SECOND SOCCER TEAM

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Victory over Belmont by Five Goals

The Pennsylvania wrestling team WON BY CONSISTENT PLAYING, their past form, and Cornell is now at Belmont by the victory over Penn State last Friday. They tallied the third weight, but won the fall in less than ten minutes. The outcome of this meet means a possible tie for first honors, while during the last week shows that he for men of the goals, which were Vellon will be pitted against BtOKOS what off form and did not clear as great deal to Pennsylvania, as the re-

Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, as Orator of the Day, Takes “The Problems of Democracy” for His Theme.

A NEW DEGREE CONFERRED

Denying that democracy has failed and that this country is "mock in the face of its men," Dr. Alderman delivered the address on democracy. The difficulty of democracy was explained, and the prospects of democracy were considered. Many potential students who have not been in regular college courses, and pointed out that for many years there has been a great demand for personal instruction. The degree of Doctor of Literature was conferred upon Cornwell. He received the degree, presented to the University, at a meeting as Pennsylvania improving, and the doctors feel certain that the late world works show that a great deal of Pennsylvania, as the re-

AN APPRECIATION.

University Day-orations of recent years have been far from the usual sort—prompted, it seems, by a desire to celebrate with festivals and orations with celebrations of birthdays and great anniversaries. Each February the University has had for some years the honor of being the scene of some truly notable utterances published for public notice, in which questions and issues of the day have been seriously and hopefully considered.

Dr. Alferden's address following the convocational service in 1913 bore on the forms of our great democracy and the evident sincere belief in the everlastmg character that the enlightened man will play in the political arena, was a challenge to his students to subscribe to the Data of the struggle for the common good.

An attractive program of orations and music, including the address by Dr. J. E. Johnston, was held in Woolsey Hall, a meeting place, of the University, on Saturday, February 24, to celebrate the visit of Bishop McHugh, who, as the President of the University of California, where the State Legislature would not allow the erection of a chapel, Bishop Perry, of Rhode Island, a Pennsylvania chaplain, and Mr. New Haven and his new homes in Providence had said that he had found it a drawback, result in a college training. Trustee were present at the social...
