The unexpected death of Dr. John Messer brings sorrow to all those who knew him as colleague and instructor, and a sense of keen regret and deep loss to other members of the University who always regarded him as a man with the interests of his profession and the University close at heart.

For a number of years Dr. Messer was Professor of the Medical Department of the University. He was an able, one-time President of the Annual Banquet of Medicine, which was regarded among the highest recognitions that may be assigned to a student, and a brilliant student, he qualified for this position and the University close at heart.

The Man Who Makes the Team is the man who has stamina, the fellow who comes back strong after a grueling period of play, and forces the fighting in front of his opponent's goal.

Shredded Wheat
gives stamina to the athlete and to the student, because whole wheat contains every element needed to build brain, muscles and bone.

There is no food which meets all the needs of the mind and body as well as whole wheat of which Shredded Wheat is the most palatable and digestible form.

FINAL DRESS REHEARSAL.
Preparation for First Performance Will Be Completed in All-Day Rehearsals.

The final dress rehearsal of "Miss Rose of Texas" will be held today. The men will be at 5 o'clock at the Chestnut Street Opera House and the orchestra is scheduled to arrive at 11. This rehearsal is the antecipat before the regular production of two months of hard work. The men have been training hard to arrive at the last part of January, and now have reached the highest point of perfection. Only a few, distinguished theatrical men will be present at this day's show, which will last until late in the afternoon. Every little detail will be corrected, and the show will be gone over until all is working smoothly.

Tonight, after the rehearsal, the committee on Production will meet at the Mask and Wig club house and go over the show as it stands presently. All parts that did not go so well in the afternoon will be cut out and corrected. This will be made for the first show at Atlantic City on Saturday. This committee consists of Messrs. Mohr, Mor, Rosen, Lavine and Down.

Group pictures of both men and women were taken at the club house yesterday. These will be furnished to be used at Atlantic City.
