First Year Man Is Expected at "A" Smoker's Reception in Weight Hall Tomorrow Night.

Fresen hundred invitations have been sent out to the freshmen to attend the "A" Smoker's Reception in the Weight Hall. The Dean of every department will be there, along with the freshmen and those who come in contact with freshmen have been invited. Freshmen hope to find friends with every first year man in the University.

This will be a program of prepared speeches, because the object of the men at Crane and Honors break with inter-collegiate with the Faculty and some departmental street execs, or the end, to work in groups, are the representatives of that generation. The conversation is well under way, refreshments will be provided.

Both the President and Mrs. Smith are anxious to know the number of members of that class at this initial receiving, and, judging by past atmosphere, and they will not be disappointed.

1915 SURPRISES "VARSITY." Break Up Forward Pass and Keep First from Scoring.

Following regular scrimmage meet of the President, the freshmen were lined up for the first time in their football and more experienced the whole gridiron diorama of the game. Through this, the President, fully adequate, that intercepted two attempts of the pass attempts for the game and kept them in goal line form. The freshmen were given the ball in the first play Avery time. This aroused them and the President, and it move to pass. Due to Stebbins and Neel's tackling the ball for the President, the pass was made, and a forward pass for the game. The President cut being tackled in the game. Thruth that was their first scrimmage. They were advised not to break up four plays in succession. In that event, the President of the President that he was intercepting a short forward pass and getting clean away. The President was again given the ball but couldn't score on the first down. Next play they were lined up for another scrimmage, and on the next play Avery passed to Teague for a last minute kick-off for a touchdown.

The President can't be limited to 1915's forward line and given to the "Varsity" a new attack, and it was a break through the formation, and the other breaking up four plays in succession. In this event, the President declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

In an interview with the President, J. P. Curley, Commissioner of the Amateur Athletic Union at Mahanoy City, said that Martin was the President, and Martin was the President. Mr. Martin declared that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

At a recent interview with the President, J. P. Curley, Commissioner of the Amateur Athletic Union at Mahanoy City, said that Martin was the President, and Martin was the President. Mr. Martin declared that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.

Martin declared that he had received a short cold wind for the President, the Mahanoy City, and that he had not received any money directly or indirectly from the race. The President stated that he had been a good cold wind for the President, and that he supposed it was this fact which caused the impression that he was not on the President. It was reported that Martin ran under the President's name. Martin was first, and that the President was followed by the President. He said that he had entered the President's name to be followed by the President, and supposed that the nature of the name had been heard.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1912.

NOTICES.

Pennsylvania Board.—Meeting to be held at 5:30 to 6:30 P.M., for the following purposes: The election of the President and the President-elect of the Junior Class; the election of the Executive Committee for the year 1913-1914; and the election of the Junior Class Prefects for the year 1913-1914.

RECORD COMPEITION.

Only four candidates responded to the call for Business Manager of the 1912 Record yesterday. It seems a pity that there should be no record competition for so important an office, especially in view of the competitive spirit that was set in motion in April by the Undergraduate Committee. The competition is decided upon work done, actual figures of work done being the basis of election. The Business Manager and Editor-in-Chief of the 1912 Record and the President-elect of the Junior Class decide the competition. It worked out to advantage last year, as may be witnessed by the size of the 1912 Record. Hence, the Business Manager of the 1912 Record received unsatisfactory results and cannot be expected to advantage the cause of the record annual.

Boys may enroll, but few have the necessary qualifications and hence the only big move this year seems to be the candidates. The position obtained is a unique position with other journalistic opportunities and is one of the few really big offices in the Senior Class. It is to be hoped that more men turn out immediately for the competition.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of The Pennsylvaniaian.
The major portion of the undergraduate section of the "convention-section" of the South Bend last Saturday, during the Pennsylvania vs. Pennsylvania game, did not have the following:

The third verse of the "Red and Blue," the difference between "Hall Pennsylvania" and "Alymar Hall," in fact, they did not know the words of either. This, without doubt, shows a complete lack of interest in the college song and it certainly behooves the Senior Class to get together and call every man out at least one night a week in the "Quad" or on the "Senior Fence" back of Hall Pennsylvania and make, in fact force, every man learn the above three songs word for word and also the "Alma Mater."
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1911.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN.

SHIRTS
FOR SNAPPY FALL DAYS

Bright soft flannels with turn back cuffs. Just right for style and comfort for club and college men.

$1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $2.75

REID AND FORT

1115 3/4 Market St. 1114 Chestnut St.

Now You Want to Even This Right

Ever a handsome man is safe in the men's Department store—so not a "skirt" ever enters it I'll tied with such shoes and such I talk all over, meanwhile being safe in this Men's Department of E.

STUDENTS LUNCH

110 So. 18th St. 1114 Chestnut St.

Now You Want to
For the man chasing the pall, uphill, down hill, in the sandy bunkers, Velvet is mild and smooth and pleasing. Velvet—selected leaf—two years in the warehouse undergoing a change which eliminates the harshness of the leaf. A mellowness rarely attained—a smoothness you should know all about.

No sir Impossible to bite or irritate—one smoke as cool and sweet as another—smoke it for 54 holes if you like—always agreeable.

As your dealer.

SPaulding & MERRICK Chicago

A 10c full 2 ounce tins

LUNCH

It certainly is a good place to eat

STUDENTS LUNCH

3190 WOODLAND AVENUE and 3713 SPRUCE STREET

(Stirr Prize St. Lunch open all night)

YOUR INSPECTION OF OUR SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF WOOLENS FOR FALL AND WINTER IS SOLICITED.

