PENNSYLVANIA AND NAVY

Tigers Have One of the Best Teams in Intercollegiate ranks—Inlay and Hawk the Battery.

GAME CALLED AT 3 O'CLOCK.

Princeton will meet Pennsylvania on Franklin Field at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the annual game. For both Pennsylvania, with second seat in the first four, is 17 to 4, while the New Jersey team, who are using some of the upstarts, 60. Both sides also have their division leaders. Annunzio, who is scheduled to work today, will make a great deal of the game.

Twice before this year the Tigers have been extremely close and hard fought. On the basis Blue appears to have the slightly the advantage. Both teams are in fine shape for strap hats start today, and the game will be over in order at the game.

HARRY M. MIRRAY

PITTSBURGH LOSES AT TENNIS.

Pennsylvania Opera Season with Victory. Where goes this, the longed for Two of Four singles—Scores, 62.

Pennsylvania defeated the University of Pittsburgh in the first game of the season yesterday afternoon, on the Law School Courts, by the decisive score of 4 to 2. The Red Blue boys won in every category of the double and singles.

At all times the contest was close and exciting, the score varying ten times for this time of the year. The singles especially were unusually close, both teams playing in the best form. Pennsylvania had little trouble in capturing both the doubles categories. Captain Nash of the Red and Blue team was defeated in the first match of the Straight by Mackrell, the star of the Pittsburgh team, in an unusually close contest. He captured the first set by a score of 6 games to 3, but lost the following two, 6 and 7. While the Blue was weak, Captain Page played a gallant defense of his favorite of yolkers.

In the second singles, Jones defeated Wright of Pittsburgh, winning the first two sets, 6 and 11. Geist of Pittsburgh, defeated Crafts in the third set, 6, 6 and 2. In the fourth set, Page and Jones, the Red and Blue, defeated Wright, winning the first two sets played, 6 and 3. The games were contested but the Red and Blue's superiority was evident. Page and Jones played well, together, their unfavorable teams being responsible.

Wright and Crafts and White and Inlay in the second doubles, winning the game four of 6 and 7. The match today with Princeton will be played on the Law School Courts at 10 o'clock. There will be no changes in the singles instead of four, the first two sets of singles and three doubles instead of four, as yesterday. Running time on the Saturday, who play numbers 5 and 6 respectively in the Upper half, with their doubles teams as the third doubles team for Pennsylvania.

The course are in the best of condition and some unusually fast playing by both teams. The weather being unchangeable the match is looked for between Princeton Mother of Princeton and Princeton in the Upper Part of Pennsylvania in the last year for the British championship. Princeton's match follows:

1. Macrell (Pittsburgh), defeated Page, 4 games, 6 and 4. (Beard) (Pittsburgh), defeated Page, 6 games, 6, 6 and 6.
2. Willett (Pittsburgh), defeated Crafts, 6 games, 4 games, 6 and 6.
3. Page and Jones (Pennsylvania), defeated Nash and Wright, 6 games, 6 and 6
4. White and Inlay (Pittsburgh), defeated Crafts, 6 games, 4, 6 and 6.

C. E. C. SOCIETY ELECTIONS.

A large gathering was held at 8 P. M. on Friday by the Junior Class of the University. The election of officers was the chief event of the evening. The post was won by Annunzio, who has been assistant manager of the C. E. C. Society.

The prizes were awarded as follows: The best student of any branch of science, Mr. R. H. Goddard, assistant professor of physics; the best student of any branch of industry, Mr. H. W. Smith, assistant professor of chemistry; the best student of any branch of art, Mr. H. W. Smith, assistant professor of music.

The C. E. C. Society is open to all students and any student may become a member. The membership fees are $1 for each year of attendance. The society meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the C. E. C. Society room in the lower hall.

DINNER TO CHRISTIAN WORKERS

Provost and Trustees to Entertain

John R. McCracken,

Provost Smith and the Trustees of the University will give a complimentary dinner to John R. Scott, M.D., and Dr. J. C. McCracken, on Monday evening, May 21, at the Belvedere-Ridley, as an expression of their appreciation of the work which these two men are doing, for students throughout the world. Many of Philadelphia's prominent citizens will be guests of the University on this occasion.

Mr. Scott, who, in addition to the greatest authority on student life in the world, will have upon the dinner the discussion of "Student Religious Problems Throughout the World, with Special Application to the University of Pennsylvania," has just returned from the United States from a tour of the British and Continental universities, where he addressed great audiences of students on vital religious questions. While in Holland, Mr. Scott was for and given over an hour's audience with His Majesty the Queen.

In Belfast, he was met by hundreds of students who carried him from his train to a transport on their shoulders, and escorted him, led by the college band, to the university grounds. During the last half mile of the trip the horses were removed and the students themselves dragged the carrying for the rest of the distance.

As Chairman of the World's Student Christian Federation, Mr. Scott has made several tours of the world, and on one of these trips was a captive five years as president of the University of Pennsylvania. During the course of the tour, he was able to study some of the vital phases of the recent upheaval which transformed the Empire into a democracy.

FIRST CRICKET GAME TODAY

Coach Lancaster Will Try New Bowlers Against Germantown C. C.

In preparation for today's cricket match with the Germantown C. C., from eleven, Coach Lancaster put the "Van" through a two hours' grueling afternoon. So far only batting and bowling have been practiced, but Lancaster will try to get all the game tomorrow's fielding practices will be held.

As the Germantown match is the first one of the season, Captain McCracken will probably try out the majority of his new bowlers. Denman and Low have shown up the best in the nets, and all of these three, with one or two others, will face Ginger at Washington's care of the bowling. Both Coach Lancaster and Captain Winter expect a hard game.

Today's Game in 1932 Record

A novel feature in accordance with the general policy of the 1932 Record announced several weeks ago, will be the running of a "Van" Horse.

The Record photographers will be on hand to take pictures for a full page of cuts commemorating the debut of the "Van." There will also be snap shots of the teams in action.

The pictures of the "Van" race next Saturday are now in the hands of the engraver.

Logical Address on Woman Suffrage
Leader Fails to Attract Enthusiasm.

Dr. Shaw’s address on Woman Suffrage in Washington Hall yesterday afternoon was not quite the enormous success it was expected to be.
Preparations were made to seat six hundred people, but not more than half that number came. The committee in charge accounted for the comparatively small attendance by the fact that examinations are so close at hand in the professional schools, from which the largest portion of the audi-iose was expected.

The immense advantage of political equality for a sex delivered as an address, but bristled with logic, facts, figures and major premises. From the viewpoint of pure reason it was unquestionably irresistible, but it did not seem to arouse any appreciable response in the students who heard it.
Miss Shaw has pressed them to concentrate on the arguments for woman suffrage, and over herself and her speech, and clease telling stories and apt phrases, the same as seems to fail
