CARTIER INELIGIBLE

CARTIER INELIGIBLE FOR VARSITY CREW

Pennsylvania will have the final say tomorrow when the team meets the Columbia crew in the annual Big Five meet in New York. The contest will be followed by a water polo game.

The death last month of J. L. Tuck has not had much success this year, they are not as enthusiastic about coaching and Carl Kiefer expects a good contest.

It has been a notable fact that in every meet except one this intercollegiate season has been held in the Big Five meet, the relay team won the title, and this year the intercollegiate record of 75 will be set by Cartier. He has been the record holder for six years. The result will be interesting.

The outstanding football victories have been those of the Pennsylvania crew. These victories have been set this year.

The Pennsylvania crew is not likely to be outdone in swimming, and the varsity will be held, with Pennsylvania most probable to win. The contest is bound to be hot, and the Pennsylvania crew is expected to be well prepared for the contest.

The Intercollegiate record of 75 will be set by Capit M. W. J. E. and Capit M. A. W. J. E. will be set by the varsity team.

In the varsity swimming, however, will be set by the varsity team. It has been a unique record for the varsity swimming team. The varsity will have a good chance, with the varsity team.

The varsity swimming team will have a good chance of winning the intercollegiate record twice in one year. The varsity team is expected to have a good chance of winning the varsity swimming team twice in one year.

President John C. Howard. Professor Arthur H. Quinn. the chairman of the varsity team, will be present at the meeting. The reference representatives of the varsity team will be present at the meeting as well. HER JEWELS CAUSE TROUBLE.

Opera This Evening a Result of Love, Jealousy and Italian Music.

From a title one would imagine the plot of "The Jewels of the Madonna," but the story moves with a rapidity and fits so naturally the progress of church and calm. The plot is full of the jubilees and just as many incidents as an Italian opera would not be Italian. The scenes are in the grand manner, in crowded market-plazas, with throngs of many people, sometimes bright-colored, vividly colored and sparkling. There is a heroine's heroism, and a plot of bitter mystery, and when the complications are won.

"The Jewels" was very popular during the star of the company in China, when the audience had to have the judgment of the Wolf. Wolf, who composed the opera, is represented in this manner by "The Secret of Bismarck," which has like, as its way rapidly into public favor. "The Jewels is a more progressive opera than "The Secret," on a larger scale in every way.

Caroline White is the opus donnas of the occasion, and the revellers who will sit for her part are Baed and Kommeron. Christiane Cram- mer, who assisted the Philadelphia public to great excitement in the "Secret of Berlin" with the reciters of "Skatish," "Electra" and "Pelicans," during the consistency of Oscar, will conduct. Reduced cards will be distributed, as usual, from the Pennsylvania box office at 1 o'clock today.

STRAVE YET AT LAW SCHOOL.

Lawyers to Ballot This Morning on Presidential Candidates.

A special meeting of the Presidential candidates who are likely to figure in the coming examinations and election will be conducted in the Law school this morning. This opportunity for the law students to record their preference for the President for the following term at the Wharton School, and be decided upon after Dean Lewis' recommendation of Theodore Roosevelt had been made public. The balloting, which has had a wide circulation, to-day's balloting is a popular interest, as it will show to what extent the public is interested in the campaign with his opinion. The voting is to be done in the main hall of the building, between 9 and 11 a.m., which does not conflict with any recitation or lecture session. Davis, 11 a.m., is in charge of the arrangements.

PENGERS MEET YET.

Cash Sounds Tonight in One of the Important Contests of the Season.

The varsity football team, represented by Captain Calahan, Van Kirk and Murphy, will meet Yale football in the stadium today. The playing's a high-stake, which does not conflict with any recitation or lecture session.

Design decisions to-day.

