Green and Greenwright's 'Odebanz' at the Pennsylvania Academy of Music, was well received by the public and the critics.

"The first novelty to be presented this year by the Odebanz Society, is the "Symphony in C Minor," by Beethoven. The music is well arranged, the harmony is rich, and the melody is pleasing. The orchestra is well disciplined and the performance is excellent.

HONORED CUSTOM.
No Pennsylvania customs are as old, as honored or as well known to the public as the historic Bowl Fight which takes place again this afternoon for the forty-second time. This fight is an institution which has stood the test of time and which still bears traces of the original scrap of map, 200 yards by 50 yards, on which these two teams proceeded to pit them. Thousands of Pennsylvania students have participated in this scrap in its varied forms since that time, and each year the rivalry becomes more intense.

A man who loves the University without having taken part is at least one of these affairs has missed the spirit of the student life and, indeed, his name will be of little or no representation at the Pennsylvania graduation.

The Bowl Fight is such a well established custom that it would be difficult to find on an underclassman who has never considered the meeting the fight. It is the last opportunity of the fall year that the entire Sophomore and Freshman classes have of "dashing it out," and, especially, it is a rare mental freedom, as honors in class are about equally divided. Hence the winners of today's battle can lay undisputed claim to the 1911-1912 football championship.

Faculty, undergraduates, the public and the press will be on the scene. In great numbers, fully expecting to witness a well-organized and bitterly contested fight. Let not a Sophomore or Freshman do himself or his class the injustice of not being on Franklin Field in fighting thus afternoon when hostile crowds are at the blow of the chief marshal's whistle.

Dr. Johnson in Chicago. Professor Elmo Johnson, of the School of Medicine, will be in Chicago today for a course of lectures at the University of Chicago. He will deliver an address at the closing session of the Congress of the National Board of Obitons of America. He will speak on the "Mercantile Marine Policy of the United States."

PRELIM. SHOW OPENS MONDAY

Character Parts of "A Modern Cinderella" Offer Big Opportunity to Footlight Aspirants.

The first performance of "A Modern Cinderella," this year's Prelim. Show, will be given by the Students of the School of the Arts on Monday evening at the Mask and Wig Club House, 3117 Spruce St.

The libretto of "A Modern Cinderella," written by E. H. Rogers, 12 L., and the musical numbers, of which there are seven, have been taken from the song hits of popular musical comedies.

As a training in the requirements for the regular Mask and Wig productions this Prelim. Show should produce good results.

The comic part of Crazy Louis gives splendid opportunities for good "business." Both the male and female parts have shown ability in implementing the difficult part of the escaped button.

"Louis" is continually in the foreground with his escapades, and in these the interest of the audience will be centered. Hildreth and Merrell as Wadgers of the action from which "Louis" has escaped, are bound to score with their ridiculous dialogue.

The part of "Diving Renardlet," the untamed, whose costume is stolen by "Louis," in order that he may assume it for a Prince, also offers many possibilities. Delver and Norton will take this part in their respective costumes.

In addition, the former will give impersonations of E. H. Booth, David Warden and Anna Held, and this promises to be one of the features of the show.

Under the direction of E. H. Rogers and J. H. Coburn, assistant stage managers, the casts and chorus are beginning to round into shape, and though Director Morgan has been planning the dances and coaching the men during the past week, the beating of the work has fallen to the assistants. As in former years, no seats for the Prelim. Show will be put on sale, but each member of the casts and chorus will receive a certain number of complimentary tickets. Cast A will perform Monday and Tuesday, Cast B, Wednesday and Thursday, and Saturday evening, "Club Night," the picked cast will perform.

OCCUPATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHEMISTS.

Civil Service Examination for Assistant Chemist.

The Pennsylvania is in receipt of an announcement from the United States Civil Service Commission calling attention to an examination to be held January 21st. The examination offers several vacancies in the position of assistant chemist, Department of Agriculture, and elsewhere as needed at salaries ranging from $400 to $500 per annum.

Applications for appointment from this examination seem to be increasing, since of thirty-eight persons who passed this examination in April, thirty were appointed at $400 per annum and seven were selected for appointment at $725 per annum. Full information as to educational training required, nature of duties, etc., may be obtained from the United States Civil Service Commissions, Washington, D.C., by asking for a copy of the assistant chemist announcement.

EXTRA PRIVILEGE GRANTED.

Reduction Cards Will Be Given for Performance of Russian Ballet.

As an extra privilege to subscribors to The Pennsylvaniaian, the management of the Philadelphia Opera House has granted reduction rates for the Russian Ballet, which appears on Friday and Saturday nights of this week. Although Anna Pavlova is no longer a member of the corps, Murray, Solons and Vollinette have proved that they keep up the standard set by the former star.

On Friday, the dance to be produced will be "Copulea," and on Saturday night all the principals of the ballet will appear in "Le Lac de Ceyx," with a new and popular dance, and brings out unusually well the gracefulness and ability of the principals and the remainder of the company.
