CROSS-COUNTRY MEN CHOSEN

The members of the Varsity eleven were picked out through three free- scrimmage since the Michigan game, and now the personnel of the regular eleven was somewhat changed. Several of the Varsity members, including Moore, would not be entered in the tournament, and several others have been substituted in their place. Crawford and Toombs have left the varsity and will be replaced by freshman newcomers. Crawford was given the place of center at West Point, and Toombs has been called to the army. Several of the other men have left the team, and several others have been added, in order to give the team a larger number of eligible players. The coach is expecting several new men to turn out, and is in the process of selecting the members of the team. The coach is confident of the team's success, and is looking forward with pleasure to the game against the Navy. The game is set for next week, and the coach is hoping to have a large number of fans turn out to see the game. The team is in very good condition, and is looking forward to a successful season.

STIFF WORK FOR SOCCER MEN.

First Team Defeats Second—No Game with Princeton Saturday.

A fast, stiff practice was held yesterday afternoon between the first and second soccer teams. In the absence of Coach Muir, acting Capt. Rodman directed the work.

Jones and McPhie each scored a goal for the first team. Although their shots were from difficult angles, they were long and straight, with lots of force behind them.

The forward line on the first team, consisting of Jones, Hathert, McPhie, McPadden, and O’Reilly, worked especially well on keeping the ball moving.

The second team’s forward line was rather weak, as some of the regular men were out and it had no chance to score.

A game will be played with Princeton on Saturday, but on that Tuesday the first and second teams will play a regular match on the Museum Field.

All candidates are ordered to report in suits bade at 6 o’clock.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN.
OUR STRENGTH INHERITED

America's Pre-eminence Comes from Ideals of Our Ancestors. Says Dean Hunt of State College.

"America's great inheritance is not her natural resources," said Dean Thomas F. Hunt, of the State College of Agriculture, last night, in Houston Hall, "but the tradition and ideas of the early forefathers. The United States is not to be considered as a nation of great farms, department stores, railways and mines, but as a new civilization."

Dean Hunt's address was made before the Philadelphia Society for the Promotion of Agriculture, and he explained that the Country Life Commission appointed three years ago by President Roosevelt aims to accomplish this movement," he said, "is, like any other, liable to slip over. Indeed, I do not know of any movement which has so many pinholes around it. The purpose is not to turn people back from the farm, but to keep farm country boys and girls at home, and not to increase the financial standard of the farmers, but to increase the educational standards."

The farmers that operate in the rural districts are the church, the schools and the country hall. What we aim to do is to secure the cooperation of the latter and to unite it in what I call "villages," a "Community Committee of Rural Purposes." We do not part with farm material and financial prosperity, for the fundamental things are not involved in the price of wheat. It is not a present lack of money, but an absolute lack of life. Life does not consist primarily of picnics and bathrooms with nickel trimmings, but the introduction of these institutions raises social standards. Clean minds and healthy bodies come from these things. Physical cleanliness and health our country depends."
