Dr. Thomas Harrison Montgomery, Professor of Zoology at the University of Pennsylvania, has been chosen for the closing production by the Musical Department, which seeks to institute a three-year cycle of opera at the University. The production will be complete this year, and it seems to include even the most sentimental musical dances, such as the famous "Swann's Way." The University of Pennsylvania has survived an inevitable loss in the resignation of Dr. Thomas Harrison

VARIETY TOPS SCORCHS IN SEVEN-INNING GAME

Five Days Does the Twirling for First String and Sprague Fills Receiving Position--Score, 9-0

MINDS LEADS AT THE BAT.

The Varsity base ball team had little trouble with the Berks yesterday afternoon in the second practice game of the season. The score was 6 to 4 for the seven innings played.

Yesterday's work-out was the best and longest this year, and afforded the man an opportunity to look into the new sun catcher and at the same time to line up the men to start the game against the Navy Saturday. A few players were penciled in for the Varsity, with Thanksgiving coming, while Sprague still the bat. The work for the Berks. Heidinger was out for practice, but did not get into the game. Similar. Third and Marshall were absent from practice. The catcher's position is extremely weak at present, as the German, who has been laid up with injuries, Garden will be back in the line-up as soon as possible. The team looks strong enough to meet the Berks, and the loss would be received from Curyll's good health.

Thayer played right field yesterday, and if he continues to do so he will be a strong hitter and Coach Thomas will not be at all pleased with him. The team will have all charges of the first in fanciful style play made.

Colons and Smith played right field. Dining room, Armstrong, Haley and Hess are all promising fielders. Probably none of the players will lose his field in the outfield can easily be replaced.

Corell looks like a future at second base. He is off in the middle of the grass, and his throwing is done nowhere excepted.

The score was: Varsity, 2-1; Berks, 1-0.

1915 BASEBALL SQUAD CUT

Peace, Serle, Strain, Thompson, Marston, Navon, the line-up for the new season is:
