ARMY-NAVY BOXES ALLOTTED

Thirty-eight Successful Applicants. Penn's Smith and Gov. Tom Will Occupy Same Box.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania Committee of the Army and Navy last Monday afternoon, the Pennsylvania allotment of boxes for the two games this season on Franklin Field was made. There were sixty-six subscriptions received. Because of this oversubscription, eight applicants had to be disappointed, and six were able to take boxes in the Grammar Hall boxes because of the limited number of boxes available on the North and South stands. All those who went in this subscription did so with the understanding that the location of the boxes would be determined by lot. Each box was bid for $1.25, and the proceeds will be given to the societies that take care of the widows and orphans of men who died in the two services. The Army and Navy box holders, of whom there will be six, will be announced within a few days. The list follows:

College Boat Club Elects Officers and Members—Rates Date for Stockton Navy.

The College Boat Club of the University held its annual meeting last night at the Lawyers Club in the Real Estate Trust Building, conducted routine business, talked over the coming season and elected officers for the ensuing year.

The new officers, for all of whom the secretaries cast an unanimous vote, were: President, Thomas Hunter; 81 College, secretary-treasurer, R. Franklin Wood; 90 College; delegate to the Schuylkill Naval Board, John W. Townsend; Jr., '91 College, and the Charles R. Petri, '92 College.

Patrons: Boating Committee—R. H. Shonemaker; '12 College; John Alexander, '12 college, and John R. Townsend, Jr., '91 College. The other two members of the Rowing Committee, to take the full quota of six, will be elected by the Athletic Association at the final vote the year after the old members, Thomas Booth, '91 College, and William T. Fairless, '91 College, present the chairman, will hold office.

The College Boat Club comprises members and associates of all Varsity eight and four-oared crews which have ever competed in intercollegiate regattas, and their managers. Therefore, the following men, who were members of the eight or four for the first time last year, were elected to membership: Ernest Stiefel and Thomas Cartier as members of the eight and C. C. Mathewson, R. E. Lippman and Frank Mallof as members of the four. A list of all those who have ever rowed on Pennsylvania Varsity crews and who for one reason or another had not heretofore been enrolled as members was compiled by a committee appointed at the last meeting, and last night those Navy or faculty men were formally elected life members.

It was announced that a race would be held with Annapolis on Saturday, May 1, and that associations of other races, apart from the great intercollegiate regatta to be held with Annapolis in June, were under way. The Navy race will be for a distance of two miles for the Varsity eight and a mile and a half for the Presbyst. Last year's events were attended by all during the day the Academic members. The race was won by the Varsity event, and a west two men in the closest race ever run on the Schuylkill.

SPECIAL OFF FOR MICHIGAN

Commemorative Train Train tonearest
Capacity by Limited Arrivals.

With more than the required number of reservations on board, the Pennsylvania, scheduled out of West Philadelphia Station promptly at 1:48, sold out. An extra train was added, and over a hundred of these buses were. When the train arrived at the Pennsylvania station, there were no extra buses left, Scour players, band men and other students who will cheer Pennsylvania at the An Arbor meet.

A number of the passengers de- clined to go at the last moment, and while those not too much more than their usual number, gave them a running order of numbers two and three, 11th Avenue at Fifth Street. At this moment the train was standing on the track.

While the fortunate hundred were embarking on the special, a party of their various friends gave them a running send-off patterned after the Reading Terminal demonstration of last Wednesday. The subscribers found the amusements for the trip satisfactory in every particular.

Engineers Elect Executive Board.

At the meeting of the Whittier En- gineering Society last night the fol- lowing officers were elected to serve on the Executive Board: 1912, Tyrrell and Moody; 1913, Mood and Wilson; 1914, Overhacker and Roberts or Mun- son; 1915, Patterson and Kitterman. There was a vote between Roberts and Munson, which will be decided next week.

The guests present were, for the most part, students and members of the engineering faculty. The meeting was conducted in a most friendly manner.
