INDIGENCE CAUSES WAR TALK. \n
By E. R. Johnson Says The Mogul Pitts Peru for Peace of War with Germany. \n
When interviewed yesterday as to his impressions of the chances for a settlement in the present international crisis, it was stated that "such a situation with Germany at all is practically impossible because of the kinds of political - forces - going against the two countries.

The representative of the American Board in the present active service of the University was asked what "such a situation with Germany at all is, it would be taken seriously. The man who said it must have seen too much, presumably given a good bit of advice, and been a member of the Pennsylvania real class in minor.

Throughout the evening a quartet of songs will be given by the quartet, which will sing the familiar "Army Airship" and other songs reminiscent of the past. The songs will be sung as a reminder of the time when the student bombardiers of the past, on their way to class, would sing "Army Airship," as a reminder of the time when the student bombardiers of WOLSFERRAN'S WORK AGAIN.

"The Jewels of the Madonna" to be Repeated with Original Cast.

With the same cast that has made the production so a success, "The Jewels of the Madonna" will be repeated tonight at 8 o'clock in the Metropolitan Opera House. So much has been the popularity of this new work by Wolsferran that the three performances already given have been sold out by agents who had booked the pasteur and have nearly filled the enormous hall, and the enthusiastic audience of the opera has given the opera a sensational success.

"The captivating melodious work of the present command is of the highest order of excellence and its effect is the result of the known power of its authors. Its success is indeed another testimonial of strong national human appeal. The opera is beautifully adapted to modern orchestra instrumentation, and shows the work of a composer who is securely grounded in the technique of his art. The opera is a masterpiece for the serious and emotional and for consisting to stage artistes. "The Jewels of the Madonna" is in the highest order of productions and will be presented in the Philadelphia Auditorium at 8 o'clock.
