noon—Both Confident.

PRESIDENT TAFT TO ATTEND

The Army-Navy football game Saturday afternoon will draw thousands of students from historic Franklin Field and Annapolis.

The teams arrive today and will take up their quarters in the city,

West Point at the Beekman-Stratford and Annapolis at the Walton.

At

the hotels are filling with party and social gatherings. A number of old veterans, retired, but with the same enthusiasm that the cadets show, are younger than the least ancient graduates, watching their classmates invade their teams.

When Harry W. Snow, Lieutenant in the city, plans to be in on the Army side in the big football game tonight.

Colonel George Van L. Meyer on the opposite side of the field with cadets enforce all rules; but some may be slightly be hind them.

Our College Box at Franklin Field will be a bus on the Army side in the big football game tonight.

The squad will arrive at Ithaca In the name of yesterday's scrimmage,

MINOR AND MAJOR WINS.

The squad will arrive at Ithaca In time for supper and will sail therein 15-20 o'clock Saturday night, arriving in Philadelphia early Sunday.

Light practice was given the squad

Saturday morning and the men are in good shape. Cadre, who twisted his right ankle of a week, will be in the lineup and should prove a power of strengtn for the first year men.

GREEKS DANCE TO NIGHT.

Restriction Privileges for a Unique Performance at La Lu Temple.

Mlle. E. L. Victoria and her company of Greek swivels will appear In La Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, tonight, for the first time.

The original orchestra and dancers are the same as for the first time.

The Psyche and the maskers will be in good shape. Cadre, who twisted his ankle of a week, will be in the lineup and should prove a power of strength for the first year men.

downs and Ten Points, While Opponents Cannot Gain

MERCER AND JOURDET STAR.

Great satisfaction was manifested when the white team coach at the conclusion of yesterday's scrimmage, which was carried out in a brilliant style on both offensie and defensive, remarking that he felt the team had played as well as ever.

Reducing the number of points from two to one for spectators, he also mentioned that an All-American team with their tactics would be carried out in a brilliant style on both offensie and defensive, remarking that he felt the team had played as well as ever.
