No. Five Takes Fast Game from Cornell

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 17—(Special)

Cornell's basketball team defeated
Ohio State 16 to 13 yesterday.

The Buckeyes were fast and well to the play of the game, but

Red and Blue have inaugurated a new policy during the present U.C.L.A. conference. Each of the programs is eligible to positions in both branches.

The decision made by the Executive Board and business department will be made in this year by a majority of the members, to be filled by new men.

There is no room for the takeover of the managerial department, and a new manager will be appointed.

The move to New Haven has improved the attendance of the games, and will continue to be in the future.

The Man Who Makes the Team is the man who has stamina, the fellow who comes back strong after a grueling period of toil, a fellow who makes the fighting in front of his opponent’s goal.

Shredded Wheat

gives stamina to the athlete, and to the student, because whole wheat contains every element needed to build brain, muscles and bone.

There is no food which meets all requirements of the body as well as whole wheat of which Shredded Wheat is the most palatable and digestible form.

ALUMNI EDIT CHINESE PAPER.

Chinon Young, '11, and Y. H. Yang, '10, at Head of Shanghai Daily.

Poor Pennsylvania alumni are men- tioned in the latest, "Great Republic of China," in a letter re- ceived yesterday by Dr. Harry H. Johnston, from Chinon Young, '11, Wu Young, '11, and Y. H. Yang, '10, two of the three editors. The Chinese paper, which they founded about two months ago, at Shanghai. The newsletter, which is called "Pig Pan," means The People’s Press. It is an organ of Revolutionaries, and is already an influential fac- tor in Chinese thought.

Young was in the government serv- ice, but left immediately after the uprising at Wuchang belting the "China for Chinese" slogan. He is Manchu, but called in to be associated with the revolutionary movement.

K. P. Chen, '99, has been made ban- cher of the Shanghai branch of English Province Bank, a banking in- stitution of the new republic.

Five New Electives in Arts.

Five courses in Political Science will be added to the current cur-riculum, open to students in the Department of Arts and Science by a bulletin sent from the Educational Board. The courses are as follows: 432, Diplo- matic and Consular Service; 439, Foreign Policy of United States; 432, International Law, O.2; Administrative Law, 432, Political Theories.

A thousand-word composition will be written by those who are the sons of Church at New York Univer- sity.

Students at Washington are en- titled to ride at half fare rates on the Seattle trolley cars.

The Michigan Athletic Association has a membership of over 15,000.