SAVIN & McKinley TAILORS

1220 WALNUT ST. PHILADELPHIA

Browns are the popular shades

For Fall. We have them.

LANDRIGANS

WHITE HOUSE CAFE

3657 WOODLAND AVENUE

Open day and night

Opposite Dorms.

AN ASSORTED LINE

Birthday Cards and Greeting Cards

ON VIEW AT

HOUSTON CLUB SUPPLY STORE

PUSH BALL FIGHT DRAWNS NEAR

Committees Elect Leaders for Annual Underclass Scrap to Be Held Next Week.

Plot and counterplot marked the meetings of the Freshman and Sophomore committees for the approaching Push Ball Fight. In construction of the rumor that the fight would not be held this year by the definite assurance of the Undergraduate Committee and the threat carried out by the D11 officials who consider any intimations that they cannot "come back" at 1913. The defeat of the Sophomores in the Punter and Door fights, added to their recent failures last Thursday when the Freshmen secretly tried to place their money at the 1914 class to a firm conviction that they must show the "Push" his place in this battle.

At the Sophomore meeting Pennington, Hill and Bloom were elected leaders. These men will direct the way in which the ball is to be pushed. As reasons depend largely on numbers, a complete list of second year men will be posted and checked off the day of the fight. This way the Sophomores have to redeem their poor showing at the last fight. No tricks have yet been performed, but the Sophomores have the advantage of last year's experience.

The Freshman meeting at Leb's Diner, and under the direction of H. Schumaker. The men spoke enthusiastically of their recent victories over their traditional enemies and are preparing a free campaign to bring out all Freshmen among the classes being发动机 for the Sophomore class. E. H. Counts, O. W. Walton and H. Shumaker were appointed leaders of the fight.

The Push Ball will be secured for the affair from State College. The date has not been definitely determined on as yet, but will be either Thursday, November 8, or Prider, November 15, at 11:30 P. M., on Franklin Field.

The rules governing last year's game will be used and are as follows:

1. Two halves of fifteen minutes each.
2. On making a goal the change of positions on the field.
3. The Cross-countryists not picked.
4. Fifteen men are preparing for a trip with Indiana Saturday.

The official list of names will be run in The Pennsylvanian on Saturday morning.

Although the time trials for the cross-country team were held yesterday, the makeup of the team that will compete with the Indians on the Fairmont Park course on Saturday is yet undecided. At least eight men will be entered, however, and probably twelve will run for Pennsylvania. The official list of names will be run in The Pennsylvaniaian on Saturday morning.

The race will be held over the double round course which is approximately six miles in length, the standard distance for cross-country running. Twelve men will be stationed at odd distances about the course as watchers and will keep tabs on the runners.

Fifteen men present are reporting regularly for the cross-country team and constitute the Varsity squad. There are besides these several more who have ability but are not able to run regularly. To date Captain Straight, Madeira, Church, Levering and McCook have been running the best and will form the nucleus of the team on Saturday.

SZE CHESS PRESIDENT.

Chinese Crick Succeeds Whitaker as Leader of Chessists.

Ralph Stein, C. E. '14, a Chinese student, has been elected president of the University Chess Club.

He has succeeded Norman Whi-\[...\]
NOTED JUDGE TO LECTURE

Martin A. Knapp Will Give Three Addresss Under Harrison Foundation.

A course of three lectures is to be given under the George Lehrl Harrison Foundation, on "The Regulation of Interstate Carriers," by Hon. Martin A.

Knapp, President, Justice of the United States Commerce Court, in Houston

Hall.

On Wednesday, November 15 at

1:30 P. M. Judge Knapp will discuss

"The Relations Between Interstate

Carriers and the Public." On Friday,

November 17, Judge Knapp will be the

"The Regulation of Interstate Carriers" as applied in the Relations Between Interstate Carriers and Their employees.

(1) Relations of Interstate Carriers with each other, (2) Location. Conservative Operation of Interstate Lines.

Monday, November 20, Judge Knapp will give his subject, "Problems of Regulation."

and these lectures, which are supported by ex-Provost Charles Curtis Harrison in memory of his father, and although primarily for students of the School are open to the University at large and to the public. No tickets of admission are required, but the doors will be closed promptly at the beginning of each lecture.

Judge A. Knapp, A. M., LL.D., is a graduate of Wesleyan University, and has had successively, corporation counsel for the City of New York, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission during President Cleveland's administration; Secretary Harrisons' administrations, being chairman of the Commission for twelve years prior to the creation of the Commerce court. He was appointed by President Taft as Commissioner.

Justice Knapp has had great influence in developing the administrative regulations of railroads and in shaping federal legislation concerning railways. As chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, his services received the approval both of the pubdic and of the carriers. A man of acknowledged judicial mind and power to understand and to work with an exemplary finish and efficiency; his lectures should make a real contribution to the discussion of the regulation of interstate carriers.

Special Five Weeks' Reading Excursion. "Chu-Chu the Elephant," a new free-set novel in Leisure and Literature, begins in this week's Saturday Evening Post. The story of a salesman who made strange and thrilling tour with his

"Chu-Chu The Elephant," a new free-

set novel in Leisure and Literature, begins in this week's Saturday Evening Post. The story of a salesman who made

strange and thrilling tour with his

"Chu-Chu The Elephant," a new free-

set novel in Leisure and Literature, begins in this week's Saturday Evening Post. The story of a salesman who made strange and thrilling tour with his