PHILADELPHIA FATALIST

PROVIDENCE TO PRESIDE.

HARVARD DEFEATED AT TENNIS.

makemen's three teams won two out of three matches in the Harvard, and Pennsylvania's Tessell was defeated in the Chapel service to-day.

both teams. The final score was 2 to 1,

Pennsylvania expected to qualify large number of men—Cornell highest point scores.

The greatest collection of college athletes ever gathered in a single track meet will assemble on Franklin Field to-day in order to engage in the trials of the thirty-seventh annual intercollegiate meet. More interest has been aroused in this year's event than ever before.
This is due to the secretaries of the outcome and the presence of several crowd of onlookers including champions, referees, and lawyers and departments.

Almost the entire amount of the desired final has been raised, and it is expected that the Cornellers will be among those to complete the event at the dinner to-morrow. The program begins at 7:30 p.m., and will feature six contests.

HARVARD WON BY 2 TO 1

The Harvard University base ball team came back from Franklin Field yesterday to play Pennsylvania. They brought along an aged-haired youth named Peison, a football man, and a college pitcher of quality, who had been both men behind him who knew the base ball business well. These students from Cambridge, Mass., played fast ball—very fast ball, and Pennsylvania had little chance to catch the Harvarders. The score was Harvard, 2; Pennsylvania, 1.

Peison was adopted by the coach, and he was given the kind of support to which he is accustomed. Captain

Wig, the Wester Alumni and club, and probably the last annual Alumni ought to have more advisedly. But all alike have won to-day, and the afternoon is to be made a brilliant one.

It is the desire of the committees to provide entertainment for all the invited to the dinner to-day, and the railway line is to be made a brilliant one.

June 19 Will Be Gala Occasion for Old Grads—Special Costumes for Parsons. The Alumni Day program, in addition to the Commencement exercises in the morning, will be filled with unusual features for the "old grads," and the young "grads," who will be here for the first time. The Alumni are planning to make a great showing, and each class expects its reunion to be better than that of any other. For the parade, which is to be held of all the classes, special costumes are to be worn, and the program of the day follows in full: 1:30 P. M.—Parade of classes on Franklin Field. Classes are requested to parade in costume as far as possible. Communicates with W. S. Ashbrook, 411 Chestnut street, regarding parade details. The parade will be reviewed by the Provost and the president of the various alumni societies. 2:30 P. M.—Baseball game on Franklin Field—Pennsylvania vs. Cornell, Admission 75 cents; reserved seats, 75 cents. A A. A. B. books are open for sale to receive your order, whether you expect to be present. The dress regulations are: W. R. Reeder, 707 Hotel Building, Philadelphia. 3:30 P. M.—Business meetings of the various alumni societies. The Society of the Alumni of Franklin Hall, Medical Alumni, Gymnastics Alumni, Dental Alumni in Dental Building, Architects in College Hall and other societies in the Gymnasium and in rooms to be assigned. 4:30 P. M.—"Buffet" supper in Wrightman Hall, for which a charge of $1.50 will be made. In order that proper provisions may be made, please advise the committee whether you expect to be present. Address regrets to W. R. Reeder, 707 Hotel Building, Philadelphia. Violations to the rules which consists of the interest on $400 for one month are: West G. Tugwell, S. Y. and C. Whitney Williams of Vineland, N. J. These boys were not only able to write the best compositions of any admitted to the entire Sophomore Class, but, being Wharton men, they are also able to compute the interest on $400 for one year. They know the standard rate of interest at the present time and can figure a person just how much of each of them is entitled to. The two Sophomores, also Wharton men, who received honorable mentions were: George Copeland and Prof. C. F. Ellis. The winners and one of the Sophomore composition class picked out his best men and submitted three of the papers handed in by each of these three being the term. CHEER LEADERS RECOMMENDED. D. K. Reeder, W. Merri, Barrand and Willard are selected. The Senior Committee on Cheer Leaders has recommended the following men to the Undergraduate Committee for the season of 1912-13: D. K. Reeder, head cheer leader; W. Mertel, Barrand and R. C. Getf 3

HARVARD WON BY 2 TO 1! SCORER ON FRANKLIN FIELD (Continued from Page One) The Alumni Day has settled in a run and double. Inlay fanned seven, passed five and allowed three hits, two to Wharton and a double by Clarke. The afternoon was good for base running and both had fully recovered from the long morning's rain. It was a fine game and Harvard earned the victory. The score: Harvard...
