HISTORY WILL REPEAT

PRINCETON SPECIAL FROM BROAD ST., STATION, 12:30

Tickets at Pennsylvania Office from 9 to 12 This Morning, and on Train for $2.35.

TWO CHEERING SECTIONS.

All day today will be one grand, enthusiastic cheering section. The Princeton-Pennsylvania boat will circle up at the lines of the Princeton crew. Track meets, base ball games, regatta and Triangale show will combine to bolster and assure the enlivened crush of students, for today Princeton will be the center of the student world. Big enough to garner the list of attractions is the epochal varsity meet, the first Polo match of the season, which has not been rowed for thirty years, in which Pennsylvania and Columbia singles will pull for the master of Carnegie Lake. Just as exciting will be the midsummer base ball homestand, when Pennsylvanla will row in the first course, Princeton, to win revenge for the defeat of several weeks ago on Franklin Field. Just before the ball game Cornell and Princeton will try to run pulling for a showdown meet, or two. In the morning Princeton's tennis expenses will be bolstered by a regatta in an intercollegiate tennis match which Princeton will enter. A day of rush, excitement, battle and victory, leaves Princeton and Pennsylvania with a special Pennsylvania-Pennsylvania regatta, with the same composition of teams as in the Triangular, will close Princeton's week, c. w., at the Casino. From daybreak Thursday morning, a succession of thrilling undergraduate events will fill the Big Beautiful Lake. All of West Philadelphia will be deserted — or crowded — as the Navy will be met on the Annapolis Circuit this afternoon. The varsity will be on the water at 10:35, and a party of students will be on hand. The varsity will row in the first course, and a party of students will be on hand. The varsity will row in the first course, and a party of students will be on hand. The varsity will row in the first course, and a party of students will be on hand.

ENTHUSIATIC SUPPORT.

Franklin Field, for the first time in many Saturdays, will be practically deserted this afternoon, for the scenes on the playing field will be transferred to Princeton, where the Varsity base ball team will contend against the army Orange and Black nine on the Princeton field, and the eyes of the whole country will be fixed on Columbus and Princeton on Carnegie Lake.

Both teams and crew can rest assured that nothing and no number of undergraduates and alumni who will be present to encourage with cheering which, if lacking in volume, will be just as enthusiastic in quality as that accorded “Varsity teams on our own field for so many years. Pennsylvanians need no further urging to turn out and encourage the home-town boys in their effort to get another championship.

It is at a critical time as such that this year’s real feelings toward the University are fully manifested, and in no other way than by giving something toward upholding teams which represent a University that stands for all of those things which we are to admire and reverence as that accorded “Varsity teams on our own field for so many years. Pennsylvanians need no further urging to turn out and encourage the home-town boys in their effort to get another championship.

The display of enthusiasm by the undergraduates is always grateful, and this spirit as much as any other will contribute positively to the outcome of today’s contest. The undergraduates body can rest assured that members of both the eight and nine will do their best and that they will be accorded the hearty support which they so well deserve.

CRICKET AT GERMANTOWN.

“A Varsity Will Meet British-American This Afternoon.

The Varsity cricket team will play the British-Americans this afternoon at 3:00 o’clock at Germantown. The 1.2b train from the Reading Terminal to 6th and Passyunk Station where they will then take a Glenside from Chestnut Hill to Germantown.

The following are the teams:

Anders, Sharp, W. J. Jones, A. Jones, Evans, Williams, Bodman, Durnan and Lee.

RECORDS FALL IN JUNIOR MEET.

Schoolboys Break 100-Yard, High and Low Hurdles, Pole Vault and Broad Jump Records.

Five records fell yesterday in the Middle Atlantic States Junior Chamionship track and field meet held under the auspices of the University. Penn Charter won the meet, scoring 25 points, twice as many as any other school was able to score. The broad jump, pole vault, hundred yard dash, 220 hurdles and high hurdles records were all broken by the schoolboy athletes from New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey.

Rice, of Southern High School, made the best long jump of the afternoon when he jumped 21 feet 2 1/2 inches, 11 inches farther than the former record held by Hough, of George School. George School, a member of the former Varsity sprinter, took third place in the event. Hough’s jump of 20 feet 2 1/2 inches equaled the old record, while the 21 1/2 was equalled.

The pole vault record was broken by a 16 inches, 1 1/2 feet being cleared. The low and high hurdles and the 100 yard dash records were broken, while the 120 dash was equalled.

The junior meet results showed that the schools were as follows: Penn Charter, 25; Central High, 15; Manhattan High, 12; Episcopal, 11; Central Manual, 7; George School, 6; Emerson Institute, 5; Southern High, 4; Atlantic City High, 3; West Philadelphia High, 4; Barnford, 3; Holy, 2; Lanecow High, 1; Media High, 1; Conshohocken, 1.

“ARGONAUTS” EN VOYAGE.

Law School Lunch Club Will Penetrate Virginia Sound Today.

