The Pennsylvania Society will present "The Shamrock's Holiday," 2 in the week by December 16 and 17. This is one of the exciting plays of Thomas Dekker, author of "The Guls," and is being written for the managers of the Pennsylvania Society. It is to be produced with the words of The Shamrock's holiday in a state of American company, which was acquired in the company.

The comic, a true representation of society, is a farce in three acts, written for the amusement of the artistic class of character, who are opposed to the artistic classes, the Lord Mayor being the one above the King himself to receive evidence. "The Shamrock," the Shamrock, is a picaresque and immoral play of comedy types. All the incidents are based on the real people of Dublin and are in fact which greatly aided his power of vivid characterization. The King... H. D. Lear, '12

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT.

We congratulate the Class of 1912 for its choice of Senior President. Although the present Junior Class has not been in residence long enough to secure a standing honor committee, it has acted according to its spirit and has selected for its most responsible position a man who has done much work for the class and its quartermaster.

The position of Senior President is one of great honor and carries with it many responsibilities. The ultimate success or failure of the class largely depends upon his character and the character of those who select a leader, and are confident that every member of the class, no matter what his sentiments at yesterday's election, will support him and help the new president to do his work. We wish him every success in his new position, and feel confident that the class will be happy and prosperous in its last year at Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions have been passed by the Friars Senior Society:

1. The Society desires to express the sentiments of the University of Pennsylvania and to the true spirit of sport have occurred on Franklin Field in the interest of the United States.

2. Whereas, we believe that, although we are not the only persons to whom the above institutions are of value, yet the student body of Pennsylvania has been more interested in the same, therefore, it is

Resolved, By the Friars Senior Society, that we should convey our sentiments to the presidents of the above institutions.

FASHIONS.

The current fashions are characterized by simplicity and modesty.

FOOTBALL REPORT.

The recent football game between the B'nai B'rith and Phi Delta Theta was won by the former with a score of 12 to 0. The B'nai B'rith played a very good game, and their defense was strong. The Phi Delta Theta team was not able to make many gains on the field.
