When the curtain rises on the stage of the Cercle Francais, Tuesday, February 10, at 8 o'clock, the audience will be greeted by two modern French comedies. The first will be "Le Petit Maitre," a play of two scenes, which has been very successful in Paris, and the second will be "Le Commissaire," a farcical scene which has been very popular in France.

OLD GAME LARGELY RESTORED

"Football will be of greater interest this year because there will be more satisfactory to the players as a result of the changes that have been made in the rules," said Dr. N. C. Graf, an expert on football at the Cercle Francais.

Competition for Mask and Wig Party Kesner Than Ever This Year.

Trials for the cast of "Miss Helen of Troy" will be held this evening at 3 o'clock, in the club house, 219 College street. This will be the first rehearsal of men trying for parts, and over twenty are to report. The following men were given books last Friday at a preliminary meeting of the candidates, and will report this evening: McFadden, Lynch, Towne, Soper, McMichael, Sheller, Hogan, Burt, Shearer, Hall, Bonner, Bartlett, Beach, Parker, Toomey, Kent, Schley, Stovin, Vasta and Biddle.

"Miss Helen of Troy" will have a comparatively small cast and chorus, the inner composed of ten characters and the latter of only twenty-two. This will be the smallest company that has presented a Mask and Wig show for many years. The object in reducing the number of men is to make competition more keen and thus put on a better play than ever before.

Baron T. Seals, director of the Glee Club, will train and pick the cast. The show is in a body of twenty-four men, the best singers in the club, and has made a hit every year since it first started. Trials will be held this afternoon at the club house at 4 o'clock. As the men in the glee club must be able songsters, on stage with glee club or other choral work need apply. The non-singer is waking this year to give the chorus more stage work than heretofore, and this with the restriction in size of the dancing chorus, will make competition for every part in this show, which is what is desired.

Of the men who have been chosen are the French, McFadden, McMichael, Sheller and Towne, and all men with experience in former Mask and Wig productions. "Harmonia, Hispania, Kem- dahl, McCall, Mathews, Quinn, Stevens, King, Wolf, some of the best vocalists in the Glee Club, and the chorus have had some experience. The following candidates have either been in either a former Preliminary Show or have shown themselves fairly good at some other sort of thing.

The result of the cut at the chorus rehearsal last Friday afternoon will be the henceforward's year. The next chorus rehearsal will be held Monday evening at 3 o'clock.

MANY OUT FOR BASE BALL.
First Official Call of Season Brings Out Many Aspirants.

Coach Thomas was much pleased with the large turnout that responded humbly afterwards to the first official call for base ball conditions. He is looking for a still larger number to come out during the week. The practice for some time will be indoors, but Thomas expects in this interval to round the players into shape so that they will be ready to take advantage of the regular fall practice when warmer weather and good ground conditions permit.

The workouts for the next two weeks will consist of batting, then driving the batting a chance to round into form, as well as putting a line on the batting.

About twenty-five candidates reported yesterday, among them being the following:
Fitzhugh—Baldwin
Heckman—Armstrong, Bridge
Jones and Styer.
Cox—Perry, Smythe, Schott and Gordon.
Nolde—Gay, Schmitt, McCullough, Ki-mony, Reilly and Pomeroy.
Oxford—Captains Bay Smith, Hine, Cor-well, Waltermale, Berge, Landshoff and Warrington.

With the indoor season over, Coach Thomas can now start to nurse out in earnest and weed out the poor material.

The Whitney Engineering Society will hold its annual dance on Friday evening, February 9, at 8 o'clock, in the very popular affair, and this year the committee hopes to make it a greater success than ever.

Arrangements have already been made for several attractive novelties in decorations, and everything possible is being done to assure greater entertainment of the students of other

"Mlle. to Be Buried Privately

Students Will Act as Pall-Bearers at Interment at St. Denis' Cemetery.

Michael Kerrish, the old dormitory warden, who died on Sunday, will be buried privately either tonight or Thursday, in St. Denis' Cemeries.

The arrangements for the fu-eral are in the hands of Frank Karrasch, his son.

A movement is on foot to have six student actors act as pall-bearers at the burial of the caretaker.

D. B. Tamon, of the Chilled Department, after consulting with Professor Smith, has taken charge of arranging this movement. A bit will be put up in the quarterly paper to notify members of the class of the arrangements toward a financial effort to be sent to the funeral to show the affection and remembrance of the students in whom "Mike" was a well-known friend and helper.

"Mike" was 67 years old and has aged twenty-five of these as an employee of the University. Not only was he a familiar figure to all dormitory residents, but to many others out of college as well.

Although he died on the way to the hospital and in this respect his death was sudden, still he had been sick for over a week and very ill in health for some time previous.

Hitting the Dirt requires the quick brain, the keen eye and the clear judgment which can only come from a healthy body and steady nerves. The fellow who "beats out" infielld hits and "stretches" singles into two baggers is the man whose body, brain and nervous system are properly nourished.

Shredded Wheat
