FOUR MORE DAYS BEFORE ROWING

University Championship Races on Thursday and Friday Mark Close of Fall Rowing—Crews Picked.

Junior rowing will be concluded for this fall with the completion of those races this coming Thursday and Friday. The races have not been nearly so long as in former years, the call coming later and the weather not so favorable. The rain of the past week was sufficient to dampen the spirit of all the crews, but there is no doubt that the races will be run.

The preliminary races will be on Thursday and the finals on Friday, the winners taking the title of University Champions. The race between the Sophomore and Freshman classes, being the most experienced of all the crews, will meet in the first of the preliminaries. The wire has been released and it promises to be the most exciting and closest of all the races. The preliminary, the first Freshman, the second Sophomore, the third Freshman, and the fourth Sophomore will be pitted against each other. It is impossible to make any predictions as to who will win. The Freshmen have had more experience, but the Sophomore Class have been well-developed remarkably well and at present it is impossible to tell which of the professional school men fighting for the final finish lines. It is probable that some of these races will meet in the finals. Also on Friday there will be no races. The interval between the second Finals and the second Preliminary will be used by the crews to prepare for the finals in the championship races. The results of these races and the use of the course will be the same until Saturday.

Not until yesterday did Coach Ruhl finally announce the crews he will send against the rival crews. The men who failed to show up during the interval between the first and second Preliminary races were told and told again to report to the coaching staff. Two crews were picked and listed as the Freshmen eight. The men who failed to show up during the interval between the first and second Preliminary races were told to report to the coaching staff. ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS,

Professor of Botany Will Give Series of Special Talks.

Chapel services this week will be conducted by Dr. John H. Macfarlane, who has a course of four talks on the "Religion of Biology to Christianity." Yesterday he spoke on "Astronomy," showing the evolution of man and the proofs of ultimate progression. Today he will deal with "Astronomers," bringing out the relations of general continued uniformity and slow evolution.

For the remainder of the week his talk will be "Degradation," resulting in deviation and relatively rapid death, and a review of the former subjects, explaining which of them is most desirable and beneficial to mankind.

Preceding morning Dr. Leo S. Row will conduct morning services.

Public Lectures in Museum.

Dr. George B. Gordon, Director of the Franklin Institute, has announced that a course of public lectures will be given at the Museum this winter. Dr. Gordon hopes to secure as assistants such men as Dr. George O. MacCurdy, of Yale; Dr. Alfred M. Tenser, of Harvard; Dr. A. A. Goldwin-Wharton, of Columbia; and Dr. Albert Lo Cur, Director of the German Expedition to Turkestan.

STATE PUTS HOPE IN PASS

Coach Helenbach Drilling His Team
In Forward Pass to Reach Red
And Blue Weakness.

The word seems to have gone forth that the way to beat Pennsylvania is to get out a good forward pass. Private advances confirm this for both State and Michigan. Coach Helen-bach has been giving especial attention to forward passing and he hopes to get away with it as have other teams that have not Pennsylvanians so far this season. State has in Very, their All-American end, one of the best receivers of the forward pass working today. He is hard to cover and State counts on him to make around by the play. v His tackle, Harry, Barr and Herman have been working the play against the wingers with great success, and it will be a feature of State's play on Saturday.

Coach Helenbach was well pleased with the work of his team on Saturday. Without the services of Harry,
his star tackle, the line easily	held their own against the heavier Vilianum men. With Barlow in good con-tion, he expects to be, and with Very and Berryman at the ends, State is confident of outgaining the Red and Blue forwareds.

In fact, the real Saturday will be in the line, and it is for that reason that the State game is certain to be a hard fight. Jourard will be in the same Saturday and this will strengthen the Red and Blue forwards appreciately.

VAIL VINDICATED.

Court Rejects Scheme to Unseat Law
School Class President.

One warrantee proceedings which were instituted against President Vail by insurgent members of the second year's class came to an antimonies
and yesterday when a bench composed of Messrs. Vail, Wulff, Leaman, and Lewis decided that the motion to unseat the president was without cut reason or excuse. Vail's counsel, J. P. Nakody, and J. A. Nelson, both of Cleveland, succeeded in convincing the court that there was no flaw in Vail'sight to hold the office, and today the Vail flag floats without more over the troubled camp.

The argument was as to a rule
to show cause why a writ of quo

arranto should not be issued, both place in Prize Hall and in yesterday's meeting, and was attended by almost the entire body of the students in the law department.

SOCCER PRACTICE AGAIN.
J. Pluvius Lets Up and Gives Team a Chance to Play — New Men Report.

Because of the poor weather conditions, no soccer practice was held the latter part of last week. The game scheduled for last Saturday between the Pennsylvania Second and Philadelphia Fraternity Club Second team was postponed until later in the season.

Practice continued today on Maysfield Field, and a large number of men reported to practice. Of the new men who reported for the first time today, Frasier, Cheston and Hopkins showed up well.

Coach Stewart picked two teams and matched them up against each other. After half an hour of play neither side was able to score.

The practice today showed a decided improvement over last Tuesday's. The men played together better, and the ball moved more closely.

DATES FOR MOST COURT TRIALS.
All First and Second Year Law Men to Please in Mays Court.

All first and second year men and special students in the Law School have been chosen of being assigned at least once as counsel in the Faculty Court. The purpose of this privilege applies to non-members as well as to members of the Law Clubs. The committee representing the Law Clubs has decided to give a reception to the visiting judges and lawyers on each of the most court nights. Students attending to clubs will be welcomed to these receptions, but they will be expected to contribute toward the expense.

The Second Most Court Nights have been determined upon: November 25, December 14, January 11, February 15 and February 29.

Second Botanical Society Meeting.
The Botanical Society of Pennsylvania will hold its next meeting Saturday afternoon, November 4, in the Hotel Monaco. The program will consist of addresses by: Dr. Henry Hoff- moun on "Phytochromes in Plant Physiology and Flowering," and by Dr. John M. Mears on "European Botanical Notes," which will be illustrated with specimens. The large attendance at former sessions of the society, shows the great interest taken by everyone in plant life in this section of the country. Beginning with next Saturday, meetings will be held every second Thursday in the Hotel Monaco, at 2 o'clock. In order to be entertained, it is earnestly desired that anyone interested in plant life and botany will attend, and may become members by forwarding his name to Secretary E. A. C. Demer, 521 Locust avenue, Germantown.

Basketball League Meeting.
Ralph Morgan, secretary of the Intercollegiate Basketball League, has announced that the annual meeting of the league will be held next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the Hotel Imperial, Broadway and Thirty-first Street, New York City. Captains Walton and Manager Bodley will probably attend.
