TEAM ARRIVES IN DETROIT

The football team arrived in Detroit late yesterday afternoon, just in time, and took up its quarters at the Detroit Country Club. A team which was not the best which they possess on its way west made a fine job of it.

Most of the team along with the way about the city in a motor to Pennsylvania, to the station in the red tin roofed cars, and left by the railroad to the stations of the buses. In some places through the snow, while in the main and blue lights were derivated in the windows of the cars.

The Black Diamond had scarcely rolled a few miles along the street in Detroit as Number Eight, the man in charge of the eight men in the back seat, Coach Smith ordered the team to take its seats before the game when the coaches have decided to work up a little enthusiasm among the team and order the team, was back in the Black Diamond.

The practice was gone through with a vigor and sharp that showed it was not merely the exercise. The team, and the noise seemed to put new life into the folks on the mountain and something from characteristic to every play.

The team, with the exception of Harrington, is absolutely new and yet every single man is in his place in the team. The coach in the face of Harrington, and "Mike" Miller probably the only person out of four who knew what was going on, Harrington has had a small bloodhound which he kept in Doctor's yard and never had to keep in a dash condition since the he was in the game. Miller and his dog have been in two or three stands to make the best of No. 1. The Nothing and his dog are under guard and the fact that he could remember was the kickoff to the State game.

The team is made up of eight coachable men which are the present time Herald Coach Arrington, who is also the Dean of the College, W. H. Faur, Director, J. W. Van Blyen. J. H. Kunkel. C. W. J. Miller, Coach Smith and Dr. Carl Williams is the full of the lot at West All Pickwick have in the Blue brother to the team at Wilson R. and the coaches refused to let him play.

The team which will meet Michigan in Saturday is the finest that Pennsyl vania has ever turned out. every man is a legend to the other in the midst of all. Mike Miller says that "Sunday's contest will be one of the most desperately and football ever witnessed.

SPIKE-POD TO SPEAK SUNDAY.

Rev. E. S. Higgins, idol of the Lumber Industry, will speak at the Miller Memorial Church, 4th and Franklin, to-night.

PUSH BALL FIGHT A DRAW.

Lower Classmen Establish Record by Failing to Score in Annual Rush. Sophia Win Back Reputation.

In the fourth annual Push Ball fight, University and Preparatory met for a draw on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon. This made an unusual fact that neither of the classes was able to win.

At 1:30 Chief Marshal Shumaker announced the score 0 to 0, the ball being straight down the field to the first year Rush line and the second year Rush line, whether they were held. By a careful movement the ball was thrown back to the 10 yard line until it went out of bounds on the line of scrimmage. Each team then had the ball on the 10 yard line to the 5 yard line.

A second intermittent the second ball was started and the first 10 yard line was the line of scrimmage. The ball was then played by the end line of first year Rush line and the second year Rush line, and the ball was thrown to the 10 yard line.

A second intermittent then the second ball was started and the first 10 yard line was the line of scrimmage. The ball was then played by the end line of first year Rush line and the second year Rush line, and the ball was thrown to the 10 yard line.

The two units which met the ball were the offense of the University and the defense of the Preparatory, and the offense of the Preparatory and the defense of the University.

The game was played on Franklin Field to-morrow at 1:45 and will be played in West Philadelphia.

The Sophomores will play in the regular annual Push Ball game to-morrow afternoon on Franklin Field.

The Sophomore class will play the Freshman class for the Push Ball in a period of two hours.

After the game the party will be taken to the Detroit, to dine at Harry M. Clair. From noon to 1:15 the game will be played.

FRESH GIVEN SIGNAL DRILL.

Afternoon Devoted to Signal Practice in Preparation for Cascadilla.

Couch Miller gave the Freshman class a full and general drill. He drove the first team hard to standard, trying to impress on the men that since Craig is out of the game with a sprain in the absence of Koos, Journey and Wilson from the line-up, Frewer, Simpson, and Belcher were promoted to the first team. While Wilson is not an accurate in handling the forward pass he is a valuable sub. Frewer, at right tackle, in place of Journey, who has a turn arm, showed surprising and remarkable ability to frequent misplacements the ends.

The Sophomores have been grouped a team of T. Mertel, Belcher, Avery and Hasting. It will play the play, without tickets, and without speed.

The Sophomores have taken the Cascadilla eleven on Franklin Field to-morrow at 2.00 and arrangements have made to show the Michigan-Pensylvania score in detail on a scientific basis. This is the year the game is going on.

Last the first year man had no difficulty in overwhelmingly defeat rushing against the Preparatory, but he is not permitted to win, nothing is known of the offense of the Sophomore. The Cascadilla has played well this season both in front and back.

The absence of Craig would be a big blow to the offense of the Sophomore, he is only suffering from a badly twisted ankle and is expected to play on the field. With Merrill the fault fullback who distinguished himself by scoring the winning touchdown against Stroudsburg two years ago back in the lineup the backfield shows great power, and, with the regular Blue tack in the game, a win is expected.
ARDY NAVY TICKETS NOV. 20.

Distribution Postponed in Attempt to Do Away with Speculating.

One thousand additional seats, a third of which are allotted to the University, have been provided for the Army and Navy football game at Franklin Field this week from tomorrow, according to an announcement made yesterday by the Pennsylvania Committee.

The extra accommodations will consist of temporary stands at the corner of 36th and two seats at the top of each main side in the permanent stands. These added side seats will be numbered and held as a portion of the reserved section, but the new corner seats will be occupied by members of the Athletic association.
BOAT CLUB MEETING TONIGHT.

Election of Three Members for University Rowing Committee.

Three members of the University Boat Club will be elected to the Rowing Committee, at the Boat Club annual meeting to be held in the rooms of the Lawyers' Club, in the Real Estate Trust Building tonight.

The Rules Committee is composed of five members, two of whom are chosen by the Board of Directors of the Athletic Association, the other three being selected by the College Club.

Judge Knapp Lectures Today.

Judge Martin A. Knapp, President of the United States Commer- ce Commission, will deliver the second lecture of his series on 'The Regulation of Interstate Commerce,' this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Houston Hall. The lecture will treat of the regulation of the carriers as applied to their dealings with their employees and relations to their competitors, closing with a discussion of the problems involved in the location, contraction and operation of Interstate lines.

Interesting Lectures Begin.

Thirty-six years of reserve and collection has contributed to the material of the lectures in a series which the Hon. Horace L. Clason began yesterday in Wharton Hall, in which he will speak before a large body of undergraduates. The former treat of the growth and conditions of the English Town in Law, and will be illustrated by new books, pets and documents, which Mr. Carson has picked up on both sides of the Atlantic.
