MEDICAL STUDENTS WIN PRAISE

Junior and Seniors Render Good Service During Epidemic.

According to a report made to Dr. G. C. Wood, the unit surgeon at the University, a large number of students offered their services in the cases of epidemic influenza around the campus was largely the result of the extensive cooperation of the third-year and fourth-year medical students.

The college was made, on October 6th, practically all of the Junior and Senior medical students were used by Arthur Everett shipley, vice-chairman of the University of Michigan; Dr. Henry Miller, vice-chairman of the University of Pennsylvania; Dr. E. H. Jones, of Glasgow University; Dr. John John, of Trinity College; Miss Caroline Spurgeon, of the University of London, and Miss Rose Higginbotham, of the University of Birmingham. The cooperation is now at the University at Toronto. On November 6th the students will continue their work, visiting the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.
