Pennsylvania will meet Yale in new hall.

Philadelphia, Saturday, February 17, 1912

Price: Three Cents

Two important athletic events in which Pennsylvania will take part will take place tonight. The Pennsylvania team will play Yale in football tonight, and the Intercollegiate women's relay team will go to Baltimore tomorrow.

The Intercollegiate women's relay team will go to Baltimore tomorrow to meet the Cornell team. The team will consist of twenty-five members, who will be selected from the best runners in the United States. The relay will be run over a distance of four miles, and the team will be divided into five members, each running a distance of one mile. The team will be accompanied by a large contingent of supporters, who will cheer them on as they go.

The football game with Yale will be played at the stadium at 7:30 p.m. The game will be played under the rules of the National Football Association, and the winner will be declared the champion of the East. The game will be played on a grass field, and the audience will be seated in the stands.

The Intercollegiate women's relay team will leave for Baltimore at 6:30 a.m. on Saturday. They will arrive at 9:00 a.m. and will have breakfast at 10:00 a.m. The race will be run at 1:00 p.m. The team will be accompanied by a large contingent of supporters, who will cheer them on as they go.

COLLEGE PREACHER TO SPEAK

Rev. G. G. Atkins, Well-Known at Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams, Wellesley and Yale at Sunday Service.

The Rev. G. Glenn Atkins, D.D., of Providence, R. I., will be the speaker at the Sunday services on 12 inches or more window morning in Hooson Hall.
Rev. Atkins, since 1905, has been the college preacher at Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams, Wellesley and Yale, and is thoroughly acquainted with the problems and daily life of the college. What he has to say to us will be of vital importance to the students of Pennsylvania.

He was born at Mt. Carmel, Indiana, in 1851, and was prepared for a career of education. He attended Ohio State University, from which institution he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts.
Later he studied at the City University Law School, where he received the degree of LL.B. in 1881.

Drs. Atkins stands among the highest figures in his profession, and he is one of the foremost leaders in religious circles in this country.

CHESS MATCH WITH YALE.

University Team Will Play New Haven
Men at Brooklyn Today.

At the Brooklyn Chess Club today, the Pennsylvania chessmen will meet the Yale players in a fresh board match. Two sets will be played, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.
Pennsylvania defeated Yale last season in a similar match by the score of 3 points to 2.

The University team will be composed of Captain Teltelbaum, who played for Catholic High last year, Goldblatt, and McCutcheon. He played brilliant chess in the Triangle League tournament against Cov-nett and Brown several weeks ago.
Every man of the Yale team is a student of the three universities.

The match with Franklin and Marshall call be scheduled next month.

The Pennsylvania will be on hand for the Winter League tournament between Cornell, Pennsylvania and Brown commercial, but a committee was formed to keep them in line for ad-

Hitting the Dirt

requires the quick brain, the keen eye and the clear judgment which can only come of a healthy body and steady nerves. The fellow who "beats out" infidel hits and "stretches" singles into two baggers is the man whose body, brain and nervous system are properly nourished.

Shredded Wheat

is all-around food for the all-around athlete because it contains the food elements which build up the entire body.

Served with fresh fruits or simply with milk and cream, SHREDDED WHEAT is unequaled for quick nourishment, deliciousness and digestibility. It is the perfectly balanced food for student and athlete alike.
