The Combined Pennsylvania Musical Clubs will give a program in the Cornell concert tonight at the Philadelphia Orchestra, held in the Philadelphia Auditorium. The concert, under the direction of the Senior Concert Committee, will be given on the 12th. The Concert will feature the works of Allegretto and Boccherini from the String Quartet No. 7, in A Major, and the well-known and popular Symphony No. 7, in A Major, by Beethoven.

The "Pearl of Virtue," by Edward Greig, is too well known to need

One of the new books of the coming month will be "The History of English Literature," by the Hon. Hamilton I. C. Corwin, a volume that will be of the greatest interest to all who are acquainted with the progress of the English language. Mr. Corwin is one of the best minds in the English language, and his work is a real contribution to the history of English literature. The book is a comprehensive and accurate account of the development of the English language, and it is written in a style that is both interesting and instructive. It is a book that will be of great value to all who are interested in the history of English literature.

The book is divided into four parts. The first part is devoted to the history of the English language up to the time of the Norman Conquest. The second part is devoted to the history of the English language from the Norman Conquest to the time of the English Revolution. The third part is devoted to the history of the English language from the English Revolution to the present day. The fourth part is devoted to the history of the English language from the present day to the future.

The book is written in a clear and concise style, and it is easy to read. It is a book that will be of great value to all who are interested in the history of English literature. It is a book that will be of great value to all who are interested in the history of English literature.

CRUCIAL GAME SATURDAY

Result of Yale Basketball Game Will Have Bearing on Championship

Either Yale or Pennsylvania will break into the win column Saturday night in the Intercollegiate League game at Wrightman Hall. Both teams are tied, and, in Pennsylvania's last victory over the Yale Red and Blue, the Blue's most valuable men will be disqualified and Yale will score heavily on the free throws.

The cause of Yale's poor form so far is attributed to the fact that they have no schedule except the league games. Yale's lineup will contain a few California and New Mexico, football stars, both of whom are capable of better form than they showed in the Dartmouth game. The other members of the team are new, but they seem more built to order now, but the new men in the line are expected to make the big difference for they will keep Yale from scoring heavily on the free throws.

The game will be one of the closest of the season and will tax the capacity of the gymnasium.

WRESTLING STARS RETURN.

Pike and Dean, Who Have Been Out for Two Years, Again on Mat.

Two former wrestling stars, Pike and Hutton, made their appearances at the mats this season for the first time in two years. This combination, with Captain Noller, who will soon be back in competition, gives a very bright outlook for the coming season.

Pike played for two seasons at guard on the Varsity football team, two years ago, and he is the best wrestler the Intercollegiates have produced. Pike is known to all as a hard worker, a blue-biller, and a man who can stand the strain of football and wrestling.

When Pike returns to the line he will again be a changed man. He is expected to do exceedingly well, and will make a good contribution to the team.