Curt. Will Pass on Designs Submitted by Mus and Wig Programs. Division will be passed on this afternoon by Prof. Craig, of the Architecture. (In about thirty designs which have been admitted in the competition for the Mask and Wig poster, which will be used on the program cover for "The Hour of the Truce." Several notable designs, of an original order, were submitted in the award of the Trophies today. The merit of all was so obvious, that the "Bucknell" who "called Bucknell" was the architectural show, has con- treated this out of his individual concep- tions. J. R. Atkinson has a beautiful piece of a beautiful girl's head, on which he reposes a large, sweeping Reg- enhorn hat.

A UNIVERSITY WITH IDEALS.

Prominent Undergraduates Being Sent to Talk to Preparatory School Men.

Quietly and without ostentation, the Christian Association is spreading Pennsylvania's fame as a "University with Ideals," through the educational world, serving in a different way the same purposes as the athletic teams and Musical Clubs.

asses of the University, under the Chris-

RELAY TEAM FACES CORNELL.
Favorite Team in Hard Race with Red and White at Buffalo To-night.

Cornell meets the Varsity four-mile relay team tonight in a meet at Buffalo, Pennsylvania will be represented by Langner, McCurdy, Gardner and Harnois. This team, although not the best, the University can produce, neither McPhee nor Foster were enlisted in the trials, as both are being tried for other in the season. Cornell will have both Jones and Iim Evans on their team, and this famous long-distance duo should carry off the honors for the Itholias, although the Pennsylvania quartet will put up a stiff opposition and may pull out a victory.

Mr. Howard Pratts left with the team yesterday morning for Bufalo, where they arrived last night.
After a good night's rest and a whole day at business, the men should be in prime condition for the race tonight.

Coach Hapgood was out to see
"Mike" Murphy yesterday reports, the famous mens' track daily. "Mike" feels as much better himself that he declared he would be down at the gym
in another week.

As the Intercollegiates are going to be held here this Spring. "Silks" is very anxious that his prospects should make a good showing, and is trying to get better as rapidly as possible, so that he can take a hand in training them himself early in the year.

Under the supervision of Coach Haygood, both Varsity and Freshman track candidates are taking daily workouts under the South Stand. All the long-distance men were in force yesterday, as well as the mid-distance men and the sprinters.
Among the Freshman candidates, long-distance runners are scarce, although every other department is well cared for. It will be up to "Mike" when he comes back to develop some stars
from the ranks of the first year men.
For up to this time few men have shown up well in the distance events.

BOXERS READY FOR RING.
Preliminaries of Boxing Tournament
Will Be Held This Evening.

The preliminaries for the boxing tournament for the championship of the University will be held tonight in Vithburg Hall. In connection with the boxing meet between Pennsylvania and Yale.

Among the top lancers are expected are three or four men entered by both schools.

1. Barrett, winner of the 135-pound class
in last year's May Day sports, and J.
J. spectrum, and J. Barrett, one of the winners in the May Day sports of last summer, is expected to be among the first. An unusually fast bout will be held when Berry and J. W. McPhee are matched for the 135-pound class. E. Rossover is the only entry in the heavyweight, but Coach Decker expects to have a real fight between Rossover and Harnie, last year's Freshman May Day winner. These men are considered the best of their weight in the University and a hard battle is expected, as they are evenly matched.

Philadelphia is the first college to introduce boxing as a regular sport, although Columbia, Pennsylvania and Yale have expressed their willingness to take up boxing as an Intercollegiate sport.

The finals will be held Wednesday.
March 26, in connection with the 13
Indoor Athletic and Musical Carnival.
Anthony Dowd Biddle, the well-known amateur member of this city, will referee the various bouts.

COLUMBIA SOCCER GAME HERE.
Efforts Being Made to Have Game on Belmont Cricket Club Grounds.

A short soccer practice was held on Huron Field yesterday. No settlement was played, but the few "arrows" of players who were out for personal line up against the backs.
Endeavors are being made to play a competitive match with Columbia
at Philadelphia instead of New York. This match is scheduled for March 16. If the Intercollegiate Cricket Club committee secures the game will be held there.

The second team's match with Philadelphia C. C. Second, which was scheduled for this Saturday, has been postponed to a later date.
