society last night in the Bl-Gardens.

The night blessed the minds derived from their first performance in the way they overcame the difficulties imposed upon them by performing under the adverse conditions of shadow terrain and the brawling croaking of the bullfrogs in the pond.

As before, a great part of the care for the success of the performance must be given to W. B. Shiley, whose parts and witwhisms as Mouse,

the Clown, delighted the audience. He received better support from the rest of the company than before and the result was a much more finished performance.

Altogether the effort was very pleasing and the players and members of the society deserve great credit for having succeeded so well in producing an old comedy and making the show "go.

FACULTY TO PLAY BALL

Wharton Professors Compete for Places on Pedagogical Nine—Candidates Many and Promising.

Every man of any prestige in the Wharton School, from the Juniors to James T. Young, Director, is engaged in frantic training for a base ball nine that is slated to pull a noble curtain over the best performances of Coach Thomas and his proteges. Realizing that competition among the high financiers was bound to be keen and perhaps confusing, Coach Young recently issued a subpoena call for candidates. But the thing has leaked out, and now the whole faculty alternate between rubbing sore arms and chancing the new corn-center over the great back of Blyth.

In an interview yesterday, Capt. Liebenthaler goes it out that the first game would be played with the Senators on May 12. When asked as to the probable make-up of the team, he seemed hard to make any definite statement, due to the fact that no report had been heard from the Committee on Athletic Organizations as to the eligibility of the candidates.

This Patterson and Kiley seem booked to do most duty, however. The former has a reputation for steady work in the pitcher, while the latter's tremendous control and great assortment of curves will surely put the Senators.

At the receiving end, Liebenthaler and Mr. Rechnoldt seem to have the call. As nothing ever passes either of these stars.

Dr. Pletson should have no difficulty in obtaining a lease on the entire garden, and, with Collector and Masterland, the outfield will be well taken care of.

Noiring and Watson are fighting it out for the initial start, while Dr. Young is due to step everything down the third-line line. Just who will cover second and short has not been decided. At present, Hiebert and Rechnoldt have the call, although White and Morey have quite a reputation as infield artists themselves, and their clever hitting may lend them positions.

FRESHMAN NINE AT ANDOVER.

Fast Preparatory School Team Will Give 1914 a Hard Battle.

The Freshman base ball team plays the Andover Academy nine today on the latter's home grounds. Judging by each team's performances this year, it will have to display its best form to win, for the Andover team has been going at a fast clip.

The probable lineup and batting order is as follows:

Andover—Buben, ss; Middlenoff, 2b; Van Brooklin, cf; Wright, c; Reilly, 3b; Mahan or Heiber, p; Daughter, 1b; Beery, 2b; Street, p; 1914—Macaulay, 3b; O'Connell, cf; Coleman, 2b; Stevenson, 1b; Mihls, c; Adams, cf; Black, cf; Ericks, 2b; Pedel, 1b; Striger, Burr and Searle, p.

DELTA U. DOWNS A. T. O.

Heavy Hitting and Clever Base Running Bring Victory.

Alpha Tau Omegans lost to Delta Upsilon yesterday afternoon in an Interfraternity League game by the score of 6 to 2. The winners played fast ball, Randstra's pitching and stick work and Brady's excellent base hit behind the bat featuring the game. Young pitched well for the losers, but was accorded poor support. Score to niners.
