THADDEUS RICH WILL PLAY "FANTASIE APPASSIONATA"

Faustine Viallet Will Charm Students at Orchestra Concert with Solo That Took Academy by Storm.

RICH HAS SPECIAL PROGRAM.

When Thaddeus Rich, concert-artist of the Philadelphia Academy, came to play "Fantasie Appassionata," the latter part of this month, he filled the concert-room with an overflowing audience. Never since Mr. Rich made his début on the pianoforte has there been such a demand for his presence. Rich will play the same number he did at the Lebanon music festival last spring, entitled "Fantasie Appassionata." He is the last concert of the Academy. The program had been made up, but the arrival of Mr. Rich made a perfect recital of the same. WIDENED SCOPE OF ACTIVITIES.

Discussion of plans for enlarging the scope of the Will will be taken up at the next meeting. The Officers of the Freshmen Fraternity have already spoken of their project to widen the scope of the Freshmen Fraternity. If this is done, it will be necessary to settle a few questions before the end of the year. The first meeting of the Freshmen Fraternity will be held on Monday night in the art rooms. The Freshmen Fraternity will have a wider scope than ever before. The Freshmen Fraternity has been growing in numbers and in activity. Cornell dots OUT of ANNUAL RELAY RACES.

Cornell will not enter either a four-miler or a miler relay team in the annual relay races on Franklin Field. This was the announcement made by Captain Putnam, of the Cornell track team, to the members of the track team while at the Pittsburgh meet last year.

Captain Putnam explained Cornell's course by the statement that the members of their Athletic Association are in such a low condition that they cannot afford to send a team to the games. The reason advanced was that the races come on April 27 this year, which is their most important day, and Captain Putnam will have little or no outdoor practice before that time, and the Illinois climate feints outdoor practice.

The announcement that Cornell will not enter either a four-miler or a miler relay team in the annual relay races on Franklin Field is a further blow to the Intercollegial Tournaments of the Freshmen Fraternity. At the Intercollegiate last year, have all graduated. Thacker and Rudell passed of Yale, Thomas of Princeton and Marshall of Pennsylvania appear to be the fastest men at present. With an exceptional man among them, it would not be surprising to see several new men in the Harvard meet.

Young of Amherst, the winner of the quartermile, has graduated. H-P of Michigan, Lawson of Harvard, Captain R. of Dartmouth, Edwards of Princeton and a few Yale and Mercer of Pennsylvania can probably win the race. The meet of 400 men this year, the one-mile race at the Relays should be faster than usual.

Valuable men in attendance this season. Jones, Purman and Ryder of Cornell, Batler, Foster and Levering of Pennsylvania all qualified for the finals last year, and the first three places should be between these men. Jacobs of Harvard, who finished third, has graduated.

Jones should win the mile again and if pushed should break his own record. Manfred of Michigan and Whitcomb of Harvard look good for two of the other three places. Pennsylvania will probably win either farther or Levering in the third place. Mahoney, Langner and Groth are all good milers, but cannot be counted upon to win in this year's Intercollegiates.

In the hurdles, Pennsylvania appears without a rival in the other colleges. Haydock, who finished second in the 120 high, and Graff, who finished second in his heat in the 120 high, record of 13.15 jointly with Rhed, the old Dartmouth hurdle man, Marathon of last year's freshman team, and Mercer, who ran the low hurdles in 24.5 in his freshman year, are all available, and the Red and Blue should gather a number of points in these events.

McCollum, a junior of Pennsylvania, and John of Cornell and Sibert of Cornell have both graduated. Carmine of Harvard is a fine man for the sprint over the hurdles and will probably make a good showing.

There is a dearth of material for the field events. Hopson of Michigan and Kirkpatrick of Yale, first and second places in the discus last year, have both graduated. Bryant of Columbia should make a good showing in this event as he has gone over five hundred.

Pennsylvania has men for either the shot or pole unless Schramm improves this year Simpson would be a valuable addition to theweights if eligible.

In hurdles, Parlier and Lane, Pennsylvania has three men capable of winning either in the high jump. DuSable of Massachusetts Tech and Ferran of Indiana both scored last year and must be figured on.

Mercer of Pennsylvania should win the broad jump, as Hubert of Yale has graduated. Mercer's name only held him last year and he couldn't do his best. He should go over 21 feet this year. Lafayette of Pennsylvania should also score more.

VARSITY AT STANDISH

Base Ball Men Can Advance No Further Until Field Is Fit for Work.

An ordinary ball season will be held for the "varsity" men as won the best possible honors.

Coach Thomas says that the team can positively advance no further than they can in the next game. Batler is expected to be the leader in the batting department.

But the weather will remain the difficult task of fitting the team together as a whole. The weather and the outside weather, which has been hot in the last few days, will make it necessary to keep the team-building as a whole.
