School the enviable reputation it now enjoys.

In order that the proposed Arts Association may reach the same high level of excellent organization, it is necessary that the movement be supported by every Arts Senior this room. If the meeting accomplishes its purpose, there is little doubt but that the three lower classes will quickly and most gladly fall in line to support the new-born ambitious organization with their best efforts.

Mr. McCallum Miars.

On Christmas Day, 1913, the Class of 1916, of which Mr. Miars was a member, offered in the name of the class and the fraternity a remembrance to the memory of Henry McCallum Miars, of Philadelphia, who was a student in the respect and affection of every member of his class, and the fraternity.

Resolved, That this formal expression be made of its deep regret at the most unhappy and entirely death, and that the resolution be communicated to his family and published in The Pennsylvania.

W. A. WIEDERBURGH, M'21.

NEWS OF OTHER COLLEGES.

The Student's Council at the University of Washington has voted unanimously in favor of the graduate-coaching average.

At the University of Washington a new push ball has been purchased for the annual Freshman-Sophomore contest.

The Freshmen at Case are not allowed to wear any "C" button or pin until they have passed their first mid-year examination.

Three unique prizes are offered this year at the end of the month, to be given to the students who, during the academic year, have developed most spiritually.

No student is eligible who does not attain an average of 95 per cent in his grades. All candidates are measured in the early part of the year, and then are allowed to choose in any way they choose.

In May another measurement is taken, and the students showing the greatest gains will be awarded the prizes.

Everything a good student needs at Boston's. A famous Cortex cigar is delicious after a meal. [Advert]

In order to satisfy the activities this Arts Association would pursue; its chief object would be to bind Arts men more closely together and in every way possible to further the interest of the department, here at the University and abroad. A smoking room, an honor system committee, a schools committee, and an entertainment of some sort, possibly a play, are all logical developments of its establishment.

The feeling of congeniality and good fellowship existing among the students of the Wharton School, and, sadly, almost entirely lacking in Arts, was in large measure attributed to the existence of the Wharton Association, which has always stood for the best in student life and has been largely instrumental in giving the Wharton...
CAMP'S FOOTBALL CELEBRITIES

John C. Bell, George Woodruff and Truxton Hare Among the Famous Gridiron Twenty.

Walter Camp, advisory coach of Yale, has recently picked twenty football celebrities whose names have been inscribed in the great epochs of the history of football. Of these men, three are alumni of Pennsylvania, John C. Bell, a former star. Mr. Camp has selected as an eminence in the framing of many of the rules of the game. George Woodruff, one of the most brilliant players of his time, is spoken of as a "Coaching Missionary," while Truxton Hare, a great Pennsylvanian captain and now a well-known writer, is mentioned as figuring in "changing the conditions of the time." Mr. Camp says, "captain and guard whose brilliancy of individual performance and natural leadership made him the next man in the sport which calls out those qualities in the sternest degree." Mr. Camp's twenty men, as selected and classified, are as follows:

Williams of Harvard and Baker of Yale—Placers in the game.

Cyclist of Princeton and Pierce of West Point—Legislative matters.

Details of Cornell, Hall of Dartmouth, Blackwell of Amazons and Bell of Pennsylvania—Officers and rule-makers.

Report of Waterford—Originator of Board of Officials.

Dudley of Minnesota—Developer in the South.

O'Dea of Wisconsin, Rehearsal of Chicago and Daly of Harvard and West Point—Developers in individual departments.

Cowper of Harvard and Hare of Pennsylvania—Captains altering conditions.

During his career as athletic trainer Moran has developed almost every athlete of note who has ever trod a cinder track, with the possible exception of Holllister of Harvard, and if he be above all others, who has served to bring American track athletics on a par if not above those of England.

Not only as an athletic director are the "Red and Blue" and to her we the "Blue Mouse"—none compare with the "Blue Danube," the "Blue Mouse" and grays.
