APPROPRIATION BILL PASSED

Act Setting Aside $950,000 for the University will become a law signed by the Governor.

The bill providing for State appropriations of $950,000 for the University was passed by the Senate last Friday; now remains for Governor Tener to affix his signature before the bill can come into effect.

The bill as originally introduced by James T. Morgan, of Philadelphia, provided for appropriations aggregating $1,000,000, and was introduced on Feb.

CANE GIVEN TO EXPROVIX

The members of the Combined Prob- hbble will be entertained last evening by Former President Tustin and Mrs. Tustin at "Happy Creek Farm."

Mass Meeting Will Be Held in Tri- cornered to reporters by Coaches and Players.

Only two more days remain in which tickets may be purchased for the Princeton-Ohio game, and the various fraternity houses have beencyanized with the greatest difficulty.

A number of tickets are still left and may be purchased for $5.00 either today or tomorrow at the Pennsylvania office. This includes both a return trip ticket for the special and a reserved seat for the game in the Pennsylvania section.

Arrangements have been made so that the students can have at least half an hour to be present at the game. The special train will leave Broad Street at 1:12, and is scheduled to arrive at Princeton at 2:50 from where the game starts. The return trip will commence four hours after the game. It is expected that Philadelphia will be reached in a 2:30 p.m. train.

There will be a memorial mass-meet- ming tomorrow night in the bookstore, and the leaders of the students or persons able to do so, will be on hand and all the ballots will be bought.

Members of the Princeton Trip Commit- tee will be at the mass-meeting with the reserved seat tickets. They have hoped that all who have not previously obtained them will avail themselves of this opportunity.

SOPHOMORE RETRIBUTION

Class of 1913 will indulge in Revengeful Retribution at Annual Cremation on Franklin Field Tonight.

The annual Sophomore Cremation, which is the last opportunity for 1913 to indulge in undergraduate folly, will take place on Franklin Field tonight at 3 o'clock.

Starting promptly on time, a varied entertainment will be carried out. The orchestra, formed by non-members, will serve as an introduction to the cornet. After this will come a mixed program of boxing and wrestling, and perhaps a dance that will be the peddler to the serious ceremonies. Professor C. C. Bucer, of the Physics Department, will be the first to announce the launching of flares, continued in his end by Haas. Percy Van Daley Sheller, Instructor in English, will next be delivered to remorseful idolatry in South Hannum. Haas will read the fatal verdict to the next victim, Horace Pugh Foye, of the Engineering School, and last of all W. T. Reeder will bid J. Russell Smith, of the Wharton School, good-bye to the land of Flats.

This occasion marks the halfway stone in the college career of the Sophomore, and serves as a substitute for the post-game feelings accumulated during the first two years of undergraduate existence. It is annually attended by the largest and most enthusiastic crowd which has ever been assembled at Franklin Field, where no given to making predictions over events to come, but we would not be at all surprised if the Red and Blue should come out on top Saturday. The team that defeats the Yankees will surely win the Intercollegiates.

The Pennsylvanian

Track Team Leaves To-Day

Twenty-Five Men Comprise Combination That Hopes to Repeat Last Year's Performance.

Pennsylvania's Varsity track team, accompanied by "Mike" Murphy, Manager Williams and twenty-five runners, will leave for Boston today to take part in the Intercollegiate Championships, to be held in the Harvard Stadium, on Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27.

Twenty-five men comprise the team which hopes to duplicate last year's performance by winning the championship.

Mist of last year's point winners will again represent Pennsylvania, since the 1910 team, which won the championship with 28 points, has lost only Raymond, who scored nineteen points last year. Pauli made six points by a second place in both the mile and the half mile, but it is believed that he will run in the 880 this year. This will lose either one of three points for the Red and Blue.

Burke, who finished fourth in the half mile last year, will probably be used in the mile if he fails to qualify in the 880. He should give Jacques, of Harvard, a fight for the fourth point.

Wells was third in the twonmle last year, but should trail former all the way on Saturday and finish close to the Cornell champion. Gatherers and Church are also entered, and one of them may get a place.

Pennsylvania should have little trouble in getting the majority of the points in the half mile. Todd, Beaver, and Leary can all travel the distance under 1:57. Putnam, of Cornell, and Hall, of Michigan, who was third last year, are the only other men who figure in this event.

Pennsylvania will be lucky to get a place in the quarter. Meigher, of Cornell, ought to win, but he will be pushed by Kelly, of Harvard, and Young, of Amherst. These three men can all run the 440 in fifty-six seconds. Hough, Smith and Wharton are the Red and Blue entries, and "Mike" Murphy expects a third or fourth place.

Captain Minds is the only Pennsylvania man in the sprints. He has not been in his best form this year, but is a consistent performer and should make five points in the two hundred.

Harkness and Griffith will carry the Red and Blue over the hurdles. Harkness pulled a tendon two weeks ago, but his leg is now in shape and he should be in both events. He ought to follow Chapple, of Yale, and Dwight, of Princeton, in the high hurdles and give Dwight a fight for second place ahead over the low.

The other events, Pennsylvania should score fifteen points. Burdick looks like a certainty in the high jump and Foster seems to be the second best man.

Meyer should win the broad jump if his instep holds out. He has done little jumping lately, but should make nearly 24 feet Saturday. Roberts, of Amherst, last year's champion, may not compete because of an injury to his ankle, sustained in the Harvard-Amherst football game last fall. Houlahan, of Syracuse, and La Flamanze, of Pennsylvania, can all do 22 feet and should fight it out for the other three places.

Murphy is Pennsylvania's only entry in the hammer-throw. He holds good for a place if he reaches 145 feet. Tiller, of Dartmouth, looks like the winner.

Two men, Heyburn and Proctor, are entered in the pole vault, but it is not likely that either one will score. Eldon is entered in the shot-put and can beat 6 feet, but his don't class with Horner, of Michigan; Kilpatrick, of Yale, and Walde, of Syracuse.
