FRESH PRESIDENT DISAPPEARS
Mystery Surrounds Walton's Where-abouts—Fresh Clue Is Given at Home and Family Denies It.

Great mysteries surround the whereabouts of the Freshman president, C. A. Walton. Several days ago he was operated on at his home in St. Louis for a wound gained on his leg. The operation was successful and he was soon up and about. Since then he has disappeared. His family say that for the past two days he has not been at home and that they are ignorant of his whereabouts. Freshmen on the campus are anxious to impress all upperclassmen with the fact that he is sick at home. The two statements conflict and it rather looks as if Walton were being kept in hiding until the day of the Bowl Fight.

The Sophomores have learned of these facts and are at present busy in fabricating how they can bolster a missing Freshman president. The officers of the lower class seem positive that Walton will be on hand the day of the fight, but they are suspiciously evasion when it comes to as to where he is at the present time.

Crowd has been a president of the Soph- more Class is being closely guarded and as yet has been unaccounted for by Freshmen. Sophomores are not worry- ing about the matter of leadership, but are, nevertheless, taking all proper precautions. After the Freshman Class meeting, held yesterday noon, President Reath of the Sophomore Class, explained the rules of the fight, and Butler, the chairman of the Bowl Committee, in- structed them in their tactics. The Sophomore Class is having a meeting this noon, at which they plan for defense. Walton will be explained.

Interests is manifested in attending this game in the annual contest, as the Sophomores are anxious to win all slugs on their prowess that were made after their defeat earlier in the season. They are accordingly making every effort to get out a repre- sentative team at the fight.

JUNIOR CHEMICALS WIN GAME.
Defeated Freshman C. E. Eleven on Franklin Field, 32 to 0.

The Junior Chemical Engineering football team defeated the Freshman eleven of that department on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon by a score of 32 to 0. The game is a part of their departmental championship. Page fin- ished up the big game with a touchdown punt and gave a clean exhibition of tackle work. The Junior team is the best that Freshmen and Seniors can bring out. Junior C. E. R. Otten, left end; O. Nett, left tackle; Beckwith, center; M. F. Jones, right end; Walker, right guard; Wilson, tight tackle; Moore, right guard; McCallister, left halfback; Bell, fullback; Denton, fullback; and Cass, quarter- back at the close of the game.

Practice for tomorrow is to have a meeting at 5:00 p.m. The line-up follows: Halfback: Denton, right halfback; Harris, right halfback; Zell, fullback.

CIVIC CLUB HEARS TALKS.
Director of Public Safety and Faculty Members at Meeting Last Night.

Mr. George D. Porter, Director of Public Safety, was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Civic Club in 22 Wilson Dorm last night, when he addressed the organization on the problems of the Department of Public Safety. He also dealt with the progress of reform in the past fifteen years and the host of interesting political anecdotes. S. J. Goughner, ’14, analyzed the recent election returns and surveyed the present political situations.

Those present beside the club members were Mr. E. G. Goughner, of the Committee of Seventy; Dr. Linhag- burg, of the History Department, and Dr. Carl Keeler and E. C. Rosewell, of the Wharton School.

Announcement was made that new members may be admitted upon writ- ten application and election to the club, and that the next meeting, on January 3, will deal with “Housing Conditions in Philadelphia.”

UNIVERSITY RECEIVES FLAGS.
Like Britiches, Argentine Students Will Give Emblem to University.

Following the preceding set by the Pennsylvania Students’ Association, the asso- ciation of students in the Evening School of American and Finance last Saturday presented the University with a flag. The presentation took place in the President’s office and the flag was presented in the name of the University toProvost Smith.

One, of 12 velvets, in Houn- ton Hall, the Association of Argon- tine Students will present the Univer- sity with their national flag, and the Argentine Republic will place a tab- let in the Houston Club in commemo- ration of the one hundred and first anniversary of the May Revolution, the Argentine War of Independence. Dr. Humberto Naran, the Argentine Min- ister will make the presentations in behalf of the Argentine Republic and Provost Smith will accept the tokens.

Long Islanders Organize.
Another club was organized in the Univer- sity was formed last night when stu- dents from Long Island formed “The Brooklyn and Long Island Clubs.” A permanent organization was arranged while a constitution was being drawn up, and the following officers were elected: President, W. C. Bauer, vice-president, G. A. Sartor; secretary-treasurer, H. C. Bickle.

Fresh Preparing for Pennington.
All of the fourteen Freshman bas- ketball candidates who survived the final cut were on the floor last night for practice, which consisted mainly of shooting baskets, with a short final scrimmage Friday’s game with Brown Prep over Class B, which Bickers chose a first to line up on his men.

Everything a good student needs at Brown is readily within the Center gift to delicious after a meal. -Advt.
