ONE-MILE RELAY TO RUN IN PITTSBURGH-TO-NIGHT

Will Meet Teams from Cornell and Michigan in Special Race—Men in Good Shape.

BURDECK ENTERED IN HIGH JUMP

Pennsylvania's one-mile relay team, which performed so creditably and the canteen and the room as they take their place in the University Gymnasium, Pittsburgh, to-night.

Captain J. W. Burdeck and Manager J. B. Moffett accompanied the men to the East on the last trip of the season. In the athletic carrier, Burdeck has set new records for the University in the 110-yard dash and the 220-yard dash.

The last trip of the season will be held in the event tonight. Burdeck should place if he does in 11.11.

The Pennsylvanian has heard the news that there was hardly any wind early this morning. The men are doing well in the trials during the past week. Captain Walton yesterday watched the crews from the two islands. In the West, there was hardly any wind early this morning, but let it be a question of the wind.

The personnel of the relay team is nearly the same of last year. This is the fastest team of last year's one-mile relay team. It is one of the best teams of last year's one-mile relay team. There was hardly any wind early in the trials during the past week. Captain Ward watched the crews from the two islands. In the West, there was hardly any wind early this morning, but let it be a question of the wind.

subject of Dr. Haas, a Pennsylvania Man and a Penn Author, at Sunday Services Tomorrow.

President J. A. W. Haas, D.D., LL.D., of Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., will be the speaker at the regular Mennonite Hall Sunday service tomorrow morning. His address will be on "The New Type of Religion," a subject of vital interest to every University man.

Dr. Haas is widely known as an eminent educator and author of religious works. He received his A.B. degree from this University in 1884, and three years later received an A.M. degree. Following his departure from the University he became a student at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, and later, in 1888, he attended the University of Leipzig.

After the completion of his college work, Dr. Haas was ordained in the Lutheran ministry, and in 1898 he assumed the duties of his first pastorate, Grace Church, in New York City. The success which attended his ministering efforts in this, his chosen field of work, brought a call in 1908, from the congregation of St. Paul's, New York, and in 1909, Dr. Haas was pastor of this large congregation until 1911, when he accepted the presidency of Muhlenberg College, an institution under Lutheran control.

As an author, Dr. Haas has achieved considerable fame in religious circles. His "Commentary on the Gospel of Mark," in the Lutheran Commentary, published in 1895, and his "Bible Literature" of 1905, are among his best-known works. In 1899 he co-edited and contributed to the "American Cyclopædia," and his frequent sentences are in the current numbers of the Lutheran Church Review are always received with great interest.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Haas spoke at Mennonite Hall before the meeting of German-American Historical Society. He has addressed the student body of the University on previous occasions.

That's our recipe for taking the bite out of good tobacco leaf. We hang the leaf in the warehouse for two years—temperature and ventilation perfect—all harshness disappears. A mellowness prevails that gives spice flavor and a smoothness seldom found. This is the good old fashioned way of maturing good leaf—and when you compare the taste of this tobacco with other brands, you will be surprised. You'll say, "That's the good old-fashioned way again—no wonder it burns hot and tastes so sweet." Give us a box of Velvet at all dealers.
