ATHLETICS—A NECESSITY.

Dr. McIntire Explains College Side of Physical Education.

Dr. R. T. McIntire, in his eighth lecture before the gymnastics leaders yesterday afternoon, dealt with the subject of the college side of athletics.

He explained the different phases through which athletes have gone in the American university since they were first introduced, and pointed out the light in which they are generally regarded.

The modern view, according to Dr. McIntire, is to consider the individual first. In his words, "Today physical education is looked upon as a necessity for every one and not as a specialty for a few."

FAST TRACK PREDICTS

SHATTERED RECORDS

suits respectively, arrived yesterday afternoon. Ester will have a difficult task holding their title, as they are represented by four new men. Central Manual High School of Philadelphia, led by Horner, a near 50-second man, will give the Boston quartet a hard fight in the high schools championship race.

New records are expected in both the mile and the two mile championship races. With Redpath of Brooklyn, Morrisey of Pennsylvania, Sanders of Illinois, and Davenport of Chicago running the last race for their teams in the one-mile, the record of 1:51.1, made by Harvard in 1901, should be lowered.

In the two-mile Pennsylvania's chances are strong. This event provides the occasion, as Painter should run well below 2 minutes, while Biddle, Loveng and Cramer can all beat that time. With the Princeton team, composed of Storl, Clyatt, Hazen and Crouch, to push them, and Minnesota, with Linberg, a 1:57 man, in the running, a new world's record is likely to result. Wood was reported yesterday that Ithaca would be unable to bring their two-mile team here.

Michigan appears to have the best chance for the four-mile race.

Some unusually good performers and present new world records are expected in the special events. In the hurdles, Watson of Notre Dame, Wilson of Coe, Cortis of Illinois, and Stewart of Yale should force the winning to do even a little at least. Nicholson of Mis- souri, Cane of Illinois and Thorpe of Carlisle should furnish a thrilling race in the high hurdles.

Nine of the men entered in the high jump have reached the height of 7 feet. Of those who entered in the pole vault many have cleared 12 feet. The show put, with Kohler of Michigan, Whitmore of Dartmouth and Beatty of Columbia, should remain an excellent competition. The winner will have to show at 48 feet.

In the hammer throw, Cable of Har- vard, Tilton and Tredaman of Dor- mouth should make good marks. Phil- brook of Notre Dame is counted upon for the district, although several of those entered could beat 125 feet.

Practically all of the athletes who will compete to-day had arrived in the city by last night, and a running re- ception has been arranged in the rear of the library last night in Houston Hall, where an inter- esting program was arranged by the Relay Committee for their entertain- ment.

The first number on the program was a piano and violin duet by C. J. Williamson and W. R. Welch, mem- bers of the Combined Musical Clubs. J. B. French, the Mask and Wig star, recited a melodramatic poem, entitled "My Uncle," which had a pronounced success. The last number was followed by I. Hob's humorous specialty, "There's a Big Cry Baby in the Room," which he cleverly impersonated George Cohan, David Warfield and Bert Williams. Elder Blacklock concluded the entertainment with his self-sound ham skits. The pro- gram was purposely short so as to interfere in no way with the training of the athletes, nearly all of whom were present.

RELIGIOUS EVOLUTION OF MAN

Subject of Address by Prof. Macfarlane of Biological Department Sunday Services Tomorrow.

Professor John McFarlane Macfarlane, Ph.D., of the Biological Department, will be the speaker at the regular Sunday services in Houston Hall tomorrow morning. His address will be on "The Religious Evolution of Man." Dr. Macfarlane has been connected with the University since 1893, when he accepted the chair of Botany. Born in Kirkcaldy, Scotland, he received his degree from the University of Edinburgh in 1856. After acting as Instructor in Botany in that Institution from 1851 to 1853, he came to America to take up teaching work at Pennsylvania, which he has been doing. In 1867, Dr. Macfarlane was appointed Director of the Botanical Gardens, and it is under his careful supervision that the "Bl" Gardens have become one of the prettiest spots of the campus. Besides being the founder of the Botanical Society of Pennsyl-vanila, he is also a Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh and a member of the Academy of Natural Sciences.

As an author, Professor Macfarlane has written numerous scientific papers on cell structures, among which are "The Structure of the Vegetable Cell," "Structure of Hyalids," and "Movements of Sensitive Plants."