Romance is not yet dead in the University, for this meeting the valiant envoys of the Law School Lunch Club will set out upon a daring journey along the swamps of Virginia leaving all the terrors of travel in a perilous excursion behind. The A. G. Mention Club is composed of present and past members of the Law School Faculty, plus Dean Kirk, of Dental Hall. They meet together for luncheon every day in the basement of the Law School, where they provide themselves with food more tempting than the mindless sandwiches. In a way, the name “Argonaut” is a misnomer, for judging from the sounds that first fill the dining room at noon, there seems to be more argument than eating.

Every dining hall makes an exhibition to some out of the way place. The Argonauts go to Washington by rail, and there embark on a smoker through Maryland and on to the Potomac, and around to the Virginia swamps, and then up the Chesapeake and Baltimores. Leaving Philadelphia this morning, the party will return in time it is feared, for classes Monday.

FRESHMAN NINE AT ITHACA.

Cornell Has Played Three Games, Lost One—Avery on the Mount.

The Freshman base ball team will meet the Cornell Freshman this afternoon at Ithaca. The Freshman squad played yesterday morning and held a light practice yesterday afternoon on Percy Field.

The Cornellians have played only three games, while two of them and in all the games showing good hitting ability. The only game lost was to Coos Academy, through loss of Avery, the final score being 4-3. The Freshman will present their regular nine, Avery starring the game on the mound. Freshman games are a relief. Rooms will be held behind the library.

EVENING SCHOOLS TO DEBATE.

Pennsylvania and N. Y. U. Night Students Will Contest Tonight.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, in Houston Hall, the leading team of the Evening School meets the debaters of the New York University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance. In the third annual contest between the two institutions, special interest is attached to tonight's contest because of the fact that the Phi Delta Lambda Trophy has been offered to the winners for the first time.

The subject under discussion is: "Proposal: That the government should regulate by commission all corporations doing an interstate business, rather than permit the present Antitrust Law to remain as the statute book." The Pennsylvania team has the negative.

A team of three, with an alternate, will represent the Evening School. P. G. Graham will be the first speaker, and will be followed by C. E. Sherman, while J. W. Watrous will be the last one. C. F. Fairhouse is alternate. Each speaker will be allowed twelve minutes, together with a six-minute rebuttal.

Last year's debate was held in New York University's gymnasium but this year the debate is in the 14th street theatre.

STUDENT NIGHT AT PHILO PLAY

Admission Reduced to Fifty Cents.
First Performance Last Night.

After two nights of rain, the first complete performance of "The Showmaker's Holiday" was presented last night by the members of the Philomathian Society in the McCollum auditorium. Although all the members of the cast started the production in the shoes of W. D. Shelly, 12, and G. W. Bowley, 12, as Simon, Eves, the Shelly brothers, and Lacey, otherwise Hans, nephew of the Earl of Lincoln, stood out prominently. Shelly was aptly supported by C. C.经济发展, the youngesthist, and Lacey, 14, as his two apprentices, Fink and Garnett.

In the feminine role, W. G. Arnold, as Rose, the daughter of the Lord Mayor, excelled. W. H. Humhsu, 12, as the role of Margaret, wife of Simon Eves, acted exceedingly well and brought out all the humor connected with the part.

The really white and thoroughgoing shrews presented a large audience last night. The opening scenes of the play were a great success, while the audience will be reduced to fifty cents.

UNDERGRADUATES NOMINATED.

Seven Named for Two Places in University Committee on Athletics.

At the meeting of the Triangle last evening seven undergraduates were nominated for the positions of undergraduate member of the University Committee on Athletics. They were L. J. Ritter, '20; M. T. Heath, Jr., '22; J. E. S. Goodwin, '22; W. C. Gill, '22; T. T. Fol- lios, '21; J. B. N. Faxon, '14; W. C. M. Corrall, '20; and J. W. Bell, '20. These men will be voted upon by the committee and two will be selected. McCollum and Brooks will be the present undergraduate members.

The University Committee on Athletics is one of the most important bodies in the Athletic activities of the University, as the Trustees have vested in it complete supervision and control of the coaching branches, as well as of the athletic scholarships. The University Committee is charged with the responsibility of investigating all claims and questions concerning scholarships and other athletic matters, of recommending the proper superintendence of recreation grounds. The names of the winners will be announced on May 25.

The Athletic Association of Philadelphia has announced that ten two scholarships will be awarded for the University Summer School of instruction in the proper supervision of recreation grounds. The names of the winners will be announced on May 25. These will be voted upon by the committee and two will be selected. McCollum and Brooks will be the present undergraduate members.

Summer School Scholarships.

Summer School scholarships, the Pennsylvania Association of Philadelphia has announced that ten two scholarships will be awarded for the University Summer School of instruction in the proper supervision of recreation grounds. The names of the winners will be announced on May 25 by Professor William A. Stecher, who is in charge of the scholarship committee.

Sigs. Phi Sigma Defeat Phi Gamma.
